Dyspepsia is the most perplexing of all human at neats. Its symptoms are almost infinite in their aristy, and the fortorn and despondent victims of the disease often fancy the metrics the prey in turn of every known maindy. This is due, in part to the close sympathy which exists between the stomach and the brain, and in part also to the fact that any figestive function necessarily disorders the lit-r, the bowels and the nervous system, and affect fuls is not a new preparation, to be tried and foun canting, it has been prescribed dupy for many year in the practice of eminent physicians with unpara field success. It is not expected or intended to cu all diseases to which the imman family is subject but is warranted to cure Dyspepsia in its most ob mouth hearthurn distantion of the stomach and bowels, constipution, headache, dizziness, alceptess-ness and low spirits. Try the great remedy and be convinced of its morits. Get the groundine Take only Eunkely, which is put only in one dollar bottles. bepot 159 North Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. 1
