G. A. Herring is acting as Deputy county Treasurer.

Chew JACKSON'S BEST Sweet Navy Tobacco.

Danville has had an entertainment for the benefit of the poor, realizing $184.

The regular meeting of the Bar Association will be held next Monday evening in the Law Library at 7 o'clock.

Persons intending to have sales of property in the spring will do well to call at this office for neat and cheap hand bills.

"My Sweet Little Kitten Malone," a song by J. J. Holland music by Omar Thomas, is for sale at G. A. Clark's.

There will be 407 pupils to quit the Soldiers' Orphan School of the State this year by reason of having attained the age of 16 years.

The County Commissioners have placed two new stones in the court room in place of the primitive cylinders and have thereby added greatly to the comfort of all who attend court.

I will offer for sale at the Court House in Bloomsburg on Monday February 10 inst. at 1 o'clock p. m., five shares of stock of the Bloomsburg Banking Company.

W. KRICKBAUM.

Mr. Joseph H. Davis, a coal operator of Centuria, has been selected by the Japanese government, at a salary of $3,000 a year, to explore the hills of that country for coal.

Township election notices can be obtained at the COLUMBIAN office for 3 cents apiece. Will be sent by mail on receipt of price for number wanted, and 3 cents additional to pay postage.

The Philadelphia Times Almanac for 1879 has been received, and we return thanks for this very valuable publication. It is handsomely gotten up with gilt edges, and contains a vast amount of political information.

Township, school and poor district officers should bear in mind that the law requires them to publish annual statements of their accounts, and that they can be punished for failure to do so.

Judge Dean fined a Huntingdon juror $100 for getting drunk while trying a case. - Monitor American.

We were not aware that jurors tried cases in Huntingdon county.

Tout fishers have had outlook for the spring May of the mountain streams are frozen, and when the ice rushes down the brooks after a thaw the few fish that are not frozen will be impelled by the razor-like ice.

The editors of the Republican are constantly talking about "the bloody shirt" in commenting on southern outrages. What do they know about it? If either of them ever saw a war, or should like to know when, where, and by whom.

READ THE COLUMBIAN! - We claim that it is the largest and best paper published in the county. Compare this number, for instance with our contemporaries, and see if there is no more useful, and important matter in it for the general readers than in any of the others.

Wilson Hough, a juror in Cambria county, when his name was called on Friday, could not be found. A court officer was dispatched to hunt him up, and came across him very much intoxicated. He was fined $200 and told to clear out.

The Sporting Association, of Western Pennsylvania, request farmers to shelter and protect, as far as possible, partridges and other game birds during the severe winter weather, and after the farmers have done this, the sportsmen at the proper time, will be around to shoot the game. How delicate!

Mr. John Pennington, of Bloomsburg, is in the field as a candidate for constable. If he have such an office as postmaster there he should get it. If he is not elected he might engage a clerk to the successful candidate. - Gazette & Bulletin, (Esp.)

We do not understand this star. So far as we know, Mr. Pennington is a good and law-abiding citizen even if he is a Republican.

ATTENTION, VOTERS! - The coming election this month is of unusual importance to taxpayers and voters. The assessors to be elected will make the triennial assessment, and none but the most careful and disinterested should be chosen in the choice of election officers. The same may be said of the other officers to be elected. In fact, the economical and proper management of townships and Borough affairs is more important to the taxpayers, than that of any State and National matters, and under no circumstances should be neglected.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The regular February term of court opened on Monday morning, Hon. William Elwell, and several J. K. Krickbaum and Shuman on the Bench.

Constables were sworn and made their returns from the several townships.

A general adjourned court was ordered to be held March 20th at 9 o'clock a. m.

Richard Jones, Thomas Gorry and B. B. Frea were appointed stipulantes for the first week; Abraham Fry and M. S. Williams for the second week.

The following auditors' reports were presented and confirmed:

Report of John G. Frea, making distribution of the fund in the hands of the Sheriff arising from the sale of real estate of A. S. Knittle.

Writ of partition in estate of Rebecca Reeder confirmed absolutely.

The Grand Jury returned the petition for a county bridge in Locust township, confirmed.

Commonwealth vs. S. Helwig et al. On trial.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Opera House last Saturday night, was witnessed by one of the largest audiences that has ever attended a play in this town. The performance was good, the only fault being that the company was not large enough to fill all the characters, and therefore each one had to play several parts which made it difficult to keep the run of the play. Topsy and Eva did their parts well, Uncle Tom was altogether too sentimental, and the other characters were fairly portrayed. Though it was a very nice night the hall was warm, from the new heaters recently put in. Parties from Eps, Lightstreet, Buckhorn, Orangeville and Rupert attended the performance.

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council was held last Wednesday evening. Nothing of importance was done beyond the payment of the monthly bills.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

On last Monday afternoon the attendance at the Sheriff's sale was unusually large, and the increased prices obtained would seem to indicate an appreciation of the value of real estate even at enforced sales. The subject lot offered held in this county.

DEATH OF HON. I. S. MONROE.

Ex-Associate Judge I. S. Monroe, died at his late residence in Catawissa, at 7 o'clock, Tuesday morning, 4th inst. of heart disease, at the age of 74 years, 7 months and 25 days, while being assisted from one chair to another by his daughter and daughter-in-law. Judge Monroe had enjoyed unexceptionable good health during his entire life up to December 25th, 1877, when he was prostrated by an attack of vertigo, while on business at Rupert. After being confined to the house some weeks he recovered, and was able to be about as usual until last fall when he was again confined to his room for a few weeks. He recovered sufficiently to enable him to walk about the house, but not outdoors. A few weeks ago he was again obliged to take his bed, which he had to leave for a chair as he experienced great difficulty in getting his breath when lying down. For several days before his death he was not in bed. Although his demise was almost hourly looked for by his friends, yet his sudden death was a shock to the community.

The funeral will take place at the residence of the deceased to-morrow, Friday, afternoon at 2 o'clock. - Catawissa News.

Judge Monroe's life was a long and useful one. Whilst not an active politician, he always had views of his own, which were reliable in his character. He was appointed Revenue Assessor under President Lincoln, and on the death of Associate Judge elect Charles Mann, was appointed by Gov. Geary to fill the vacancy. He was subsequently re-elected to the office for a full term, and at all times discharged his duties with fidelity. His loss will be deeply regretted by the entire community. The Bench and Bar resolved to attend his funeral in a body.

MESSRS EDITORS: - There should be a greater amount on the floor of the Opera House, or the stage should be raised, or the short men should sit in front, or the ladies should sit in front, or the feathers on top. I imagine an ordinary sized man sitting in front of a lady wearing a dove-pipe hat. How much would that lady see? Now I went to the Opera House last Saturday evening to witness the play of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Of course, being late, I had to take a middle seat, and prepared to enjoy myself. Soon after the performance began, a lady of my acquaintance made her appearance, and took a seat immediately in front of me. At once my view of the stage was shut out. She was about my height, but on top of her head was a mass of somebody else's hair about four inches high. This was mounted by a hat, or something, six inches higher, and then on top of that were some feathers about four inches higher yet, making say fourteen inches above her natural height. I was tried to see what was going on. When others around me were crying, "I wonder what they were in tears about. When they were convulsed with laughter, I couldn't see what the fun was. I stretched my neck at the risk of injuring my vertebrae, but it was of no use. I bumped my head against those of my right and left neighbors in endeavoring to get a flank view, but that was my only recourse, and the theater I did. Now, Messrs Editors, can you devise some remedy for this evil? If you do, mankind will truly bless you. De Vries.

The editors of the COLUMBIAN feel gratified at the large number of new subscribers added to their list within the past month, most of whom have taken advantage of our advance rate. Those who have stopped their paper on account of hard times find that it was false economy, and they can save better in some other direction.

The days and dates of important events, anniversaries, and holidays for the present year will fall as follows: St. Valentine's day, February 14th; Washington's birthday, Saturday, February 22nd; Shrove Tuesday (Fastnacht), February 25th; Ash Wednesday, February 26th; First Sunday in Lent, March 2nd; St. Patrick's day, March the 17th; Palm Sunday, April 6th; Good Friday, April 11th; Easter Sunday and Monday, April 13th and 14th; Rogation Sunday May 18th; Ascension day, Thursday, May 22nd; White Sunday and Monday, June 1st and 2nd; Trinity Sunday, June 8th; July 4th, Friday; Christmas, Thursday, December the 25th.

If you want your Baby to look bright do not put it to sleep with laudanum or opium, but use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. 25 cents a bottle.

COON DAY - Last Sunday was what is commonly called "Coon Day" the superstition being that on that day the coons come out of their holes, and if they see your shadow, it is a sign of six weeks continued cold weather, and that they return. Many even tried the experiment, and those who put faith in it, should govern themselves accordingly. But the day is also known by the Catholic community, as Candlemas Day, or the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin, which commemorates the presentation of the child Jesus in the temple by Mary and Joseph. The law of Moses, which is still observed in a modified form in the Roman Catholic Church, ordained that every woman having given birth to a child should abstain from touching any hallowed thing and from entering the sanctuary until the end of a certain time of purifying. When this time had expired she should take a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle dove for a sin offering and present them to the priest at the door of the tabernacle. The priest then make an atonement for her, and she would be cleansed. The modern ceremony, however, simply consists of the mother kneeling at the gate of the sanctuary, holding a lighted candle in her hand, while the priest reads certain prayers and sprinkles holy water upon her.

The day is also known as "Candlemas Day," from the fact that all the candles used at the services in the churches and for religious purposes in the houses of the people are blessed this day, the burning of the candles being symbolized by the fire. Blessed candles are used at the church services and also carried in the processions.

We learn that an effort under the direction of Representative Ward of Pennsylvania, will be made to secure an appropriation of the unexpended balance of the fund for stones for the graves of the Union soldiers in National cemeteries for the erection of similar monumental tributes on the graves of many fallen soldiers who rest in private cemeteries. A bill of a somewhat similar nature passed the Senate some time ago.

As it should be. All over this land there are unmarked graves of those who died in battle or hospital, or since the war. We would not limit it to those who fell in battle, but to all who died or since the war. Neglected soldiers' graves are especially common in this country, and unless soon attended, will become totally obliterated. True, in this place there are a few feet of ground devoted to this purpose, but it is totally inadequate, nor can we expect any kind of generosity from the community in the future. Perhaps the proposed Soldiers' Organization will take the matter in hand.

P. S. Since writing the above we learn that Mr. Hayes has approved the act authorizing the secretary of war to erect headstones over the graves of Union soldiers who have been interred in private cemeteries. The act authorizes the secretary to use in this work so much of the one million dollars appropriation of 1873 for placing headstones over Union soldiers interred in national cemeteries as remains unexpended. But why confine the act to those who are interred in private cemeteries? Thousands of our men are buried in village and country church yards, and many upon the farms where they were born. Why should there be any discrimination?

Grand juries are sometimes hard to understand. The one in attendance this week was kept busy three days in the hearing of seven bills sent before them, none of which were as required much time. On Wednesday afternoon they went to inspect the jail, with two bills undispensed, while the witnesses were waiting to be heard, and in two cases were obliged to spend another day here by reason of this delay. With anything like good management the Grand Jury could have finished all the business before them by Tuesday noon.

Rupture of an Artery in the right arm. Tried the most prominent surgeons in this city with little benefit. By accident heard of Dr. Giles' Liniment. Iodine Anhydride. It acted like magic. Am now well.

W. BECKER, Music Dealer, Organist Church of St. Francis Xavier, N. Y.

Sold by all druggists. Send for pamphlet.

120 West Broadway, N. Y.

Trial size 25 cents.

Public notice was given on Monday in court that the Law Library must not be used as a general passage way. It is only for the Judges and Members of the Bar. The furniture is the property of the lawyers and not of the public. A warning room for witnesses has been fitted up in the south west corner of the court room under the gallery.

A word to the wise. If you are troubled with a cough or cold, procure a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at once. It will save you from severe sickness. Your druggist keeps it. Price, 25 cents.

Our legislators are complaining that they cannot get money by vote stamps to put on letters to their wives. Poor fellows, why don't they resign? But that $6,000 or $7,000 spent on Hoy's Inauguration would have bought a good many stamps. At least half of the champagne could have been diverted from the new members of temperance men, and a cheaper band could have been had than Gratulati's, which received over $300 a day.

HE DID NOT TAKE A PAPER - One day last week a gentleman came into our office and explained that he was entitled to about $700. out of a certain estate, but that the account had been filed and confirmed. "Why didn't you attend to the matter before?" "I did not know it until the account was finally confirmed," he replied. "But," we suggested, the account was regularly advertised? "Yes, but I don't take a paper," was the regretful answer. The moral to all is that it pays to take a paper, and especially the COLUMBIAN which publishes all the official and legal advertisements.

ADVICE TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The celebrated physician, Dr. Paul Meyer, gives the following valuable suggestions to persons suffering from lung affections: "The patient must with scrupulous conscientiousness insist upon having fresh pure air, and must remember that the air of closed rooms is always more or less bad. No man, however uncleanly, would drink muddy, dirty water. A party which occupies a room for hours, breathing the same air, might be compared to a party of bathers drinking the water in which they bathe. The patient must keep the window of his bedroom open. Night air is fresh air without daylight. In close-crowded rooms, the patient suffering from lung complaints, breathes unhealthily." By taking these precautions and using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pills, fully one-half of the cases of lung complaints would be cured in six months. For cough and irritation of the lungs do not always indicate the presence of consumption although it may result in that disease, and if consumption has already been deeply seated in the system, this is the most efficacious means of treatment that can be pursued outside of any institution that provides special facilities for the treatment of this disease.
