Ot course it cannot be supposed for a mo ment that our Representatives at Harrisburg will vote in any way to encourage a draft upon our empty Treasury to pay the riot losses at ourg. At present that city is liable, not only by force of an Act of Assembly in such ase made and provided, but morally as well. The city government, police, citizens, judi-eiary, press, ---all tavored the riot and rioters. For that amusement let them pay. We care not if a certain powerful corporation does favor the measure. True, it used to own a majority of the Logislature, the Governor, some adges, and such newspapers as the Times, but in these latter days a keen public is scanning the votes of Representatives, and the word "bribed" may be set down against she name of any member not locally interested who shall vote for this job. The sale of the Public Works, the Repeal of the Tonnage tax, the Nine Million Steal, and kindred jobs are fresh in the memories of the people, and no white-wash can excuse members who will vote for the pending iniquitous measure.

It is quite refreshing to see the advocates of a bill to enable the railroads and others to establish and work telegraph lines indep adent of the Western Union urging arguments ore a committee of the Senate, every member of which probably had franks in his pocket of that monopoly, to be renewed whenever his little book should be exhausted. Accord ing to the report of Mr. Orton, one-third of business of the whole company was on the free list ; and experience with officials, members of Congress, newspaper correspond-ents and the like, proved it to be a profitable vestment, and a means of shutting out e m

When legislators, Judges of the State an Federal courts, including the highest judicial tribunal at Washington, and others in exalted station, consent to accept and to use free passes on the railroads, franks from the Adams Express company, franks from the Western Un-ion, and franks from other corporations, it is easy to understand how action is effected in Congress, and why decisions are made in re-gard to these interests. It can hardly be called indirect corruption when the gift is ta-kee with all that the name implies.—N. Y.

CONGRESS ADJOURNED. POTTER'S REPORT. The XLV Congress expired at noon, HOW HAVES WAS MADE PRESIDENT. March 4th. Speaker Randall made a part ing address to the House as follows ;

Representatives :-- In a moment this con gress will expire. Its acts, whether for weal or wos, are indelibly inscribed upon the pages of history. In this hall party has been arrayed against party and interest sgainst interest in flerce and bitter struggle but it is due to truth to say that on every side there has been an honest ambition to win popular esteem by seeking each in his own way and according to his best judgment, the general welfare. Whether or not the de-ired end of public good has been success fully attained is for time to prove, but that such has been the aim of both sides cannot justly be disputed. Genuine concord be tween all states and citizens thereof is the corner stone of our national prosperity. What prostrates or elevates one at the expense of another inevitably inures to the ultimate injury of all. Although each repescutative has championed the wishes of force solely from a close, logical deduction of the facts presented to the committee. Some of the Democrats regard it as wanting in color or not so strongly expressed as the facts warrant, and it is not unlikely that some members of the committee belonging to the party will present an additional ex-pression of their views, more vigorously de-nouncing the Presidential election frauds and the persons connected with them. his immediate constituency with earnestness and energy, during the whole period of experience in this house there has not been a single breach of legislative decorum. That puble respect, born of generous rivairy in a common good cause, has softened all asperities. I feel that mere words are inadequate to thank fully this house for its resolutio THE SCOPE OF THE REPORT. of approval of the manner in which I have discharged the duties of speaker. Always responsible and onerous, and often most del cate and difficult. I have done my best. Long service here has taught me that hate or vengeauce has never raised any cause to enduring honor, while on the contrary, justice and mutual regard have often given the reaker side an easy victory. With two great arties dividing the people, each holding an nportant share in the government with strict accountability on the part of public servants, and vigilant eyes watching all, with reviving business and restored confidence may we not look hopefully to an early dawn of the new era of increased prosperity and greater happiness for the country. Such is my fervent prayer. To each and every repsentative here, I tender my beartfelt acknowledgment for the kindly forbearance extended me as presiding officer of this house and to say that I shall ever gratefully cherish the honor of which I have been the recipient with a wish that you may all reurn safely and in health to your homes, only remains for me to declare in accordan with the constitution, that the house stand adjourned without day. HOW BUSINESS STOOD AT THE CLOSE.

All the annual appropriation bills, except be legislative, executive and judicial, and the army bill, were signed by the President and have become laws together with the bill making the requisite appropriation to pay arrears of pension. Conference committees were in session all night, but were unable to agree on several of the most important bills.

In the senate the Seward impeachment case was defeated. Butler's telegraph amendment was defeated. The legislature and army bills were deteated, and the Indian territory mprovement bill was defeated. Pollock's instion was not taken up, and between 150 and 200 nominations of different kinds are left unconfirmed.

The proper beam of the two proves to decide to determine the two proves and t On Saturday last Mr. Potter, the chair-man of the investigatic g committee, submit-ted the report which he had prepared to the committee and it was adopted by the vote of six Democrats to three Republicans pre-ent. Mesars. Hiscoek, Cox and Reed, will prepare a minority report and General But-ler will draw up a separate statement, giving his views in reference to the bargain with the Hayes party by which the Democrats recovered the States of South Carolins and Douisiana. Mr. Stonger, Democratic mem-ber of the committee, who was chairman of the sub-committee in Louisiana, has also prepared a report. Mr. Potter's report is mecesarily long, as it deals with all the points that have been before the committee will be presented to the committee to mor-ome. Mr. Potter's report is regarded by the Democrats who have permed it as singular-by impartial and judicial. It is entirely de-void both of rhetorical ornamentation and to did both of rhetorical ornamentation and of the facts presented to the committee so the induced from a close, logical deduction of the facts presented to the committee some facts presented to the committee of the sole of rhetorical ornamentation and the point is a submittee of the sole of the committee of the facts presented to the committee of the facts of the facts presented to the committee of the sole of the commentation and the sole of the Democrats recard it as wanting

The report opens with an introduction which ests forth what was proper for Con-gress to investigate and what not, and the difficulty of conducting an investigation in-to conspiracles which have been successfully carried out while the successful party remain in power. It admits that the confessions of consensations when have been successfully so called bull-dozed parishes was the largest ever cass, As to the conspiracy in East Feliciana par-ish the report states that after the Damocrats had conciliated the negroes there Kellogg wanted Anderson, who was the supervisor, to have no election, and Anderson fraudulent-ly ran away with that view to furnish an ex-cuse for throwing the parish out, as Grant parish was thrown out, because of the super-visor of registration absenting himself on elec-tion day, notwithstanding the other officer held the election and madeone return of the vote. The Democrats in E. Felicians, knowing that they had captured the negro vote, hired An-derson to go go back and hold the election. The Republicans then hit upon a new plan, and directed their friends in the parish uot to carried out while the successful party remain in power. It admits that the confessions of conspirators who have become dissatisfied are worth little, but points to the fact not generally understood that about the essential features of the election and canvass in Flori-da and Louisians there is no sub-tantial dis-pute before the committee, the Republicans having called no witnesses in Florida and few in Louisians except as to the conduct of the visiting statesmen and incidentally about intimidation. It dismisses entirely the testimoney of Anderson, Jenks, Mrs. Jenks, Weber and that class of witnesses, and deals with the case upon the general and controlling facts alone. The report is divid-ed into three parts, the first of which refers to Florida, the second to Louisianna and the third to the forged electoral certificate. Beginning with Florida it cites the law di-recting the Presidential electors to be ap-pointed by the votes cast and the Canvassing Board to canvass the votes cast, and claims that the Tilden electors having received a majority of the votes cast in this State were thereby necessarily entitled to be declared elected, and that the Canvassing Board, by rejecting without warrant of law a portion of the votes, so as to show the majority for Hayes, unlawfully counted Tilden out. It states that the Canvasers delayed their an-nouncement until the morning of the day the electors were to meet and vote, so that al-though action was instantly taken to out the Hayes electory, no decision could be had The Douncaria is L Fieldman, knowing the vector of the parish. The report then re-cites the judgment of the Supreme Court, which subsequently decided that the Hayes electors were not elected, not entitled to cast the vote of the State, and that the Tilden electors were, and also the judgment of the Court in the action brought by Drew, the Democratic candidate for Govdrnor, to ob-tain a recanvase, where the Court directed a recanvase and decided that the causasem, in returning to count the votes cast, had de-frauded Drew and unlawfully scated Stearns the Reyublican. The Legislature of the State thereupon directed a recanvase of the electors were Republicans, and the recanvase showed that the Tilden electors were chosen. The Governor then issued his certificate to the Tilden electors as the true electors but the Electeral Commission refused to consid-er the judgment of the court, the Judges of the Governor in favor of the Tilden electors and held that it could not take notice of any action by the State after the 6th of Decem-ber.

PROVIDING AGAINST FUTURE WRONGS. The report draws attention to the fact that such a wrong might be repeated in any State, at any Presidential election, by the --to admit it, his duty in the premises cannot possibly be mistaken.
General Grant entered the Presidency with both branches of Congress overwhelmingly Republican-63 Republican Senators and 9
Democratic-and left it with a small Republican majority in the Senate and a Democratic ic majority of 77 in the House. To be more explicit : The Republicans had 170 members in the House and the Democrats only
General Grant's second term the House contained only 107 Republicans and 184 Democrats. Doubtless the most enthusiastic of General
State, at any Presidential election, by the canvasers witholding the announcement of the result of the electoral College and then declaring persons who had never been declars, when, according to this declasion, such electors would be entitled irrevocably to cast the vote of the State. It therefore recommendes a law providing that where there a lectors of any State, the judgment of its court of last recort, if certified to Congress before the meeting of the electoral vote, shall be conclusive as to the right of the disputing electors and of which vote from the State shall be counted unless the two houses of Congress shall otherwise agree. and although four-fifths of the negroes in the parish actually did vote with the Democrats, the Returning Board threw out the whole Democratio—and left with a wind lease of the set of the OUTRAGES BY THE RETUR NING BOARD. The report points out a great many other astances of what it styles the fraudulent,out-LOUISIANA PRAUDULENTLY COUNTED. In regard to Louisiana, the report begins with a reference to the anomalous power possessed by the returning Board, which, it mays, never before existed elsewhere. Under it the electors and the returning officers held the grossest power over the receiving and counting of votes. Under the protext that the color line divided the political parties, they had used this power to fraudulently count the State for the Republicana, and had been exposed by the Republican committee of the Forty-third Congress, which had re-ported that the whites and blacks of the State being equal, and some of the blacks and all the whites having voted for the Democrats in 1874, the State had necessari-ly been carried by them, although counted for the Republicans. Hereupon the Repub-licane set about a false census, in which they made it appear that there were 25,000 more sons in that State appointed to office. THE FORGED ELECTORAL CERTIFICATE. Chief Justice Thompson, of Pennsylvania has given an opinion as to what constitutes gambling, which being the opinion of the "rest of mankind," must be intallibly cor-rect. He says: "Anything which induces men to risk their money or property without any other hope of return than to get for nothing any given amount from another is gambling, and demorilizing to the commun-ity, no matter by what name it may be called." There is nothing new in that, but it would be something new to have the laws put in force and gambling suppressed. There should be no splitting of hairs, and it would not be a bad idea to make a raid on Wall street, the greatest gambling deu on the continent, and the most demoralizing of them all. The Judge wisely says in con-clusion: "All gambling is immoral, and we apprehend that the loses incident to the practice disclosed within the past five years have contributed more to the failure and OW/ANIEED FRAUD. OBMANIZED FRAUD. Notwithstanding this organized fraud, says the report, when the elections were over the Democrats had a majority, as returned by the Republican election officers, of some ten thou-saod, the vote polled being the largest ever polled in the State and larger in proportion to the population than that of any other State. The Republican officers made returns of the vote accordingly and deelared that the elec-tion was peaceful and fair. The Republicana, in order to overcome this majority, then usurp-ed powers not given to them. In support of this, the report eites the finding of the Hoar,
