THE OBSTINATE WEATHER COCK.

How did the ship happen to be up there among the mountains? That no one could see it...

When the bell in the belfry rang the children into school the ship trembled, but it kept on its course...

It was a full rigged ship, all sails set, and the captain standing on the poop...

Where were they now? Gone, no one knew where, while the captain-Captain Prim was sailing his ship...

One day he was started by seeing a head looking at him over the rail.

"I say there," said the head, "want a passenger?" and before the captain could answer...

"Who are you?" growled the captain. "Lambduber! duty! out at sea!"

"Hear him!" laughed the passenger. "Who you are as old as I am, young stranger..."

"When you're traveled as far as I have," began the passenger, "you'll know whether it's duty or not..."

"My by he isn't dusty between here and Colorado. May be these hills are't pretty rough climbing..."

"Who are you, any way?" asked the captain, his curiosity getting the better of his pride...

"Haul away on the main sheet!" cried the captain, and the Potato Bug, not seeing anybody at work...

"Well, this is a ghostly ship," said the Potato Bug. "I'm not going to work my passenger..."

"Hear there!" cried the captain, as the ship swung round and was still again.

"Mind your business," said the captain blithely, but he too, had always had an eye on the meeting-house...

"Well, I think I will. I'll get out of this flying Dutchman," said the Potato Bug, getting up and climbing over the rail again...

"He's an ignorant hand-lubber," said Captain Prim, breathing a little more freely, but not daring yet to look at the meeting-house again...

"A London coroner, writing in regard to a recent railroad accident which, 'as usual, the communicating cord will not work,' made use of the following significant words...

Clearness and common sense applied from the beginning to the end are absolutely necessary to insure good butter that will bring the highest price in the market.

J. T. Hanchett, of Tennessee, writes: 'If the cows are milked a few days before they come in, when the udder becomes reasonably full, I do not think they will be troubled with milk fever.'

Most of the diseases of cattle are caused by wrong treatment—too much feed at one time, too little at another, too rich at one time, too poor at another, etc.

To clear a cistern, add two ounces powdered alum and two ounces borax to a twenty barrel cistern of rain water...

It is stated that a Minnesota miller has invented an entirely new process of grinding wheat, which does away with the millstone now in use...

When a pair of crows gets to going faster than the lad who wears them, the boy will almost invariably sit down in a spiteful manner.

GILES' LINIMENT TODIDE AMMONIA.

Cures all Pain in Man and Beast. TESTIMONIALS: PHILADELPHIA (Fall of the Year) A Woman...
