

THE COLUMBIAN

BLOOMSBURG, FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1912

CALENDAR FOR 1912

Calendar for 1912 showing months from January to December with days of the week and public holidays.

A child's first lesson in art culture can profitably and pleasantly be learned with Leonard Dyes, which have twelve colors, and by enabling them any number wanted. These dyes are made by Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt.

The Manure Democrat, formerly edited by Mr. Greenwald has passed into the hands of Hon. R. S. Staples & Son, our best wishes go with the retiring editor, and we trust his successors will find their new vocation pleasant and profitable.

Upon the first evidence of stomachic or bowel disorders, promptly give the baby a few doses of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup and prevent much suffering on the part of the little one. Price 25 cents.

During the recent Conference many of the visiting clergymen expressed themselves as being much pleased with our town. There are certainly few locations in the State that surpass Bloomsburg in culture, cleanliness, and well graded and paved streets, and beauty of the surrounding country.

THE DEVIL IN HUMAN FORM.—The Altoona Sewer never uttered truer words than this: "If there is one man in a town more than all others it is he who deliberately tries by all the arts of entreaty, the bonds of old companionship in wrong doing, by sneering and ridicule, to entice a reformed drinker back to his cups. Everlasting shame upon such a character, and all honor to the regenerated manhood which can withstand his devilish seductions."

Be sure and remember that Dr. Hays' Eucalyptor is a perfectly safe and reliable medicine, free from all objections and dangers connected with most of the advertised cough syrups and 50 cents a bottle.

Under the stay laws which were enacted several years ago in the interest of the debtor class and which expired by limitation last fall, the Sheriff of this county, Mr. Strine, realized about six thousand dollars in fees that he would not have realized had the law never been passed, and only one person who came under his hammer took notice of it. The law was anything but a success except for the Sheriff. Northumberland Democrat.

The "poor man's friend," however, insisted on the measure. In this county also, the Sheriff had but one case where a defendant asked for his benefit.

COLUMBIA COUNTY LEGISLATION.—From the proceedings of the Legislature on Tuesday the following extracts from the reports: Bills on file on Tuesday, April 16, 1912.

Rev. M. L. Smyser goes to Berwick. James Riley, the popular barber, has removed his shop to the room under the City Hotel.

George McKelvey has taken charge of the drug store at Millersburg, and H. W. McKelvey is traveling for a drug house in Philadelphia.

The Republican issued a daily during the Conference. The reports of the proceedings were accurate and full.

John M. Clark, Esq. has removed his office from the Ent building to the second story front rooms over the hardware store of J. Schuyler & Son on Main street.

"A little in time saves nine." A bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will often save large doctor bills. Keep it handy, for it costs only 25 cents.

An interesting communication from Rev. D. M. Kinter appears in another column. We hope others of the clergy will follow his example.

The members of the Conference left a very favorable impression in Bloomsburg. A few of the ablest preachers of this Conference are a fine looking, gentlemanly and intelligent body of men.

The Rev. Henry S. Hill will deliver his lecture entitled "The Lifted Veil" in the Opera House this Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. Every body should attend. Admission 25 cents.

How is this?—The daily Record of the Times does not reach here until evening, but the Scranton Republican arrives at noon, 8:00 a. m., Doctor.

Col. S. Knorr addressed the audience at the Opera House on Saturday night, on the occasion of the Anniversary of the Presbyter's Aid Society. His remarks were well chosen. We regret that space will not permit us to give a synopsis of the address.

The Columbia County Mutual Saving Fund and Loan Association will sell public school bonds, 1870 at one o'clock p. m.; at Stonybrook on Friday, April 14, 1870 at ten o'clock a. m.; and at Epsy on Friday, April 14, at three o'clock p. m.

The following properties were sold by the Sheriff on Tuesday morning March 27th: The property of John Lutz to Isaac Lutz for $600; the property of Elise and Caroline Lutz to George P. Lutz for $500; the property of F. F. Derr to Jonathan Bredner for $350.

Agh Ricketts, it is said, has gone to Harrisburg for the purpose of getting Judge Harding impeached. It is not likely that a republican legislature will condemn such an active partisan as Judge Harding, whatever the charges and proofs against him may be.

Rev. E. H. Yocum will have charge of the M. E. church in this place for the next two years. He is a faithful, able, and earnest worker in the Lord's vineyard, and we congratulate the Methodist congregation on their good fortune in getting such a man to look after their spiritual welfare. Mrs. Yocum was formerly a resident of this town, and her many friends will welcome her back among them.

SEVER FETTERS.—Flunking a diseased liver and disordered kidneys, with harsh and irritating drugs, is like treating a sick animal with the spur. These things do not cure. In Kidney-Wort is found a perfect medicine, gentle but sure in its working.

The subject of building elevated railroads in Philadelphia is gaining ground, and the probability is that before another twelve-month it will have a pair, at least, of these lofty structures. The parties who are interested in the legislation for the privilege of building them, the Pennsylvania and the Reading railroads, are not apt to be in vain for favors.

WHOLESALE REFORMS.—Judge Handley, of Scranton, has instituted some who-lose reforms in his court. Juries are held for absence when their names are called; lawyers must have their witnesses on hand, counsel are limited to five minutes speeches, and must be brief and to the point in questioning witnesses, the sheriff must take his prisoner to and from jail, and last, though not least, no one under twenty years of age will be admitted to the court room during business hours.

CHEW JACKSON'S BEST NERVE TONIC.—SOLDIERS GRAVES.—In a recent issue the state of Congress had authorized the erection of the graves of Union soldiers who were buried in private or village cemeteries. We are informed that this bill is now in the hands of the President and will be signed as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. The Quarter Master General at Washington requests all persons having knowledge of the burial places of soldiers in village cemeteries to communicate the fact to him.

The necessity for a new jail is amply demonstrated. Samuel Strasser was arrested and imprisoned on the charge of stealing a horse from a certain Stine in Lewis town. He wanted to go home. At night the warden neglected to lock the inner door of the cell. The outer wooden door when locked gives a space of about six inches. We presume the architect intended this opening for ventilation and for the benefit of such men as Strasser. Certain it is that on Friday night of last week, Strasser pushed the unlocked inner door against the wooden one, and squeezed himself through the opening.

There was an open recess cell to which he fled. In the morning the unsuspecting warden started around with his usual habit for the prisoners, and forgot to close the outer doors. Strasser then quietly walked out from his hiding place, lost his breakfast, and "broke jail." The Sheriff, when informed of the fact, sent out numerous telegrams and posters, offering a reward of $25 for the recapture of the prisoner. For further details we refer to our "special correspondent" at the jail "Business Bears."

COLOSSEUM JAIL, March 26, 1912. Samuel Strasser escaped jail at Bloomsburg on Saturday morning, March 22. He had been watching the turnkey for several mornings bring breakfast in, and he never shut the iron gate, that is the main entrance, and on Friday night when he came in and locked up, he put Strasser in his cell and locked him up and the blind door on a hook about six inches wide. When he shut the iron gate he shoved the slides over and neglected locking it, and at about 11 o'clock in the night he squeezed himself through the blind door. He states that he stuck fast 3 or 4 hours, but he could not get out at all. He had a pocket knife, and he used it to cut his way out. He had a pocket knife, and he used it to cut his way out. He had a pocket knife, and he used it to cut his way out.

COXSUMPTION CURED. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for a speedy and permanent cure for consumption, cough, phlegm, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, and a positive and radical cure for nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, my book, with full directions for preparing and using the remedy. Free of charge. Not Col. Ingersoll's "arbitrariness of the air," but real human ghosts. Ghosts that were once healthy men and women, but are simply the "ghosts of what they once were." As we change, they repeat the old story, "a cold," "neglected cough," "croup," "bronchitis," "dyspepsia," "liver complaint," and "constipation," with unsuccessful physicians and remedies. In offering his Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets for the cure of the above affections, Dr. Pierce does not recommend them as a "sure cure" in all stages. For if the lungs be half wasted away, or there be a cancer complication, no physician or medicine can cure. The Discovery is, however, an unequalled pectoral and blood purifier. It specially cures the most aggravated cough, or cold, in its early or middle stages, consumption. By correcting all irregularities of the stomach and liver, it really cures bronchitis, xerophthalmia, "hiccups," or "tums." Hundreds testify that it has restored their health, after eminent physicians had failed. For constipation, use the Pellets. As a local remedy for catarrh, use Dr. Suggs' Catarrh Remedy.
