

Miscellaneous.

A Hungarian City Under Water. A calamity which Hungary has long considered peculiarly liable has over-

At the latest accounts the water had risen five feet more, and the situation was becoming more and more critical.

The Rivers Theis overflowed, despite the precautions that had been taken from the moment the danger of such an occurrence was observed, and within three hours the town was inundated.

It was thought that some few stone houses might stand. The loss of life had, it was feared, been terrible, and it was certain to be increased during the night of terror.

FEED A LITTLE CORN MEAL.

It is a common saying that it makes no difference what you feed to your milk cow.

The selection of seed corn has much to do with the yield of the corn field.

SEED CORN AND CORN RAISING.

The selection of seed corn has much to do with the yield of the corn field.

There is something more required of seed corn than that every kernel shall germinate.

Some years ago the Government received proposals from an English engineer to furnish a remedy for the inundation which the Theis has threatened each spring.

There is something more required of seed corn than that every kernel shall germinate.
