DEATH OF JOHN R. MOYER.

John R. Moyer one of our oldest and most espected citizens died at his home on Tuesday evening at about 81 o'clock. He had been failing in health for some time, not suffering romany disease, but breaking down, a general wearing out, by old age. For several days before his death his mind wandered, and he was under the impression that he was away om home. His great desire was to get back a Bloomsburg. He had been confined to his sed several days and from 7 o'clock on Sunday orning until his death he slept quietly, not noving or speaking, and thus passed away. Mr. Moyer was born in Philadelphia Sep-ember 18th, 1709, and moved to Catawisse with his parents, when 2 years old. While still a young man he moved to this own and engaged in the business of shoemaking, a trade which he went to at the age of 11. He learned his trade in Catawises, and immediandy after the expiration of his apprenticesh p he in company with George Hughes of Catawissa, Jacob Eyerly and several others, walked Canada, where he remained about 6 months,

S. imington. The Doctor had half a pound of Paris Green used on a hill of potatoes las ummer in order to test them. He had the statoes-amounting to five pounds-boiled for exteen hours with the skips on; the water vielded arsenic. He then subjected the in-ide of the potato to twenty hours boiling and applied to the water the usual liquid tests for a nic, but indication of its presence were so aint and doubtful that he concluded to have Mr. John Grove apply the extremely delicate test known as the hydrogen test, which was arefully done; the indications of the presence f arsenic were decided, but in such small quantics that the Doctor has no hesitation in eav ing there is no danger in using the potato. He stated that he was prevented fluishing up the experiment by reason of the loss of Mr. Grove's flice and the potatoes with it by fire. Otherwise they could have determined the amount
