The people in and about Centralia who own dogs are most earnest about their destruction.

They are found dead in the bushes, with a slight wound in the throat. Seven were found dead in one spot. Some of the people say the killer is a wolf.

Bills representing nearly a thousand dollars have been sent out from this office on book accounts, during the past two months.

Although there has been received by the postage stamps sent. Persons who have received notice and paid no attention to them must not be surprised if we get out of patience one of these days.

They have two buggies for two sons of Stephen Pohl, one of our County Commissioners, which will be delivered on Saturday.

We are gratified to learn that the iron works in our sister town of Danville are being put in operation.

This will give employment to a large number of people, and of course cause the disbursement of a large quantity of money there and in the vicinity. It will also give a market to the farmers of that county in the fall. We trust that the resumption may be permanent.

Doctor Krebs of Light Street extracted a Cherry stone from the ear of William Muller's, little daughter that had accidentally been forced in five years ago.

The Record of the Times of June 20th says:

During the stormy weather of afternoon and night of the 21st a few moments. This extraordinary occurrence was noted on Northampton street, and we are informed that the flakes were plainly visible. Weather prophets take notice of this fact, and note it in your diaries for 1879.

OUR TOWN IS WELL SUPPLIED WITH LAME DOGS.

If some of those who indulge in such inhuman and cruel practices, would be so kind as to give their dogs a good name, they would be doing a good deed. It is a disgrace to see a lame dog in the streets. We would like to see a name on every dog.

OUR CITIZENS HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR SOME TIME VERY PATIENTLY TO HEAR THAT THE TOWN COUNCIL HAS TAKEN STEPS TO RID THE STREETS OF THAT COMMON NUISANCE, AND BEING ASKED, "WHAT IS THIS?"

Last year when it took the council two months to get the cows out, they were laughed at for their bungling. It is now three months since the present council went into office, with a majority in favor of shutting up the cows, and yet nothing has been done beyond giving notice that an ordinance would be presented. Has the Council forgotten its duty, or is it afraid to act? It is a disgrace to see a cow in the streets.

GEN. BRINDLE SUCCESSFUL.

As many are aware, General William Brindle was used some time ago in the United States Court, Philadelphia, as a defendant on his bonds as receiver of public moneys at Leocomton, Kansas, from 1857 to 1861.

When sent to the general court congress to pass an act permitting him to go to jail and settle the matter between him and the government, and on last Friday, upon the termination of the suit, the jury rendered a verdict in his favor for $51,000.—Gazette & Bulletin.

CHILDREN OF HEADSOLDIERS.

It has heretofore been held by the pension office that in cases of minor children the limitation began when the child reaches the age of sixteen years, and that no claim on account of minor, could be entertained that was not filed prior to the date on which the child became ten years of age. The new law wipes out all limitation, and any child now over twenty-two years of age who would have been entitled to pension, and failed to apply before reaching majority, can file a claim and prosecute it successfully. Claims in this class, rejected under the rulings of the office, can be reopened and allowed.

WEI WUY YOU.

Allow a cold to advance in your system and this disease may result in pneumonia, influenza, hemorrhages and lung troubles when an immediate relief can be readily attained. Boecher's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boecher's famous German Syrup, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no farmed ingredients in administering it to the young child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Any drugist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 7 cents. Try it and be convinced. Aug 30, 78-87.

ORANGEVILLE ITEMS.

The chief topic of conversation here at present is the Anniversary of the Academy which takes place Thursday and Friday of this week.

The Anniversary dinner on Friday appears to trouble the ladies considerably. Preparations are being made for a large number, and the pleasant weather continues, we have no doubt but what a large crowd will be here to feed. But they may all come for the "Ladies of Orangeville" are equal to any emergency.

The cherries are ripening fast. A few have already been brought into town for sale.

The crops are looking well. The farmers expect good wheat crops.

Mr. L. R. Fowler of Danmore, agent for A. S. Barnes & Co., of N. Y., in company with Mr. Beckley of the Republician was in Orangeville on Monday.

Misses Ella Black and Gertrude Harber of Bloomsburg had a runaway last week as they were returning home from school. The shaft of the wagon breaking frightened the horse and he became unmanageable. Fortunately some men stopped him before the girls were injured more than a few bruises.

Very truly yours, WILKENS MCGUIRE.

A LUCKY RECOVERY.

Mr. W. C. Montgomery, of McKeesville, an estimable gentleman, made a narrow escape from sustaining a serious financial loss on Saturday.

He had been making a visit to Jersey town, Columbia county, having on his person $1,700 in cash, which had just been paid to him by a party, which he had in mind to time to deposit. While resting himself upon a lounge, with his coat—which contained the money—thrown across him, the contents of the pockets slipped to the floor. Mr. Montgomery left in the evening without discovering his loss, and had proceeded as far as Exchange, when he realized that his money had disappeared.

His first impression was that he had lost the money, and he retraced his steps, but he had gone a long way. He retraced his steps, but he had gone a long way. He retraced his steps, but he had gone a long way.
