Case Columnian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1879.

Poetical.

LIKE HIS DAD. Hear his mother's chiding voice, 'How came your trinkets there?'

THE DAYS OF YORE.

A stone falls in its azure lake, And smiting to its pebbly shore, Sends swirling ripples far and wide.

Select Story.

OUT AND AT HOME. Mr. and Mrs. Harris were taking tea with their neighbors, the Joneses, in a friendly way.

PETE PARQUETTE.

'By the way you have heard of old Pete Parquette? 'Oh, Yes; he was the Sampson of Wisconsin.'

CASTLE THUNDER BURNED DOWN.

The burning down of the notorious military mill, popularly known as Castle Thunder, in Richmond, Va., on the 22d of August, 1879.

A SAVAGE QUEEN'S DEVOTION.

The palace of a native queen of the Marquesas group of islands in the Pacific has lately been visited by a correspondent.

FALL PLOWING.

The better preparation of the ground the better the crop. The high average yield of the English farms is no doubt largely due to the thorough preparation of the ground before seeding.

FOUR MILLIONS IN DEBT.

CONDITION OF THE CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF CINCINNATI. Bishop Chatard, of the Vincennes diocese has made an important statement giving his views regarding the immense debt now resting upon the arch-diocese of Cincinnati.

DON'T LEAVE THE FARM.

'Boys, don't leave the farm, but stay where you can be happy, if you choose. I know a great many people think farming don't pay; probably a large share of the farms in this State don't pay, because they are not properly tilled; but you show me a business that is as sadly neglected as farming is, and I will show you that the man who runs that business, cannot pay one hundred cents on a dollar.'

TREATMENT OF A WORKING MEADOW.

Meadows that have been run down, become sodden and covered with moss, sorrel, or other weeds, may be renovated without difficulty. The old sod needs to be disturbed, but a thorough harrowing or a chopping of the surface with a disk harrow will disturb it sufficiently without plowing.

A LAWYER'S BIG FEE.

During the first year of the war, Captain Pellatier, a Frenchman by birth, but a naturalized American, was sailing with his merchant vessel in Haytian waters, when he was seized upon by a war vessel of that country.

ITEMS.

—Alms—A silent prayer. —A big revolver—The World. —Healing mediums—Cobblers.

—A duck of a lover makes a goose of a husband. —What kind of braces do ladies prefer? Embraces.

—Where the hedge is lowest the devil leaps over. —Fanny runs most furiously when a guilty conscience drives it.

—Speech of a man's self ought to be seldom and well chosen. —Justice is like a glass, which cannot be bent, but it is easily broken.

—The wise and active conquer difficulties by daring to attempt them. —Sermmons are addressed to men; prayers should be addressed to God.

—We can never die too early for others when we live only for ourselves. —Sunday is the golden scale that binds together the volume of the week.

—Know well your intentions, and your outgoings may be better regulated. —Hope softens sorrow, brightens plain surroundings, and eases a hard lot.

—No matter how honorable an equestrian may be, he always goes back on the horse he rides. —We hear of men sowing wild oats, but we never hear of a woman sowing anything but tares.

—Man wants but little here below. True and salutary in the breakfast biscuit is no exception to the general rules. —The great trouble with professional ball clubs is to find a pitcher that will hold water.

—It is the best proof of the virtues of a family circle to see a happy fire-side. —If the philosopher be happy, it is because he is the man from whom fortune can take least.

—The value of a thought can be told, but it is clearly worth a thousand lives like many a word. —There are two classes generally in the wrong—those who don't know enough and those who don't think enough.

—The potter must have his clay and the mason his quarry, and the mind must drain ideas from every thing around it. —My advice is to consult the lives of other men as well as your own; and from thence fetch examples for our imitation.
