

THE COLUMBIAN AND DEMOCRAT, BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

THE COLUMBIAN

BLOOMSBURG, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1920

RAILROAD TIME TABLE

STAGE LINES

MAIL ROUTES

PUBLIC SALES

On last Thursday night an attempt was made by burglars to enter the carpet store of Henry Hartman.

Mr. Carlene Gower, formerly of Pottsville, is now owner of 200 acres, of six or seven square miles, in Minnesota.

James Brewster, the Labor Greenback candidate for District Attorney in old Luzerne is making an active campaign.

A decision has been recently made by the Post Office Department, authorizing the inspection of mail bags.

The candidates for Sheriff so far as nominated are hereby called. Perhaps they are awaiting the action of the Republican convention.

The following from the Washington Tribune is worthy the attention of the widows and children of deceased soldiers and sailors:

It has been decided that under the operations of the arrears of pension law, limitations which under the old pension laws, ran against widows who remarried without having applied for a pension within five years from the death of the soldier and children, and brothers and sisters of age at the time of the latter's death, who neglected to file an application for pensions before they attained the age of twenty-one years, have been swept away.

Sherrill Basten, accompanied by his turkey, Della Gilbert, went on a fish basket expedition yesterday.

The late parade gave hundreds of strangers an opportunity to see the beauty and natural facilities of Bloomsburg.

It is a very strange exhibition of economy on the part of the board of managers not to publish the premium list of the coming County Fair in the local newspapers.

During recent excavations for a foundation on which to build a parsonage on the old Presbyterian ground opposite Judge Elwell's three skeletons were exhumed.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

Employment for the mind is what thousands stand in need of.

A mind capable of being employed is what the imitation statement of the Intelligence stands in need of.

If a pension be not applied for before next January the law requires it to begin only on the date of making the application, and as the average difference will be over $1,000, it is very important that all these applications be filed this year.

The firm of Lockard & Bro. has already commenced rebuilding their car shops on the old site. The frame work of the foundry, and blacksmith shop is already erected.

We are actually told that there is a contest in the Republican ranks for a nomination. It is the matter of the machine? Beckley & Brown and other post-masters must look in to this matter.

Many of our subscribers complain that they cannot pay up because they get no money for their products.

A very eloquent lecture was delivered on Monday evening before the students of the Academy by Hervey Smith Esq., of Bloomsburg.

The military company of the Academy under the able instruction of Capt. Conner, is making good progress.

On last Thursday night an attempt was made by burglars to enter the carpet store of Henry Hartman.

Mr. Carlene Gower, formerly of Pottsville, is now owner of 200 acres, of six or seven square miles, in Minnesota.

James Brewster, the Labor Greenback candidate for District Attorney in old Luzerne is making an active campaign.

A decision has been recently made by the Post Office Department, authorizing the inspection of mail bags.

The candidates for Sheriff so far as nominated are hereby called. Perhaps they are awaiting the action of the Republican convention.

The following from the Washington Tribune is worthy the attention of the widows and children of deceased soldiers and sailors:

It has been decided that under the operations of the arrears of pension law, limitations which under the old pension laws, ran against widows who remarried without having applied for a pension within five years from the death of the soldier and children, and brothers and sisters of age at the time of the latter's death, who neglected to file an application for pensions before they attained the age of twenty-one years, have been swept away.

Sherrill Basten, accompanied by his turkey, Della Gilbert, went on a fish basket expedition yesterday.

The late parade gave hundreds of strangers an opportunity to see the beauty and natural facilities of Bloomsburg.

It is a very strange exhibition of economy on the part of the board of managers not to publish the premium list of the coming County Fair in the local newspapers.

During recent excavations for a foundation on which to build a parsonage on the old Presbyterian ground opposite Judge Elwell's three skeletons were exhumed.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

LIFTING TWO THOUSAND POUNDS.

The Senator Republican says: Having been somewhat skeptical regarding the statement that Mr. W. W. Scranlon lifted 1,800 pounds as mentioned in the Republican, we were accorded the opportunity of witnessing a more extraordinary and incredible feat yesterday at noon when we saw Mr. Scranlon lifting the fabulous weight of two thousand pounds—an even ton. Just fancy a man carrying in a ton of coal at a single haul. One would think it a task for Sampson himself, yet this is the weight lifted by Mr. Scranlon. There are few men who can lift one thousand pounds, and it is questioned whether there is another man in Pennsylvania that can lift two thousand.

ORANGEVILLE ITEMS.

The weather for the last week has appeared so much like Fall that people in the country begin to hurry around with the work that must be done before winter appears.

George Fleckenstein, with a large number of workmen, is busily engaged digging the cellar for his new house which he expects to have enclosed before winter sets in.

The Methodist Festival of last Saturday notwithstanding the rain, was a decided success. They had intended to hold it at Mcgregor's grove but the day appearing cloudy, they decided to hold it in the hall of the Academy, which was kindly offered them; and wisdom it was apparent when the rain came pouring down in the evening. We understand that they cleared about $80.00.

A very eloquent lecture was delivered on Monday evening before the students of the Academy by Hervey Smith Esq., of Bloomsburg.

The military company of the Academy under the able instruction of Capt. Conner, is making good progress.

On last Thursday night an attempt was made by burglars to enter the carpet store of Henry Hartman.

Mr. Carlene Gower, formerly of Pottsville, is now owner of 200 acres, of six or seven square miles, in Minnesota.

James Brewster, the Labor Greenback candidate for District Attorney in old Luzerne is making an active campaign.

A decision has been recently made by the Post Office Department, authorizing the inspection of mail bags.

The candidates for Sheriff so far as nominated are hereby called. Perhaps they are awaiting the action of the Republican convention.

The following from the Washington Tribune is worthy the attention of the widows and children of deceased soldiers and sailors:

It has been decided that under the operations of the arrears of pension law, limitations which under the old pension laws, ran against widows who remarried without having applied for a pension within five years from the death of the soldier and children, and brothers and sisters of age at the time of the latter's death, who neglected to file an application for pensions before they attained the age of twenty-one years, have been swept away.

Sherrill Basten, accompanied by his turkey, Della Gilbert, went on a fish basket expedition yesterday.

The late parade gave hundreds of strangers an opportunity to see the beauty and natural facilities of Bloomsburg.

It is a very strange exhibition of economy on the part of the board of managers not to publish the premium list of the coming County Fair in the local newspapers.

During recent excavations for a foundation on which to build a parsonage on the old Presbyterian ground opposite Judge Elwell's three skeletons were exhumed.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

One of the most remarkable men who ever came near being the Greenback candidate for Governor last year, is making speeches at Bloomsburg meetings again.

During the arrivals at the inspection of the Third Brigade was Gen. E. W. Matthews of Gen. Hartman's staff.

We have three fast baskets full of complimentary tickets to wait his bid. Perhaps the Agricultural Society has mistaken as for E. B. Hayes.

The State Fair at Philadelphia will close on Saturday.

The Centre County Fair will be held October 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

The Derks County Fair will be held at Reading September 30th and October 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

The Ringtown Fair is being held this week.

The Columbia County Fair will be held October 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th.

SHALL WE HAVE WATER WORKS?

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

It is possible that after all the talk and blarney Bloomburg will have no water works for some time to come.

Loor.—A Newfoundland Pup, about six months old. He is colored black and marked white on the breast. A reward will be given for his return to the owner. ROBT. R. LITTLE.

The Catawissa Paper Mill has been sold by the Executors of William McKelvey to McCready Bros., of Philadelphia. Possession to be given October 1st.

SICK POLKS SAVE MONEY.

By buying the medicine known as Kidney-Wort. It is a dry vegetable compound of wonderful efficacy in all diseases of the liver and kidneys. One package makes six quarts of medicine which contains no poisonous liquor being prepared in pure water.

The Yazoo Business.

Just after the war a man named Morgan, who had some connection with the Federal army, settled in the county of Yazoo, Miss., and married a mulatto woman, engaging in politics as an avocation.

One day a man named Dixon, who was well known as a demagogic character, well known as an unscrupulous letter in which he testified that he (Dixon) was tired of the way things had been going on, and that he wanted him (Morgan) to get out of there.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

The negroes feared him, but they obeyed him. He ruled them as mercilessly as Morgan, and by the same means. One day he chased an offending colored man to a cotton field where thirty or forty other negroes were at work.

"Bribery at Elections."

By "PRACTICAL POLITICIAN" IN S. V. INDEPENDENT.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the purity of the ballot box, tamper with the political virtue of their fellow-citizens and by aid and example foster the demoralization and demoralizing system, to the extent of which every man of good moral character might be expected to lead his life.

It has long ago been demonstrated that the ordinary moral obligations which are supposed to control man's action, in society do not seem to operate in restraining them from violations of the election laws, and many who would not admit themselves to be criminal offenders most outrageously violate the