SOUTHERN OUTRAGES.

The "outrage" mills of the Republican party are still grinding out horrible details crimes in the south, all committed by Democrats, of course, and having a political aspect only. If a pig is stolen by some poor vagabond who wants meat for his family, or if a man is killed in self defence a terrible shriek at once goes up from the Republican organs of the danger to property and life in the south. The victim is always a republican saint while the criminal is always made out to be a Democratic sinner. This kind of material out of which to make political capital is getting worn threadbare. But being devoid of all principles of honor and honesty this party that stole the presidency by the most fraudulent and disgraceful act in the history of the world, does not hesitate to make props to bolster up their waning power by the most absurd lies about things that never happened at all, and by misrepresenting the facts in occurrences that have taken place. Nobody will deny that there have been murders in the south ; but does anybody propose to assert that there are no such crimes committed in the north? When a man is found dead by the roadside in the south, cold and stiff, his body riddled with shot, we at once learn that it is the work of the Ku-Klux, that it is a Democratic outrage, committed for the purpose of lessening the Republican vote, or because the victim was an ardent Republican or for some other poitical reason. Where the act is done no reaches the north it is too good an opportunity to let slip, and the republican organs take it as a text to show the constant danger in which couthern republicans live. As well might they assert that the man found dead near his house with gunshot wounds upon his person in a certain township in this county was murdered by the Fishingcreek confederacy. The last named organization has just as much existence here as the Ku-Klux and other alleged Democratic criminal gange have in the south. How much iger will the people endure this sort of thing? How long will they submit to keep in power a party whose record is one of falsehood and fraud, which has shielded the worst of criminals because they are Republican tools, and persecuted thousands of innocent men because they are Democrats; and plundered the coffers of the national government ; which keeps up a large stand-

Stand by the principles of the Democratic party by getting out every voter, and thus gain the first step in the great victory that will soon be ours, by keeping the treasury of the state from the hands of corrupt men who will use your funds to carry on their own campaignail allowed to get control of it. Be active and wise, and success will crown your efforts.

Elections in Ohio and Iowa will be held ext Tuesday.

THE SPRAGUE TROUBLES .- A special to the New York World from Providence, R. I. states that much comment has been caused by the publication of a note addressed to Governor Sprague by Z. Chaffee, asking Sprague to vacate Canonchet, and claiming entire control of the property, threatening dispossessory proceedings in the event of his remaining. Mr. Sprague, it is said, will pay no attention to this note. He claims that Canouchet is part of the Quidnick company property, and that the Sprague trust deed loss not cover the Quidnick company. The ex governor has said to his friends that his to an insane asylum. Mr. Chaffee, however question of property. The report of Mr. Sprague's insanity is attributed here to Senator Conkling's personal friends.

One of the highest compliments which could be paid to the newspaper press was that of the Rev. Dr. Sansom, of Harlem, uttered a few days since at the Baptist Ministers' Conference. He gave it as his matured and deliberate opinion that "there is not a secula paper in this city or country that is not ready t any time to correct a report, if the editor can be satisfied that such re port is unfair or character for persistent misrepresentation renders them comparatively innoxious. much annoyance to the average editor as to those about whom they are made. The Riot Cases. THE SUPREME COURT DECIDES AGAINST AI egheny county in the riot cases. The opinion is very voluminous, coverio thirty-six large pages. It will be remember ed that there were two cases before the court one brought by a citizen of Pennsylvania, and the other by a citizen of another state against the county of Allegheny, for goods ourned by the mob in Pittsburg There were adgments against the county of Allegheny n both cases, and the opinion of Judge Pay on is to the effect that not only the citizen of Pennsylvania but also citizens of other states are entitled to recover against the coor ty of Allegheny for any goods destroyed by the mob in the riot. The opinion, naturally covers a large number of points, but the sub stance of it is that given.

LEGHENY COUNTY. The supreme court has decided against Al

The southern republicans are organizing rebellion against the scheme of the stalwarts to make a 'Solid North' by abandoning their organization in the southern states so as to be able to continue the cry of a 'Solid South. Quite a number of the more influential southern republicans recently held a meeting at Washington for the purpose of serving notice on the leaders of their party that in case it became apparent that the purpose of the managers is to array one section of the country against another, representative souther republicans will stump the northern state against the nominees of the party. Ex Sen ator Pool of North Carolina, an original re publican who represented his state in the U S. Senate during the reconstruction period, was one of those in attendance at the meeting and took very strong ground against the sec tionalizing policy of the stalwarts. It looks as if the republican party might encounter danger from a quarter in which its east expect it .- Patriot.

The scarcity of pennies has been felt all through the country of late. The Philadelphia Ledger accounts for it in this wise : The revival of Business, which began with the larger establishments, where but little use is made of the pennies has got down o the smaller stores, where pennies and small notes are indispensable for "change." That is why there is an "unusual demand for the one cent pieces. What a mischies us piece of nonsense the Bland silver la s is shown by the fact that the Mints are so busy coining the silver dollars that pobody wants that they cannot supply the coins that are really needed. As to the business revival, its effects are seen on all sides. At recent meeting of the directors of an edu cational institution in this city, the director of which have been exceptionally faithful in their attendance during the last few year a quorum could not be o'stained because the majority of the business men in the Board were obliged to be at their work night and day. For the first time in two years the of Cameron, Quay, Kemble & Co., of Mr. complaint was of too much to do and of orders far ahead of the capacity of some of the largest mills and manufactories in the city.

The State Treasury Ring.

THE ATTEMPT TO REVIVE A CORRUPT AND POWERFUL CONSPIRACY.

We have no Congressmen to elect in Pennsylvania this fall; no members of the State Legislature, and no State officers with the single exception of the State Treasurer, but upon the choice of this officer important results depend. He is by law the custodian of all moneys in the public treasury and responsible for their safe-keeping. In recent years Republican Treasurers have had control of millions of dollars of balances, presumably lying idle in the Treasury vaults, but in reality loaned out all over the State With the reviving business, which will largely increase the State revenues, it is al nost certain there will be large balances under control of the State Tressurer to be elected in November, and who will assume the duties of the office in June next, succeed ing Colonel Noyes, the present Democrat Treasurer. The Democratic party bolds that this system of unexpended treasury balances is all wrong; that they are a con stant temptation and invitation to the liberality and corruption of Legislators, as well as a means of corrupt and unlawful gain by the State Treasurer, who is tempted to use them, as Republican Treasurers invariably have done in this State for the past twentyfive years, for purposes of speculation. These unexpended balances, the Democratic party holds, should be applied to the reduction of the State debt, and if this cannot be advantageously done, then the taxes should be reduced so that the revenues collected will only be sufficient to defray the expenses of the Government, economically administered. We hold further, and our candidate for State Treasurer, Daniel O. Barr, Esq., is pledged to this course of administration, that the State funds, remaining unexpended in the public treasury, shall not be used for speculative purposes, but sacredly guarded to meet all just and lawful demands of public creditors. During the two years past that the State Treasury has been under Dem cratic guardianship, there has been no political party or the section of a party-10 condition of affairs we desire to perpetuate, and if the Democratic party is successful in the election of its candidate for State Treasurer, the assurance can be confidently given

How is it with the Republican party and its candidate? With their success it is an admitted fact, demonstrable by the controling influences of their convention and the surroundings of their candidate, that the infamous and corrupt Treasury ring which dominated the politics and legislation of enemies mean to ruin him and to send him Pennsylvania for years, will be rehabilitated in all its power at Harrisburg. This cansays that he views the matter purely as a not be gainsaid. It is in the air. The election of Mr. Butler will bring a revival of the old Treasury ring, with all its demoralizing schemes of personal and political gain. The adoption of the new Constitution and the election of Colonel Noyes in 1877, drove the ring from the Treasury, but as the Re-publican Legislature has steadfastly refused to pass the needed laws for carrying out the reforms of the new Constitution let the Cameron Republican ring candidate for Treasurer be elected this fall, and within a year the

> the Treasury and throughout the State. controlled by ringsters, some of whom setive votes that secured his nomination and election as Treasurer for one year. The publican. salary attached to the office was but five thousand dollars a year, and under the law the Treasurer was not allowed to use a dollar of the State funds for speculative or per-dollars of unexpended balances in the Treasury. This was the banking capital of the ring; the money it loaned out in prosperous times at six wight and ten per cent, interest. The fact that a candidate could pay out, for one year in the office, sixty thousand dollars lost, by the failure of political friends with whom he had deposited State funds, over one hundred and sixty thousand dollars in a single year, yet he promptly made the defalcation good out of the profits of his other operations with the unexpended balances. The Treasury ring conducted a banking business with the people's money, against which no legitimate bank in the State could successfully compete. Their capital was the two or three millions in the State Treasury, and operating through the Legislature-of course corruptly-they had no difficulty in securing laws maintaining the unexpended balance at the highest figures. They defually collected unnecessary taxes from the people that they might speculate with the money ! Nor was this all. While the Treasury ringsters amassed great wealth, out of their speculative operations in State funds, they built up and consolidated the republican party for years, and through that controlled the State; and the attempt is now being made, through the election of the Ring candidate to. Treasurer, to reinstate this power at the State Capital. The ways of the Trea ury ring in strengthening their political su premacy were peculiar, and were felt in every county of the State where a needed delegate to a convention or a desirable member of the Legislature was to be chosen Deposits of State funds were alloted to avored politicians to place in banks for their own personal benefit; and private banks, or chartered banks, whose influence it was important to secure, were made depositories and allowed to make what profits they could by loaning the people's money back to the peo ple. It was by such methods, as well as by old, unblushing bribery, the Treasury ring of Kemble and Mackey, they being the leadsted. Its hold on the politics of the State was firm and sweeping, fearfully demoralize ing. It controlled the Republican party is convention and Legislature; nominated and efeated candidates; had a powerful Harris-publican press pensioned and corrupted. It was master of the State. It is this Tressury r.og that the Republi can managers and jobbers propose to reinstate in power at Harrisburg. There has been an interregnum of honesty and square dealing for a couple of years. But the ring is hungry for its old power and its old gains. The pian of operations was laid down at the step was the nomination, under the auspices Butler of Chester county for State Treasurer. Kemble, who promoted his nomination, was a leading spirit of the Treasury combina-

burg lobby at its beck and nod, and the Re-triffing salary. Butler is the chosen one of the Ring. He is allied with the legislative corruptionists. He moved in the Republicar caucus that Cameron's nomination for the United States Senate should be made unaninous, thus ignoring and disregarding the ouest sentiment of the Republicans of Chester county. He voted against the expulsion from the Legislature of the convict ed briber and lobbyist, Petroff. His especial friends and supporters in the Republican State Convention rejected with insults and contumely Wolfe's resolution demanding nonest men in office and denouncing the corrupt methods adopted to pus Kemble's fou illions steal last winter. Obviously, in se ecting Mr. Butler as their candidate for State Treasurer, the Treasury ring knew what it was about. It picked out a reliable man for the work proposed, We turn from this dangerous and alarm

urer, when he amassed immense wealth on a ing record of the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, which clearly shows his consection with the worst elements of the Re publican party, to the Democratic nominee, Mr. Barr, and we have every assurance that under his administration of the State Treas ury the Constitution and laws will be rigidly construed and implicitly obeyed, in the management of the State funds. There will be no Treasury ring. The books of the of-fice will be open to the public. The unexpended balance will not be banking capital of a combination of reckless political and inancial speculators. Mr. Barr is pledged by the resolutions of the Democratic Con rention, and by his own record and declarations, to this course. And his election is the one guarantee possible to the people of Pennsylvania that the old Treasury ring will not be revived in all its power and corruption. This is the most important home issue or which our people will vote in November. Exchange Notices.
