

THE COLUMBIAN.

Table with 2 columns: Train Name and Time. Includes Rail Road Time Table, Accommodation Train, Express Train, and CATAWISSA RAIL ROAD.

The Republican cannot see how a man can be a politician and yet be a "respectable gentleman and an excellent citizen." Taking the notice in that office as a sample, we enter with them.

The celebrated English clock is now on exhibition in the city. It is a wonderful piece of mechanism, and everybody should see it. The exhibition will continue the balance of this week. Open all day until 10 o'clock, p. m. Admission 15 cents.

The will of the late Bishop Whittingham of Baltimore is in his own handwriting, and appears as follows: "In the name of God, Amen! To the Holy, Blessed and Glorious Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, be adoration, thanks and everlasting praise!"

William Black is a very rapid writer. There are fabulous stories told of the amount of his writing which he can accomplish in his days of journalistic work. In writing novels he seems to sit down to his pen in his head, and only the actual work of writing follows. He will take, perhaps, a week of what ignorant mortals might consider idleness, and then in a day or two write out all that had accumulated in his mind.

Strawbridge & Clothier of Philadelphia has published a very pretty little book for children called "Our Picture Book." It is handsomely illustrated, and they offer to furnish gratuitously to superintendents of Sunday Schools many copies of the same. It is a book for their scholars, but it is also a book for the cover, and preface to the book is on the cover. Address: Strawbridge & Clothier, Eighth and Market Streets, Philadelphia.

Public Sales. I. K. Krickbaum and A. R. Pennington. Administrators of Estate of John H. Hart, deceased, will sell valuable Real Estate on the premises, in Sugarland township, on Saturday November 19, 1879.
