C. B. BROCKWAY,

N U. FUNK,

Office in Ent's Brn.prsq.

TOHN M. CLARK,

F. P. BULLMEYER,

E. H. & R. R. LITTLE,

B. FRANK ZARR.

(PEO. E. ELWELL,

WM. L. EYERLY,

W. H. RHAWN,

0

Can be consutted in German.

C. W. MILLER,

C. B & W. J. BUCKALEW,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Member of the United States Law Association

Attorney-at-Law

Increase of Pensions obtained, Collections made.

omee, Second deer from 1st National Bank.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Attor ney-at-Law, Increase of Pensions Obtained, Collection Made.

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,

Blöomsbarg, Pa. Office on Main Street, first door below Court He

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

OFFICE—In Harman's Building, Main street, Hoomsburg, Pa.

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Office in Brower's building second floor, room No Bloomsburg, Pa.

Attorney-at-Law.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

offections made in any part of America or Europ

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Collections promptly made and remitted. Officoposite Catawissa Deposit Bank. 6m-38

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

GENERAL FOUNDRY BUSINESS,

THE DAVIS.

THE LATEST IS THE BEST

The Greatest Sewing Machine of the Age

Don't fail to see this wonderful piece of per fection, the New Davis Vertical Feed

Shuttle Sewing Machine, Manufactured at Watertown, New York. Will be on exhibition at the Bloomsburg fair ground during the fair.

All are cordially invited to call and inspect the New Machine
and obtain samples of work, more beautiful and desirable the ever before accomplished and utterly

Thousands witnessing the immense range of work, and discarding their old machine for the NEW MACHINE, is sufficient proof of its superiority and bring for the DAVIS

trade that runs the factory to its fullest ca

The Vertical Feed.

Which supercedes the under feed, is the hivge upon which swings the UNPARALLE-ED SUCCESS,

Composed of only 13 Working Parts,

while others have from forty to seventy-five making the least complicated, the most dur

It positively leads all others, DOING AWAY

with all basting, and is the LIGHTEST RUN

NING SHUTTLE MACHINE IN THE WORLD

at the recent popular REDUCED SCALE OF PRICES. Samples of work free.

PRICES. Samples of work free.
J. SALTZER, Gen'l Agent,

able and most reliable machine in use.

and gives general satisfaction.

pacity.

possible for any other to duplicate

NEAR CATAWISSA.

CATAWISSA.

COLUMBIAN BUILDING, Bloomsburg, Pa.

of the United States Law Association

Catawissa, Pa.

office over Schuyler's Hardware Store.

Bloomaburg, Pa.

COLUMNIAN BUILDING, Bloomsburg, Pa.

initesonora Clork - J. B. Casey. commissioners-Eil Robbins, Theodore W. hie Superintendent-William H. Snyder, en Poor District-Directors-R. S. Ent. Scott Kramer, Bloomsburg and Thomas Reece

Bloomsburg Official Directory. president of Town Council—I. S. KUHN. Clerk—Paul E. Wirk. Clerk—Paul E. Wirk. Clerk of Police—D. Laycock. Tresident of Guis Company—S. Knorr. Secretary—C. W. Miller. Spoonsburg Banking Company—John A. Punston. Tresident, H. H. Grotz, Cashler, John Peacock, Tel-

National Bank-Charles R. Paxton, President mbia County Murual Saving Pund and Loan etary, semisourg Building and Saving Fund Association, peacock, Freeldent, J. B. Bobison, Secretary, simisourg Mutual Saving Fund Association— ower, President, P. E. Wirt, Secretary, CHURCH DIRECTORY. ger J. P. Tustin, Supply) Sunday Services—105 a.m. and 6% p.m. Sunday Services—105 a.m. and 6% p.m. Sunday School—9 a.m. Prayer Meeting—Every Wodnesday evening at 6% COOK.

Scala free. The public are invited to attend.
St. MATTHEW's LATHERAN CHURCH.
Minister - Nev. O. D. S. Marchay.
Sunday Services - 10 g a. m. and T g p. m.
Sunday School - 9 a. m.
Trayer Meeting - Every Wednesday evening at T g. clock.
Scata free. No paws rented. All are welcome.
Scata free. Start Michell.
Sunday Services-10; a. in. and 6% p. m.
Sunday School-9 a. in. and 6% p. m.
Sunday School-9 a. in. seats free. No pews rented. Strangers welcom Pear's Free. No pews rented. Strangers welcome METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURGH.

Presiding Kider—Rev. W. Evans.
Minister—Rev. E. H. Yogum.
Sunday Services—10½ and 6½ p. m.
Sunday Services—10½ and 6½ p. m.
Bible Class—Ever. Monday evening at 6½ o'clock.
Young Men's Prayer Meeting—Every Tuesday enting at 8½ o'clock.
Heneral Prayer Meeting—Every Thursday evening to clock.

teneral Prayar Meeting—Every Thursday evening To'clock.

Exponent of third and Iron streets.

Corner of Third and Iron streets.

Corner of Third and Iron streets.

Corner of Third and Iron streets.

Construction of the Streets of the Streets of the Streets of the Streets.

Streets—Poly a. m. and T p. m.

Sunday School—B a. m.

Prayer Meeting—Saturday, T p. m.

All are invited There is always room.

St. Fall's Girecta.

Rector—Rev L. Zahner.

Sunday School—B a. m., T M p. m.

Sunday School—B a. Sunday in each month.

Pows rented; but everybody welcome.

Examonatical curacu.

Presiding Eder—Rev. A. L. Reeser

Minister—Rev. George Handre.

Sunday Scruce—P p. m., in the Iron Street Church.

Prayer Meeting—Every Subath at 2 p. m.

All are invited. All are welcome.

The Curacus of Church—on Hook street and of Iron.

Recular meeting for worship, every Lord's day afternoon at 3 % orlock.

Seats free; and the public are cordially invited to east of Iron.

Regular meeting for worship, every Lord's day afternoon at a g or clock.
Seats free; and the public are cordially invited to attend SCHOOL ORDERS, blank, just printed and nearly bound in small books, on hand and the sale at the Columbian Office.

1) LANK DEEDS, on Parchment and Liner Paper, common and for Administrators, Execu-and trustees, for sale cheap at the Columnia

USTICES and Constables' Fee Bills for sale at the Cotametax office. They contain the correct of fee any established by the last Act of the Legis Dure upon the subject. Every Justice and Contain e should have one. V ENDUE NOTES just printed and for sale

BLOOMSBURG DIRECTORY.

(). BARKLEY, Attorney-at-Law, Office to Brower's building, 2nd story, Rooms 4 & 1 Dis.-WM. M. REBER, Surgeon and Physican. Office Market street. Above 5th East

B. McKELVY, M. D., Surgeon and Physician, porth side Main street, below Market

McHENRY, M. D., Sorgeon and Physicians tomos N. W. C. Market and 197th St. Diseases of the eye a specialty. aug. 29, 6m. DR. J. C. RUTTER,

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. Office, North Market street,

DR, I. L. RABB, PRACTICAL DENTIST, Main Street, opposite Episcopal Church, Blooms Teeth extracted without pain. Oct. 1 1879.

MISCELLANEOUS. C. M. DRINKER, GUN and LOCKSMITH. DAVID LOWENBERG, Merchant Tailo

S. KUHN, dealer in Meat, Tallow, etc. H. ROSENSTOCK, Photographer, Clark & Wolf's Store, Main street.

W. Y. KESTER, MERCHANT TAILOR, april19,1878.

incanghire
fire Association, Philadelphia
formers Mutual of Danville banville Mutual
flome, New York

March 26,'50-y

B. F. HARTMAN REPRESENTS THE FOLLOWIN

AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANIES:
Lycoming of Muncy Pennsylvania.
Sorth American of Philadelphia, Parankin, of rankin, of ramers of York, Pa.
Hanover of New York,
Manhattan of Office on Market Street No. 6, Bioomsburg, Pa, oct. 26, 19-1y.

MIRE INSURANCE. CHRISTIAN F. KNAPP, BLOOMSBURG, PA.

ITISH AMERICA ASSULANCE COMPANY.
HMAN PIRE INSULANCE COMPANY.
HONAL PIRE INSULANCE COMPANY.
HONAL PIRE INSULANCE COMPANY.
HOW INSULANCE COMPANY.
HOW OF THE INSULANCE OF THE SEASONED BY ARI
JUNE TESTED AND HAVE DEVELOPED A LOSS SET
JUNE ONLY OF THE MERCHANT HAVE DEVELOPED AND THE SEASONED BY THE BY THE SEASONED BY THE BY UNIX ONLY.
Lesses FROMPTLY and HONESTLY adjusted and paid soon as determined by Christian F. Knapp, structh Adistr And Audertes, Bloomstuss, PA.
The people of Columbia county should patronize to age by where lesses if any are settled and paid
y one of their own citizens.
PROMPTNESS, EQUITY, FAIR DEALING NOY 16 83.

JUDGE Hy sending 35 cents, with age, fight, color of eyes and hatr, you will receive by return mail a correct picture of your future hus-Address, W FOX, Box 77 Fultonville, N. Y.

The Columbian.

east more and more perfect; under the resebuds grew the thorns; but there seemed to lurk even in their cruelty a subtle, mysterious charm. It was enough for Miss

Turpin to dream. The physical and practical reality of the doctor's nearness, had its weight, but not consciously so, to the little roman. She never ventured to get up a ough or cramp for the sake of stamping nore clearly his shape into these vague but extravagant fests of fancy. In truth, so timid and afraid was she of a pulsation of

But more and more imposing, grander and grander grew this one figure of her fancy, around which revolved the statellites of health and wealth, popularity and fame-

all that could render life sweet or desira-

Perhaps it is detrimental to my beroine t

to have lived upon the fruits of her own fan-circumstances compelled her to change her abode, and had she thus lost sight of Dr-

Blake, the dreams would have gone along just the same, the fact of his dying in a neighboring hospital of weakness and want,

and the quenching of all her material in with Miss Turpin's airy fabric. It would have been impossible to convince Miss Turpin that he could reach so dire an extremity, had not the knowledge been forced in upon her in a way that she could not re-

She absolutely heard the gruff voice of Mr. Shadrach upon the morning in question and the low, musical, but bitterly mocking

She sat down upon the rug, and clasped ooth her hands. He was going away then !

Until that moment she had not realized the extent of such a disaster. She could have borne, perhaps, to have been compelled to go away herself, because the inevitable for young man was terrible. He had the flash for thus had little Miss Turpin been won attractions of young Blake-he to become had always managed to get up extraordibecame impatient with the behavior of little

Miss Turpin that morning. The little wo-while straining her ear to listen to a falter-erately burned the toast and boiled the cof fee, and the sooty wings spread themselves.

taking flight in disappointment and dis

where was he going? What would he do?

She had read sometimes of an evening, when working hours were over, the shaded lamp

upon the table at her side, the coals leaning nd blazing in the refulgent grate, her little dippered feet upon the fender-she had read of people who, having neither money, means nor content, had drifted into a moment of ful bar that separates the known from the which awaited them here. She had read heart had ached in their behalf. But now

Well, now her heart almost ceased to beat

She put away her, work-of what avail was it, all blotted and blurred by her tears, or ruined by her tears, or ruined by her shakng brush? All day she feared and trembled at nightfall some intuitive hope caused be wind-awept, gloomy corridor.

brighten the fire, cook a dainty meal

Then she waited and wated. The clock norning had almost dawned, when at last i came, yes-thank God! faltering and slow,

He reached the landing, the door of he

Any other woman but this, perhaps would ave recoiled with disgust and horror, and bove all, with fear, for the young man was

He fell into the chair at the table, and him; but that which would have been frantically devoured six hours before was like the

He drank the pitcher of water from Miss ter,' he murmured, esgerly. 'In cases of febrile debility they sometimes suffer-suffer. I recommend, by all means, water-water-water!' Then he fell back with a

Miss Turnin ran out of the foom and down the stairs; pounded on the door of the German tailor below, who, with his wife and five children, was enjoying in sleep the thirst—an appalling thirst.

groan of agony.

puicken little Miss Turpin's pulse.

tagger in.

the prev of an adverse destiny!

despair.

words of the doctor in reply.

shrank from his approach.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1879.

White Sewing Machine

WHITE MACHINE except from its regular authorized dealers, who we be sustained by the following warranty, WE WARRANT THE NATURAL WEAR AND TEAD

White Shuttle Sewing Machine, PLATE NUMBER 103339 FOR FAMILY PURPOSES, AND HERRY AGREE TO KEEP THE SAME IN REPAIR FOR THE TERM OF FIVE YEARS FROM THIS DATE, FREE OF CHARGE. This warranty excepts the breakage of need ranty will not be sustained unless th

The "WHITE" Shuttle Sewing Machine Co. Has sheater capacity than any other family Sewing Machine for doing every variety of work. J. SALTZER, General Agent, Bloomsburg, Pa.

WIDOWS APPRAISEMENTS. . Widow of John Patterson, late of Beaver to Widow of Stus F. Karns, late of Benton town wildow of M. E. Jackson, late of the Borough of Widow of Abraham Yoder, late of Locust town

. Widow of William Garrison, late the Town of Bloomsburg, deceased. . Widow of S. M. Erwin, late of Mifftin township, . Widow of B. K. Eves, late of Greenwood town-

. Wildow of John Hicks, late of the Town of Blooms . Widow of John Raup, late of Franklin township,

10 Wildow of George C. Scott, late of Catawissia I. Widow of Thomas Davis, late of Benton town-unty, and will be presented for confirmation towance in the orphan's Court to be held somasture on Monday, December 1st, 1 Torclock p. m. on said day:

The account of John McAnall, administrator of Lydia W. Dedson late of the Borough of Berwiet deceased, as filed by F. S. Hunt, administrate of John McAnall deseased, The account of John McAnall, administrator J. B. Bodson, late of the Borough of Berwie deceased, as fliet by F. S. Hunt, administrate of John McAnall, deceased.
 The first account of C. G. Jackson, guardian James B. Fearce, minor child of A. B. Pearc late of the Borough of Berwick, deceased. The first and anni account of Harry W Slor administrator of Maria Higgs, late of the To-. The first and final account of Joseph Townsand Trustee to sell Real Estate of John Townsand late of Madison township, deceased. The first and final account of John Applem Trustee to sell real estate of Ann Winner, late Hemiock township, decoased.

 The account of Wm. Martz, administrator cun testamento annexo, of Ludwig Theil, late of Lo cust township, deceased. The final occount of John G. Jacoby, guardian of Anna M. Poet (late Blank) a winor child's Samuel M. Blank, late of Centre township, de

. The first and final account of Thomas Butler, sup, accessed. The disaband final account of M. E. Jackson guardian of Rebecca J. March, minor child of James March, late of Centre township, decesses as first by C. B. Jackson, Executor of M. E. Jackson, decession, deces son, deceased.

44. The first and final account of Samuel Coleman administrator of Sina D. Kline, late of Fishing-creek township, deceased.

5. The second account of William Lamon, truste in the estate of Jacob Moyer, late of Briarcree!

6. The second account of Samuel Neyhard, executor of Philip Salsig, late of Centre townsaid deceased, as trustee for Rachael Coleman.

Rowell & Co's. Advc's.

WANTED. Young Men and Ladies to learn Telegraphy. Goo Mathons cuaranteed. Address with stamp (DEERLIN TELEGRAPH CO. Oberlin, Ohio. 2007 14-49.

$10 to $1000 invested in Wall St., Stocks makes the stock of the state of the state

$777 A YEAR and expenses to agenta, Outre

LEGAL BLANKS OF ALL KINDS

Poetical.

IN NOVEMBER BY THOMAS S. COLLINS.

he flowers are dead, the fragrant, regal flowers,

The sable crow wings slowly o'er the hill,

His harsh call sounding through the frosty air: The meadow sweeps are brown clad now and chill. The trees are gaunt and bare. The barn fowls cluster where the low hung sun, eaves : The road-way paths are russet-robed and dun, Thick strewn with fallen leaves, The sky is gray, the sunlight falls across ecold;

Not radiant beams, that forest-ways emboss With shifting flecks of gold. Anid the orchards harsh winds come and go, And wild and high the songs they roughly sing ' And smitten with the chill of coming snow, The trees stand shivering.

And thundering falls the fall and sturdy oak; Boon will its form flame on the hearthstone wide And fade away in amoke. o more the buckwheat blooms bend in the breez

No more the clover blossoms lowly sway : No more we hear the honey-ladened bees Boom on their homeward way. to lowing kine in upland pastures stand, When evening's gold shows the faint gleam

And rushing from the Northland's realm of snov s tempest-notes, where forests tower high Where late we met October's sunny smiles By yonder flowing river's silver gleam, clong the hill, and through the woodland alstes,

-Good Company

Select Story. LITTLE MISS TURPIN'S FATE.

HE WAS A STRANGER AND SHE TOOK HI

A little conversation took place, one mornng, on the top floor of a dingy old lodging results. It was in the front room, but made ouse in the metropolis, that led to strange its way very readily through the chinks and crannles in the mortar to the neighboring apartment, where little Miss Turpin was preparing her frugal breakfast. The toasting fork nearly fell from her band, and her dim ity apron narrowly escaped being seduced by the sumptuous flame from the grate, when the harsh, gruff voice of her landlord fell 'I want my money,' said Mr. Shadrack.

'So do I,' replied the young doctor, 'and more. 'He that wants money, means and content, is without three good friends.' 'Can I have my money to-night?'

'I think not.' 'To-morrow ?' 'It is extremely doubtful.' 'Then you must get out of here. I wan ny room. When do you want it ?" 'As soon as possible.' 'Will to-morrow do ?'

'Yes. 'Then leave me, friend ; the room shall be cours on to-morrow morning." The young medical student was a man o spirit, and would have vacated these not man, usually so practicable and capable, very alluring premises at once, but he had not where to lay his head, and there seemed ing, stumbling step in the next room, delibvital necessity just then for some such pro ceeding on his part He had discovered two days before that the faltering and shabby ource of his pecuniary supplies had utterly failed, and the knowledge that he was without money or friends in a strange city to gether with an inability to heg, borrow or steal, had robbed him of sleep. The loss of this necessary rest to a tired brain and worn out body, rendered him the prey of many different sensations during Mr. Shadrach' visit. An iron band seemed to compass his orehead, his eye balls burned, his hands shook, his knees seemed at times about to collapse beneath him, as he walked to and fro the length of the dreary apartment, for frenzy and despair, and thus leaped the awlack of more nourishing food chewing the cud of many a bitter fancy. He asked him- unknown, content to risk any fate but that self over and over again if this was to be the end of it all, and why he had been such a thus of poor, strange unfortunates, and her fool as to fancy he could pursue the study of medicine with the wretched capital of a worn out body, a distracted mind and barely money enough to keep flesh upon his bones. That an indomitable spirit had promoted him to go on, hoping for a little desultory practice by the way ; that the rose-color with which youth and inexperience are apt to tint those fallacious dreams had been too vivid in his case, - that these and many other excuses could be made for his folly availed little junow. A systematic course of semi-starva tion and overwork had broken his indomita ble spirit, and turned the rose-colored dream to an exceedingly greenished-hued night months' stay with Mrs. Shadrach, was a poor little workwomau in the neighboring room, a washed-out, timid, wretched little creature, with scarcely enough stamina about her to rally after a slight attack of pneumonia Her little fee had been ready for him after every visit-in fact, obtrusively ready, for t was out of the question, of course, to take money 'It was merely a neighborly service,' he had said, when, upon his fifth visit, he found her up and at work again, and uppon his departure she had stammered out omething about his bill, 'I am only too glad

Miss-Miss'-'Turpin,' she whispered, 'To be of service to you, and beg you will call me in whenever my presence is desira-

Miss Turpin faltered out her thanks. burning flush chased the pallor out of her face, as warmty he pressed her trembling hand in his and bade her good-bye. 'Poor little devil!' he said, as he strode away to the lecture room. 'It's bad enough for a great strong ox like myself to face and battle with this grim old grindstone of a miserable waif like that-phew, it's mon-

the threshold of the college, then gave himself up to the subject in hand, which so agressed his mind, that he forthwith forgo the existence of little Miss Turpin. But he, upon her part, repeated over and over the words of young Dr. Blake, blushng again when she became conscious of the act that she really had the temerity to dwell only immunity granted them from endless upon this genial but commonplace cour-

Miss Turpin's work was delicate and ar- again like a deer, and found Dr. Blake in- go. You will take care of him now, doctor, tistic, but not soul-absorbing like the docsensible, his head thrown back upon the won't you? But let me say good-bye." tor's. She could tint her photographs all chair, his eyes half-closed, his stentorious the better for this little episode in her life. breathings audible in the corridor below. The vines and tendrils took tender shapes The little German returned with the very ander her deft little fingers; a shy, sweet melancholy helped to make the shadows at best medical aid in the vicinity, even that over him, her warm tears falling on his pale of the eminent Dr. Havershaw himself. All this fues and confusion had aroused Mr. Shadrach, who followed them up the stairs and protruded his long, hairy chin in hands seize hers in a feeble grasp—the hol-the doorway. hairy chin in low, sunken eyes of the student fasten It is, perhaps, best that you should know, pin. 'that it is a doubtful case. Your hus band is in a very critical condition. If this worthy man will assist me we will get him to bed. Our only hope will be a powerful dative, to be given at once." The worthy man alluded to was Mr. Shadp actical joy, that she actually shunned and rach, whose eyes almost left their sockets madam,' said the surgeon to little Miss Tur-when he found the doctar preparing to put his young lodger in Miss Turpin's bed, 'Why-why,' he gasped, looking at Miss Turpin, 'this won't do, will it ?' Miss Turpin bowed her head. She could nade all the noise that was necessary. Its convulsive throbs moved the shawl she had say that she would have been quite content thrown over her shoulders, 'Don't chatter here,' said the doctor, thinking Mr. Shadrach was addressing him. cy for the remainder of her natural life. Had 'Just do what I bid you, and the more quietly the better.'

Half an hour later Miss Turpin was alone Half an hour rater area to be doctor that the pot to boiling.

And now in her stylish broughsm, with the upon the bed. He was helpless there. pauper's grave not interfering in the least distorted, his eyes half closed. A confused, rustling silks and dainty laces, with her unintelligent murmur flowed from her lips, wildest fancies more than realized, who his hands clenched and unclenched; at could find fault with the fate of little times a group seemed wrung from his vitals. Miss Turpin? Miss Turpin's features were pale and haggard, her eyes streaming with tears. Yet, n the midst of an anguish that partook of lespair, with throes of pain and terror unspeakable, there was born in her a solemn and almost sinister joy, the first ever given to that sterile soul. When the doctor came in the evening he thought he had never seen so patient and noble a face; there was something in it that district to which he belongs a commission. went to his heart. 'Be comforted,' he said, 'let us rely upon the youth and strong physique of your hus The incoherent mutterings of his patient her had become, long since, a matter of course; but to have the iron hand of inexorable necessity grasp this magnificent ittracted the doctor's attention. Sharp and strong sentences fell upon his ear, that exng eyes, the lordly mien, the exultant step cited his professional curosity. When he heard from Miss Turpin of the enthusiasm to classify the somewhat alluring personal and zeal of the young student, as much as she dared tell him of his defeated aspiraions and hopes, the good doctor's eyes Miss Turpin's breakfast that morning was kindled with sympathy. a failure. By dint of long practice and an 'Let him only get well,' he said, 'and we exceedingly gracious gift of housewifery she will sweep these lions out of his path.' Miss Turpin smiled through her tears. nary little meals for herself. It was as if 'He will get well, thanks to you,' she a little, sooty angel sat up aloft in the chimney and assisted the culinary efforts of the lone little woman. Her toast was of brown the room with approbration. It had been golden, her coffee was Mocha the most desuddenly metamorphosed into the model of licious, her bit of steak so juicy and appechamber for the sick. The open fire, tizing that sometimes poor Blake, in the with its cheerful blaze and ventilating neighboring room, with some chunks of draught; the subdued light; the white and brown bread floating helplessly in a chalky warm drapery of the bed; her own little fluid before him, finding this savory odor couch near by; pretty, shadowy pictures under his nostrils, raised his clenched hands upon the walls tinted by her own hands But even the little angel in the chimney

"It is lucky for yonder lad," thought the doctor, "that in all this big, wretched barrack the one little snuggery is his own." And so the days went by, each one freight ed with hope and fear. There came one at last upon which rested the life or death of the young student.

step passed her door, and slowly one by one Miss Turpin turned pale, and stretched out her hands with a gesture of entreaty Then she slipped from her chair to her knees, and from thence to the floor. Now had come the supreme moment of torture.

Now her labor, her joy, her life, was done. A strange face! What face could be stranger than her own? "Tut, child," said the doctor. "I thought you had more courage. There is every hope for him. Can't you bear joy as you have sorrow? I only want that he shall first see the face of his wife, the dearest to him in the world." He put down his hands to her, but still she hid her face from his. Her whole frame trembled. She wished at that moment, so happy seemed her fate, that she could die there and then.

"Oh, doctor," said she, lifting at last her eyes to his, "how can'I tell you? how can make you know? I am not his wife!" The doctor drew back coldly, but as he and placing the table opposite the door leave the tempting, cozy room open upon the frank, earnest eyes caught his own, he could not resist the innocent pleading there. She might be a poor Magdalene even, but he had shall be required for the purpose of secertaining truck at midnight, then one, two, three rom a neighboring belfry; the meal was old, the fire burned low; the chill, gray

"We must think of nothing now but our patient," he said, gently; "your face is at east familiar and dear to him." but it was his footstep; none other could "Alas! no," she said: "it is strange, most unknown. It is far better I should go oom. Why, truly, he did pause-yes, and

Then she told the doctor all. And as she went on to confess how she had dared shelter this poor neighbor of hers, without a roof to cover him, without money, without friends vidently not himself. His hair, damp and sick unto death, helpless and alone-how she had dared at any risk to shelter him and lisheveled, hung in heavy disorder about his face and neck; his eyes, glassy and lurid, to nurse him back to life—the good surgeon's eyes blinked under his shaggy brows. He blazed upon hers; a red flame burned in his cheeks; a slight foam flecked his trembling put his heavy hand in benediction upon

"Thou good little Samaritan!" he said. And two big, hollow, handsome eyes upor ooked wonderingly upon the food before he white bed in the corner also filled with ears. He was so weak, this poor young Blake, that he could scarcely help sobbing ashes of bitterness to him now. He had not tasted food for thirty-six hours. But it outright at so touching a story. was not hunger that tortured him; it was her bowed head.

"Why-why," he faltered to himself, "in little Miss Turpin's room! O, thou merci ful Heaven! in little Miss Turpin's bed With the cheery little fire in the grate to oil yonder biting blast, with all the little knick-knacks and furbelows about -the little pictures on the wall, her bird cage a the window, and a nest little medicine stand with lots of spoons, in various doses, each spoon with little Miss Turpin's name; and to her, then, under heaven. I owe my life! Ah, may God do so to me, and more also, if I desert little Miss Turpin, or let little Miss Turpin desert me!"

"And now," said the sweet, sad voice

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

THE COLUMBIAN, VOL. XIII, NO.

guilty of perjury, and on conviction ther or by fine not exceeding eight hundred dollars; or, if he shall willfully and knowingly make false certificates or fictitious returns, he shall The doctor, undecidedly, scarcely knowing "Good-bye, good-bye," she said, bending sunken face, her hot, trembling hands clasping themselves together. But suddenly two other hot, trembling themselves upon Miss Turpin's face with very hungry tenderness. "Oh, no," he said, "you cannot go from here, not for the world; you see the good doctor has said it will not do to have a strange face at my bedside. Yours is the learest to me in the world. I love you, Miss Turpin. It is perbaps, a sad fate I offer you : but oh ! be still more generous-be my wife. I have, dear little Miss Turpin-oh! have loved you long!"

what to say, half carried her to the bed.

He didn't say how long; he was too weak to talk. He didn't tell her that perhaps his love dated only a little half-hour back, not speak, but it seemed to her that her heart | when he listened to that wondrously touching little story of hers.

What mattered it? Cannot love be as strong as life and deep as the sea, howsoever and whenever it is born? Good Dr. Haversbaw took care of their future. It began in a neat, two-story brick house, with a big brass sign upon the door, to which the worthy surgeon drew attention enough to set erhaps dying, his face was strange and a liveried lackey at her command, with Provinions of the Act of March 3, 1879, whice relate to the formation of enumeration districts the appointment of enumerators, their duties compensation, etc.

qualified to enter upon his duties until he ha received from the supervisor of census of the under his hand, authorizing him to perform the duties of an enumerator, and setting forth the boundaries of the subdivision within which such duties are to be performed by him. He shall, moreover, take and subscribe the follow-

"I, _____, an enumerator for taking the _____census of the United States, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will make a true and exact enumeration of all the inhabitants within the subdivision assigned to me, and will also faithfully collect all other statistics therein, as

Which said oath or affirmation may be admis istered by any judge of a court of record, or any justice of the peace empowered to admin ister oaths; and a copy thereof, duly authenticated, shall be forwarded to the supervisor of census before the date fixed herein for the ommencement of the enumeration.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of each enumerhouse in his subfivision, and each family therein, and each individual living out of a family in any place of abode, and by inquiry made of the head of such family, or of the nember thereof deemed most credible and worthy of trust, or of such individual living out of a family, to obtain each and every item of information and all the particulars required "Some time this evening," said the doctor by this act, as of date June first, eighteen to Miss Turpin, "he will regain conscious- hundred and eighty. And in case no person ness; be sure that you do not leave his shall be found at the usual place of abode of bedside. I would not for the world, at such family or individual living out of a family that critical moment, that a strange face competent to answer the inquiries made in then it shall be lawfel for the enumerator to obtain the required information, as nearly as may be practicable, from the family or families or person or persons living nearest to such

> SEC. 9. And it shall be further the duty of ach enumerator to forward the original schedules, duly certified, to the supervisor o census of his district, as his returns under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 10. The compensation of en shall be ascertained and fixed as follows: In subdivisions where the Superintendent of Census shall deem such an allowance sufficient, n allowance not exceeding two cents for each death reported, ten cents for each farm, and fifteen cents for each establishment of productive ndustry enumerated and returned, may be given in full compensation for all services; and o claim for mileage or traveling expenses shall be allowed in such subdivisions: Provided That the subdivisions to which the above rate of compensation shall apply must be designated month in advance of the enumeration; and no account of the time occupied in enumeration never seen so childlike and yet womanly a and determining the compensation of enumer-creature. subdivisions, rates of compensation shall be fixed in advance of the enumeration by the Superintendent of Census, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, according to the difficulty of enumeration, having reference o the nature of the region to be canvassed and the density or sparseness of settlement, or other considerations pertinent thereto; but the compensation allowed to any enumerator in any district east of the one hundredth meridian shall not exceed an average of four dollars per day of ten hours actual field work each; and the compensation allowed to any enumerator in any district west of the one hundredth meridian shall not exceed six dollars per working day of equal length. And the Superintendent of Census may prescribe a unifor method and suitable forms for keeping accoun of the time occupied in field-work, for the purpose of ascertaining the amounts due to nerators, severally, under the provisions o this act.

Sec 11. The subdivision assigned to any imerator shall not exceed four thousand nhabitants, according to the census of eighteen hundred and seventy. The boundaries of all subdivisions shall be clearly scribed by civil divisions, rivers, roads, public urveys, or other easily distinguished lines.

SEC. 12. That any supervisor or enumerator ho, having taken and subscribed the oath equired by this act, shall, without justifiable and good health without using Hop Bitters use, neglect or refuse to perform the duties to strenghten the stomach, purify the blood, ojoined on him by this at, or shall, without the authority of the Superintendent, commu-nicate to any person not authorized to receive he same, any statistics of property or business included in his return, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall Miss Turpin, "Take me to his bedside. I forfels a sum not exceeding five hundred labor and toil; bade him fly for the best doc- am foolishly weak, I can scarcely see. Let dollars; or, if he shall willfully and knowingly tor in the neighborhood; ran up the stairs me look upon him just once more before I swear or affirm falsely, he shall be desmed be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction of either of the last named offenses, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars and be imprisoned no exceeding two years. Sec. 13. That if any person shall receive or secure to himself any fee, reward, or compen-sation as a consideration for the employment in any way receive or secure to himself any part of the compensation provided in this set for the services of any enumerator or clerk, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than three thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court-SEC. 16. That the Superintendent, his chief clerk, supervisors, and enumerators are hereby authorized to transmit through the post office any paper or document relating to the census, by writing thereon "Official business - Census, and subscribing the same, with the addition to shall extend to nothing but documents and free. And any Superintendent, supervisor, enumerator, or clerk who shall use or exercise this privilege for any purpose other than the legitimate discharge of the duties of his office upon conviction shall forfeit for each offense a sum not exceeding one hendred dollars.

his name of his official title. But this privilege

SEC. 18. Each enumerator in his subdivisi shall be charged with the collection of the acts and statistics required by each and all the several schedules, with the following exceptions of deaths is maintained, the Superintendent o Census may, in his discretion, withdraw the mortality schedule from the several enumerators within such cities, and may obtain the statistic required by this act through official records, paying therefor such sum as may be found necessary, not exceeding the amount which is by this act authorized to be paid to enumerators or a similar service, namely, two cents each death thus returned. Whenever he shall deem it expedient, the Superintendent of Census may withdraw the schedules for manufacturing and social statistics from the enumerators the several subdivisions, and may charge the collection of these statistics upon experts and special agents, to be employed without respect

CENSUS SUPERVISORS' DISTRICTS.

The formation of supervisors' districts under ne provisions of the census set of March 3, 1879, has been completed, except in regard to the states of Massachusetts and California, and approved by Secretary Schurs- The details that the appointment of supervisors must be made in each instance by selection from applicants residing within the boundaries of heir districts. These important offices, which will practically control the thousands of local appointments necessary for the work of taking the census, are to be filled by the first of Jane uary. General Walker says that in the formation of districts reference has been had solely to the exigencies of enumeration due to the geographical features of the states and to the existing conditions of settlement, occupation and inter-communication. The following are ator, after being qualified in the manner the Ponnsylvania districts: First district, Delaware and Lancaster counties: Third district Berks, Dauphin, Lebanon, Northumberland and Schuylkill counties; Fourth district, Bucks, Carbon, Lehigh, Montgomery and Northampton counties; Fifth district, Columbia, Lackawanna Luserne, Monroe, Montour, Pike, Sullivan, Wayne and Wyoming counties; Sixth district, Bradford, Cameron, Lycoming, McKean, Potter, Susquehanna and Tioga counties; Seventh district, Adams, Clearfield, Clinton, Cumberland, Franklin, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin, Perry, Soyder, Union and York counties; Eighth district, Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Fayette, Green, Indiana, Somerset and West-moreland counties; Ninth district, Allegheny, Beaver, Lawrence and Washington counties Tenth district, Armstrong, Butler, Clarion; Venango and Warren counties.

TWO GLIMPSES OF THE LATE PRINCE

We have two recollections of this unfortunate Prince, to which his cruel fate has given a pathetic significance. One was the opening of the Legislative body in the year 1866, when the Emperor first associated his son with him officially. The splendid Thorne-Room of the Louvre was crowded with the most brilliant company of Christendom, with the great officers of the state, of the army, and the imperial household The Emperor entered and took his place on Napoleon Jerome; and in an episcopal robe of violet silk the young und Apollo-like ecclesiastic, since Cardinal Bonaparte, son of the Prince of Canino; while on his right sat the little Prince, then ten years of ageas sweet and gentle a child as ever delighted a mother's heart. A year or two afterward, on the reserved terrace of the Tuileries, we saw two boys playing with their velocipedes, and keenly enjoying the air and the exercise. One of them was the Prince Imperial, and the other Don Alfonso of Spain; the former seemed secure in the prospect of the most conspicuous throne in the world, the other had just been driven, finally as it seemed, from a land which and decreed eternal banishment to his race. We can not fathom the immutable will that rules the event of human fortunes : who could have dreamed that in these few years one of those boys would be lying dead in an African corn-field; and the other, we know not how firmly, established in the palace of his ancestors ! - Harper's Magazine for De-

THE EMPRESS EUGENIE.-Eugenie de Montijo, Counters of Teba, was a beautiful woman of twenty-seven, who had a youth of vicissitudes, and was well known in many capitals for her beauty.

Cause and Effect.

The main cause of nervousness is indigestion, and that is caused by weakness of the stomach. No one can have sound nerves and keep the liver and kidneys active, to carry off all the poisonous and waste matter of the system. See other column.

tificial butter is rapidly extending, and large factories for its production are springing up in nearly all the principal cities. The bustces is said to be very lucrative.