THANKSGIVING SOIRER.

The Exchange Hotel was brilliant on Thanksgiving night with lights and a gay company. A number of the young men of the town having concluded to have a party at that time, all the necessary arrangements were made, and rom the perfect order and regularity of everything, we should say they were well made-The company began to assemble about eight clock, and in a short time numbered nearly venty. Dancing commenced a little before ine. Neat programmes with handsomely engraved covers, and silk cord and tassel were furnished each person. There were twenty five dances on the programme. The music was furnished by Prof. C. J. White's archestra of Sunbury. Everybody was pleased with it, and pronounced it the best we have ever had on a imilar occasion. The programms announced hat supper would be ready at 11 o'clock, and t that time almost to a minute, the company marched into the dining room. Dancing wa Trustees' Receipt Books bound in Reynol is conducted in the dining room until ten o'clock, when that was vacated to make way for the tables, and the dance continued in the parlor. THE SUPPER.

As the company marched into the dining com their eyes fell upon a row of tables ex ending entirely around the room, beautifully arranged and containing many delicacies to tempt the appetite. Some who had caten dinner at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and has nothing since, did not require any temptation to induce them to eat. The bill of fare con tained the following: Roast turkey, boiled ham savory meat, fried oysters, chicken salad, lob ster salad, cold slaw, maccaroni, a la creme, celery, mustard pickles, bread and butter, coffee, tea, chocolate, white mountain cake pound cake, fancy cakes, ice cream, gelatine, apples, grapes, binanas, nuis and raisins. Everything was done up in the very highest The next Annual Session of the Columbia style of the culinary art, under the superin tendence of the estimable landlady of the Exchange. After all had partaken to the fullest extent of their capacity the dining room was again cleared in a remarkably short time and the dancing continued until about for o'clock in the morning, when the party ended and the company dispersed, well pleased with the grand success of the Thanksgiving Soires. Were we to close this report without mentioning the efforts of the proprietors of the Exchange to make the party a pleasant one, we would do David Leche, S. W. Edgar, and W. H. them injustice. W. R. Kilpatrick, and one on "Muscle ve Brain" by Rev. Fowler. Both lecturers had arge and iences and held their attention all evening. The strong point in Kilpatrick's lecture was his description of the batter of Gettysburg, vivid, clear, and exciting. We would mention, as an example, the case of Mr. A. Heilman, editor of the Pittsburgh Republican, who suffered with rheamatism for two years. After vainly using all the bes commended remedies and exhausting the skill of the most experienced physicians with out even temporary relief, it required only two bottles of St Jacob's Oil to effect a permanen cure. Mr. C. Hanni, a well known citizen o Youngstown, Ohio, secured for his wife, who for twelve years had been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia in the head, the services of the ablest physicians in the land, but they were mable to do anything for her: half a bottle of St Jacob's Oil cured her. Mr Wm Reinhardt Elmore, Wis, reports the case of a neighbo who for twenty-four years had suffered so terrible with rhoumatism that, at times, he could hardly move around; a few bottles of S Jacob's Oil cured him. "To exp the climar," lowever, Mr A Neiger, of Taylorville, Pa writes that his mother, who had been a continual sufferer with rheumatism for the past thirty rears, used one bottle of St Jacob's Oil and was mmediately relieved of all pain. These are esults which truly deserve to be brought to public notice; but they are not exceptions, as will be seen by the numerous other certificates from all parts of the United States. It should be the duty of every one to call the attention of his suffering friends and neighbors to this wonderfully efficacious preparation, especially as the low price of 50 cents a bottle places it within the reach of all persons, rich and poor

THE SUN FOR 1880.

The Sun will deal with the events of the year iss in its own fashion, how pretty well understood by everybody. From January 1 until December 31 will be conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, the Sun believes in getting all the conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, the Sun believes in getting all the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time. The great est interest to the greatest number—that is, the lay controlling its daily make—up. It now has a circuli tion very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is a sil times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life an all ways of thinking buy and read the Sun; and the, all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns for they keep on buying and reading it.

In its comments on men and affairs. The Sun bilieves that the only guide of policy should be common sense, inspired by genuine a merican principle and backed by honesty of purpose. For this reason it is, and will continue to be, absolutely independent of party, class, clique organization, of inferest. It is for all, but of hone. It will continue to pray what is good and reproduct what he evil, taking carthat its language is to the point and plain beyon that progress of the possibility of heigh minuscreamy words. It is short frauds pittles fools, and deplores inacompoops of every aspecies. It will continue the pray words. It is about frauds pittles fools, and deplores inacompoops of every aspecies. It will on the necessary words. It is about frauds pittles fools, and deplores inacompoops of every aspecies. It will on the principles and reaching the year less to changes which me conducted during the year iso to change the first the in the sea instruct the second, and dis The Sun makes no bones or beiling the truth to its triends whethever occasion arises for plain speaking. These are the principles upon which the Sun will be conducted during the year to come. The year 1898 will be one in which no patriotic American can afford to close his eyes to public affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store or the occasiny of resolute vigilance on the part of every ottless who desires to preserve the Government that the founders give us. The desides and acts of Congress, the utcerances of the press, the exciting contests of the Republican and Bemocratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the conintry, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty-fourth Presidential election, to be held in November. Four years also next November the will of the nation as expressed at the poils, was thewarded by an aboutinable conspiracy, the promoters and beneficiaries of which still hid the rilices they stole. Will the crime of isio be repeated in isse? The past decode of years opened with a corrupt, extrawagant, and the object of the crime of the object of the same men are now intriguing to restore their leader and themselves to places from which they were driven by the indignation of the people. Will they succeed? The coming year will bring the answers to these momentous questions, the Sun will be on hand to carbonicle the facts as they are developed, and to exhibit them clearly and fearliestly in their relations to expediency and right.
