But this cannot always be done, and the people, in self defence, must then takthe law into their own hands. This is par ticularly the case on our western frontier and among newly discovered gold or silver Desperadoes of all classes flock regions. thither. Courts, if established, are some times too weak to execute the law, and some times judges, juries and jailors are easily tampered with. The Vigitantes of Califor nia did more to purify that State than the courts, and to day the secret citizens' com-

WASHINGTON LETTER. Washington, B C. April 6th, 1880-

The other affair which is, I trust final'y ettled, is the Manuing-Springer difficulty, growing out of the latter's refusal to vote to rom the third Minnesota District. The trouble was wholly unnecessary, not member of the House believed that Congressman Springer was corruptly influen-rinting paper,&c., and on these, if on any, the necessary votes could have been secured. The more influential Senators, are, as well known, Grant men, just why men like Edmunds, Carpenter and Conkling, should be for Grant is not plain. Perhaps they take to him as a choice of evils, preferring him
