MUSICAL—Good Night, Gentle Polka, is the title of a new quartette, by Will L. Thompson, author of the famous quartette "Come Where the Lilies Bloom." Concert and Minstrel troupe pronounce it the most beautiful piece music ever put on their programmes. It never fails to receive hearty encore. The demand is such that it is scarcely possible to keep it in print. Music dealers write that they never knew a quartette to sell so fast. We advise lovers of music to send the price, 50 cents, to the publishers, and receive a copy by return mail. Published by W. L. Thompson & Co., East Liverpool, Ohio.

The license of J. L. Girton of the City Hotel was refused by the court on Tuesday afternoon, witnesses were heard on Monday morning and again in the evening. During the hearing the applicant's conduct was such as to render him a respectable man who had made sworn returns for three years that there was no violation of the liquor laws, now standing up before the court and swearing that he had known of frequent violations of the law since last September.

In refusing the license the court said that they were very to be compelled to close a hotel which was needed by the traveling public but the evidence was clear and conclusive that the law had been violated, and the court must perform its duty. In the case of Peter Gross the license was granted there being no evidence of Sunday violation, and only one sale to a minor who might easily be taken for an adult.

THE END OF THE CURLEY CASE.

District Attorney Little began his argument to the jury in the Curley case on Monday morning and made a good argument of several hours duration. He was followed by Col. J. C. Frizze and Hon. C. R. Buckle for the prisoner or his next of kin, and in the course of their argument, occupying the balance of the day. Hon. F. W. Hughes made the closing argument on Tuesday. The court charged the jury and they retired about four o'clock in the afternoon, and were out about two hours when they came in with a verdict of murder in the second degree. The penalty fixed by the law for this offense is imprisonment at separate or solitary confinement not exceeding twelve years for the first offense, and imprisonment for not exceeding life for a second offense, with or without hard labor for a period not exceeding life for a third offense.

On Thursday morning Curley was brought before the court and sentenced to an imprisonment of twelve years in the penitentiary, labor and to pay the costs of prosecution.

The McGibby family soon on a warm place in the hearts of the amusement-loving portion of our community by their two exquisite performances in Fisher's Hall. While every feature of the programme is always greeted in the most artistic manner, not to be excelled by any other company, and qualified by the strongest claim about them lies in the fact that all are members of the same family, making it in every respect the most wonderful family in the world. The children, from their tiny four-year old in the oldest exhibited wonderful talent, and in everything show the skill of their careful and loving teachers. The parade, last evening, accompanied by the Peral Band, under the glass of colored lights, was a decided triumph.—Lebanon Daily Times.

EDS. COLUMBIAN:
A visit to Frase Bros' planning mill convinces one that the proprietors are enterprising business men.

Dr. L. and Prof. S.—fished the Wapole creek last Saturday from one end to the other without landing a single trout. They caught quite a number of "chubs" but disdained to carry them along.

At the Literary society last Friday evening, Miss Alice Walton read an interesting essay, Frank Macquerry recited "The Polish Boy," and W. E. Smith, Thos. Thatcher and John Crowley on the affirmative, and F. Stewart, L. Boyer and G. Kester on the negative, debated the subject "That no man should be permitted to fill the office of President of the United States for more than two terms." The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. Several of the speeches were very interesting and lively.

The funeral of Col. Jackson took place at the appointed time. At the house speeches were made by Revs. Crighton, McGarrath and Sawyer, and in the church after the burial, speeches were made by Geo. Osborne, Captain John Crow, Rev. Dill, Rev. Young, Dr. Macaulay and John Crow. The church contained only a small fraction of the number of people that had gathered in town that day. Quite a number of the deceased's military associates were here to witness the burial of their comrade.

The death of Col. Jackson will mean no change in the manufacturing business with which he was connected. The business continues the same, and the firm the same.

ROBESBURG NEWS.
ROBESBURG, MAY 12, '80
Farmers here are nearly through with their crop planting. The prospects are good for a fine wheat harvest. The warm weather last week helped the vegetation finely and the women can see the effects of their toil in garden making.

The windows of P. D. Black's furniture store presents a fine appearance.

New fences are the rage here now. Wm. Black has on around his lot, Isaac Black has been clearing the rubbish of the old house away and building a neat fence around his yard. G. Hartman and apprentices have been building yard fences for Mrs. Ratan and Captain Curt.

L. Black is making many improvements on his lot and has planned a fine assortment of fruit trees.

Surprises have passed away for a time we think. At the last gotten up for the Albertson tables were turned, and the surprising victors and friends were the surprised party, but all things passed off quietly and the evening was an enjoyable affair and after "tripping the light fantastic" the large company parted in the most goodly things prepared for the occasion. The party then dispersed, the gallant leading a lady lantern to the ladies that they might see themselves home.

The piles of lumber left by teamsters on the grounds of the Christian church do not add anything to its good appearance.
