Senator David Davis's letter to Hon, O. blast monthly. H. Browning, President Johnson's Secretary of the Interior, is commented on strangely enough, as a bid for the Demo cratic nomination. I dont see that in the letter. The Senator wrote after Grant's nomination was assured, and after he supposed a determined opposition inside the Republican party would be made to such a nomination, and when, perhaps, he thought there would be equal dissatisfaction at the Democratic nomination. It is a "third party" letter. It is a re-statement of the sentiment which led to the Philadelphia convention of 1876, with additions to meet the changed conditions of the times. The venerable senator will have no votes in the Democratic convention, and he don't expect any.

It will be safe to give slight credence regular telegraphic reports of the preferences delegates to Cincinnati have. More con tradictions are received here by private telegrams than would be thought possible. The false reports may be sent by connivance of the friends of candidates, or to influence the Radical convention at Chicago, or for reaconsolidate the interests of the large comsons unknown, but it is certain that in evpanies was becoming apparent in the inery convention, from Pennsylvania, two creased rates obtained. It is plain enough that the best as well as the worst men in the republican party are recently run, but numbers were being put in willing to sacrifice every principle they have profess in order to secure the success of During the year 1872, in which the coal their party. The precept of Thaddeus Steand iron company was organized, it expendvens, "Throw principle to the dogs," seem ed the sum of $60,000,000 under the charter to have rooted itself in the nature of the Re in the Schuylkill region, and had a dominant publican politician. When so reputable a interest over collieries producing 2,700,000 man as George F. Edmunds is capable of tons yearly. The company soon after promaking so insincere a plea for party advat posed to the proprietors of the remaining tage as that which fell from his lips in the collieries, which were then producing in the Senate on Monday, very little can be exaggregate 3,242,000 tons, that they should pected from the Conklings the Blaines and combine with them and receive a certain sum the Logans in any matter which involves per ton for their coal, the proposition was at an issue between the interests of their party first resisted, but was ultimately acquiesced on the one hand and decency, right and jus in before the end of the year, and it was tice on the other. When the whole body of authoritively announced that hereafter there the republican membership of the senate arwould be monthly meetings of all the coal rays itself against a modification of the fedproducers of Pennsylvania, both corporate eral election laws admitted by all fair and private, at which the price of coal was minded people to be just and necessary, and to be fixed to sait their interests. In January,1873, the first offical circular fixing the able plan for the counting of the electoral against the adoption of a definite and equit price of coal for the month was issued by the vote, it may as well be accepted as a foregone companies in the syndicate, and there was conclusion that the Republican leaders do an average increase in the prices, over those not want a fair election for President or an of the previous month, of about 32 cents a honest count of the electoral vote and do ton, and the effect of the late movement to not intend that either shall take place if Coudersport, the County iseat of Potter county was visited by a disastrous conflagra tion last week, Tuesday. The fire broke out in Stebbins Bros.' storeroom at the corner o Second and Main streets. The fire extended from those two streets to East, West and Third streets, destroying every business place with the exception of the Baker House, A. B. Mann's insurance building and the Journal printing building. Nothing is left on the north side. From First to the south side of Third street and from the east approximated $30,000,000 and the next conside of West street to the west side of East sideration was to get the trade again upon a street, except the Court House and one dwelling, everything was swept away. The loss is estimated at $200,000 and the insurance at $75,000. The fire continued one and a half hours. All the wooden build-Burget . ings with the exception of W. B. Godiner's block, on Second street, were burned. The town has no water supply, so fire apparatus, and no effort could be made to resist the flames until everything in its way was consumed. Coudersport is a beautiful town lands at $40,941,579; timber lands, $540,307 together with a variety of other items which brings the total up to $59,699,799. The assets are stated at $3,893,171, which together with income accounts, and profit and loss, brings county. Shaded streets extend from the river westward to the hill, skirting the western account the purchase money mortgage bonds amount to $12,695 ; bonds and mortboundary of the town, and on the north an south are long fertile valleys.
