

THE COLUMBIAN AND DEMOCRAT, BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

PROOF UPON PROOF. THE LEADING REPUBLICAN PAPER ON GARFIELD'S PART IN THE CREDIT MOBILIER.

Governor Foster coming to the defense of the Credit Mobilier is reported in the New York Herald as having said substantially that there is nothing in the charge, that the Republican candidate for the Presidency was badly smirched in the Credit Mobilier business.

THE TIMES ON THE CREDIT MOBILIER. The New York Times, the leading Republican newspaper in the country, denounced the investigation as a campaign scheme of the Democracy, and threw cold water upon it until the testimony taken before the Investigation Committee became so overwhelming that it could no longer afford the attempt to gain it.

Without reference to the tedious list of names, connections, preparations, and misstatements before the committee, it is perfectly evident that he meant to perjure a corrupt act. The committee's strength in its recommendation for his expulsion by citing a statute under which Ames's offense is made punishable with ten years imprisonment in a penitentiary and with a heavy fine.

From his own sworn testimony before the Poland Committee January 14, 1873. I never owned, received or agreed to receive any stock of the Credit Mobilier or of the Union Pacific Railroad nor any dividends or profits arising from either of them.

From Judge Poland's report, Feb. 18, 1873 - Garfield's testimony perjured. The fact in regard to Mr. Garfield, as found by the committee, and that he agreed with Ames to take ten shares of Credit Mobilier stock, did not say for the same Mr. Ames received the eight per cent. dividend in bonds and sold them for ninety-seven percent, and also received the sixty per cent. cash dividend, which together with the price of stock and interest, left a balance of $329.

From the New York Times February 19, 1873. Messrs. Kelly and Garfield present a most distressing figure in their participation in the Credit Mobilier affair. It is complicated by the most unfortunate contradiction of testimony.

risk of ruining the Republican party? This is a practical question which the House of Representatives would do well to consider. The tone of the debate on the Credit Mobilier report suggests the inquiry. We are not totally at a loss to understand or justify the temper of the House.
