The bloody shirt still waves in the South but the shoe is now on the other foot. Hardly a day passes that the papers do not contain accounts of outrages committed by Southern pegroes upon white people. A respectable physician while riding along the road was shot down by a colored man who apparently had no motive for the deed. Another negro was lynched in Maryland for outraging a white lady. And yet the republican organs would have us believe that the only reason why the South is Democratic is because the poor negroes are bulldozed. Occurrences in the South are magnified and exaggerated, while the very same things happen every day in the north without no tice. What a beautiful Ku Klux story the happened below the Mason & Dixon line. But who in this county ever suspected that this crime had any political significance? Men on can judges, and the Northern press bowls about rebel juries which override the laws and set criminals free upon society. Men are tried and convicted of inciting to riot, of bribery in Pennsylvania, and before the jury car render a verdict or the prison doors can close upon them a republican Governor prepares a previous pardon, on a republican board of pardons sets them free. That is the difference between the repulican North may commit the crime of theft, mis concrime, they may disregard the constitution and the laws, and the more they do it the better partisans they are.

Party offices and honors are lavished upon them, and they are held up as noble examples of republican statesman. Rebel brigadiers who signify their willingness to be converted to republicanism for a consideration are received with open arms, and rewarded with offices, as were Longstreet, Mosby and other rebel leaders. But let a Wade Hampton be sent to the Senate Chamber, and the cry of that to administer rightly the functions of "treason" "treason" comes from the throats of a thousand organ grinders. The republican duty that can devolve upon an American platform so far as the south is concerned is just this; "Vote our ticket, help keep us in office and everything you ask for shall be granted you. But so long as you stick t the democracy, just so long you are rebels, just so long shall you be down trodden, your rights denied you, your ballot boxes guarded John P. Stockton, Chairman, and others of by our bayonets. You shall and must be a part of this union, but you shall not have one word to say about how the union shall begoverned. Repent and we will give you all the spoils of office there are left after we get what we want. Stick to your presout allegiance, and we will keep our heels on your necks until the majority is so great against us that we dare no longer oppress you." That day is fast approaching.

Hon. William D. Kelly claims to be tariff man, and refused to vote for Mr. Gar field for Speaker of the House, because he was a Free Trader. Actions speaks louder than words, and Mr. Kelly can't make any sane man believe his tall. Is he honest in what he says, or was he honest in what he did? Come William, for once face the

The wise men who framed our Constitution knew the evils of a strong government and the long continuance of political power in the same hands. They knew there was a tendency lo this direction in all governments and consequent danger to republican institutions from that cause, and took pains to guard against it. The machinery of a strong centralized general government can be used to perpetuate the same set of men in power from term to term until it ceases to be a republic or is such only in name, and the tendency of the party now in power in that direction, as shown in various ways besides the willingness recently manifested by a large number of that party to elect a President an unlimited number of terms, is quite apparent and must satisfy thinking people that the time has come when it will be saf-

It has been the eastom to this county to permit candidates for Congress and State Senate to name their own conferces. For reasons that leave become manifest in recenyears, this practice ought to be changefority of the perpla. It was a grevious Congressional and Senatorial conferres are chosen by the convention and are supposed to be the representatives of the party. The are sent to the conference for the purpose of using all honorable means to secure the nomination of the man for whom they are instructed, and if this cannot be accomplished to nominate some other pe, on who will make a strong run. By permitting the candidate to name his own men the convention turns over to him the privilege of appointing thosewho will do nothing except what he directs, which often leads to profracted sesion, and makes bad feeling. The coming often poorly performed or not performed at convention should select its represultatives to conferences, and they should be men who will not only do all in their power to secure ment for collecting the votes of freemen. The conferees are the agents of the whole party, and not simply of the cand dates, and they should therefore feel at liberty to act for the best interests of the party.
