As the Committee of the State Legislature appointed to examine into the riot...

This paper supports T. J. Vanderville for the office of representative because he is the nominee of the Democratic party...

The Republicans will send you a little eight page pamphlet for nothing to any part of the United States...

Let the reader just imagine for a moment how all the European diplomats must squirm in their chairs of state when they peruse this passage...

Nothing is so conducive to a man's remaining a bachelor as stopping for one night at the house of a married friend and being kept awake for five or six hours by the crying of a cross baby...

These are changes of no little importance, as every one of them has a large following. The great Hancock boom is booming all along the line...

There is no use of drugging yourself to death, and buying all the medicines for fever and ague, bilious disorders, jaundice, dyspepsia, as well as all disorders and ailments of the liver, blood, and stomach...

The standard work, "The American Cyclopaedia," is exhaustive enough to include every name of note in the world's history...

Garfield reported the Deficiency bill on December 16, 1872, in the following usual form for one principle item.

In order to protect the United States in its expenditure of money, the committee have put the appropriation in this form:

"To enable the Secretary of the Interior to pay the expenditures made by the Board of Public Works of the District of Columbia for paving roadway and curbing and paving sidewalks, grading, sewerage, and other improvements upon and adjoining the property of the United States in the District of Columbia, $1,241,929.92, or so much as there may be necessary."

The original bill as prepared by General Garfield did not contain this proviso at all, nor any part of it. That came to be put in this way: The frauds that were subsequently proven were then suspected, and in order to guard the Treasury, the Hon. S. Marshall of Illinois, then a member of the committee, moved a proviso to the bill...

When the bill came before the House, it was resisted as appropriating money without law. Mr. Holman proposed three engines to measure the vote on the proviso...

It was not until after the election, I have said, that I don't feel disposed to take it back.

The election of State officers in Arkansas on Monday was carried by the Democrats by an overwhelming majority.

Mr. J. M. Fritz, who has been teaching at Astory, closed his school on Friday last, September 3d. He started on Saturday for Eston to begin his second year in college...

Mr. Peter England has been sick for a long time with consumption, and at present is in a fair way to recover.

Miss Alice Leitch has been sick five weeks with typhoid fever but is slowly mending.

Fishingers township has five Sabbath schools at present with a membership of about five hundred scholars. The Zion Union school is the largest, and is well conducted.

We have had a number of cases of diphtheria, but as yet only three deaths. Parents are getting ready to send. Some are sewing.

The National Democratic Committee are now prepared to supply a popular file of General Hancock, beautifully illustrated, written under the direction of the Committee, by Frank H. Norton, and published by Messrs. D. Appleton & Co. of New York...

To enable clubs to circulate 10 orders for not less than fifty copies will be supplied by the Committee, at the rate of five cents per copy. Sample copies, six cents. Remittances may be sent in money, post-office orders or postage stamps.

Mothers, don't fail to have Sine's Dyoner Compound on hand, for the relief of your little baby when attacked with any bowel complaint. It contains no morphia nor opium, yet its soothing effect will give the little sufferer so much relief, that he will at once fall into a quiet sleep, and give his mother an opportunity to rest, as well as every protracted sufferer of the house.

Though sinking like an Aspen Leaf, With the chills and fever, the victim of malaria may be cured by the use of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla...

EVERY SOLDIER discharged in line of duty by wound, disease, or injury, is entitled to pension. The pension law is now being drawn up...

PENNSYLVANIA STATE FAIR. A CORDIAL INVITATION IS EXTENDED BY STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER.

To their many Columbia county friends to make their establishment general headquarters during the continuance of the State Fair opening in this city, September 8th.

For the convenience of out-of-town patrons, pleasant Waiting and Toilet Rooms, and a Parcel Office, where packages may be left until called for, have been introduced.

While the Fair lasts we shall daily place on exhibition. NEW THINGS IN SILKS, VELVETS, SATINS, DRESS GOODS, BLACK GOODS, HOSE, AND HOSIERY.

Selected in Europe by our own buyers. The extensive additions made to our building during the past three months will be ready for inspection, so that taking all things together our establishment will probably be as interesting to lady sight-seers as the State Fair itself.

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER. Nos. 801, 803, 805, 807, 809, Market Street, Nos. 2, 4, 6 and 8, Eighth Street, No. 804 Filbert Street, PHILADELPHIA.
