Don't lose your temper on account of politics. Nothing can be made by it.

The Catawissa Hancock club meeting on Saturday night was addressed by John M. Clark and B. F. Zarr.

J. J. Brower is putting some improvements on his residence in the shape of a new roof and cornice, and a portico along the front.

Jacob L. Gorton brought a full blooded Arabian stallion in town on Wednesday evening. It is a beautiful horse.

Rev. L. Zahner will return from his vacation this week, and services will be resumed in St. Paul's church on Sunday next.

The Revere horse carriage has arrived. The company have just purchased handsome new uniforms, and they had a parade with their carriage on Tuesday night, headed by the band.

If the five words ordinance is wrong let it be repealed. So long as it stands as the law of the town it ought to be strictly enforced against offenders, of whatever party or condition it be.

Brown says he believes the democracy of this county are willing to elect the southern confederacy because they cheer Hancock. That is a fair sample of the loyalty, and gratitude the republican party are showing to one of the bravest Union Generals of the nation.

Early on last Friday morning, Joseph Hocker, landlord of the E. K. Hoyer, at the foot of the North Mountain, had two horses stolen. One of them being sick, gave out, and the other was hitched to Widow Dyer's back-hack, being closely pursued, and overtaken by day light, they abandoned their booty near Jones town, where they evidently expected to cross the Nob Mountain.

A large meeting of the Democracy was held in Briarcrest last Thursday night. Charles Campbell was elected Chairman, and Esnor Dietrick and Levi Shafer, Vice Presidents. Hing speech was made by Major Hanley, H. E. Smith, C. B. Jackson, Dr. H. L. Evans, Daniel McHenry and F. S. Hopton. The meeting was in the hall, and great enthusiasm. The Democracy were never better organized than now.

The Winona boys were out with their carriage on night last week, to practice making the attachment of the horse with the fire plug at the lower end of Market street. They accomplished it in a remarkably short space of time. On their way to the carriage house, they put on some speed, and got over the ground very rapidly. We are informed that some of the heavy weights left the rope just before the running began.

Do not fail to attend the Camp Fire commencing on Thursday morning at the Fair Grounds. Will be kept burning for three days, and the Bean Soup, Hot Tack, and other Army Attractions which can be had at the commissary's at a reasonable price, and those wishing such common fare as Oysters, Ice Cream, &c., can get them at the Sultok's Tent, if they have the cash or first-class credit. A large platform will be erected and presided over by an experienced dancing master and those wishing to cut the ring the light fantastic to the music of the regimental or other band.

This is not a personal campaign. It is the principles of the party and not of the man that should be discussed. So say republican orators. They tell us that the principles of the republican party are the principles of a party we agreed with them. Whatever a party becomes a party of its principles. The republican party has endorsed Garfield, and as his record as a politician and statesman was what led him to take him up, his nomination is an endorsement of his whole record, Credit Mobilier, De Golvery pavement, Cobden Free Trade Club, and all. Thus far republican speakers in this section have left Garfield and his record entirely alone. They dare not discuss him, and yet he is their own showing his record is included in the principles of that party. Will honest and intelligent American citizens support a man for the high office of President whose reputation as a public man is so bad that his party friends dare not discuss it?

Upon notice by the citizens of Lancaster township for a meeting on the evening of the 21st inst., to organize a Hancock and English club at Shalston, Wm. Erickson, H. E. Smith, T. J. Vanderdale, David Jones, Geo. W. Hoffmann and Sheriff Eft from Bloomsburg, were in attendance.

The meeting was organized by the following officers: President, Daniel Smith; Vice President, Joseph C. Smith; Secretary, Sam. Strasser; Treasurer, Samuel Adams; Conveying Committee, Rolandus Harbois, Monimus Yeager and Wellington Yeager. Speeches were made by H. E. Smith, Wm. Erickson and T. J. Vanderdale. About two hundred voters joined the club. The meeting adjourned with singing cheers for Hancock and English and a pledge that every Democratic voter of Lancaster township would be at the polls to vote for Hancock and English. The next meeting of the club to be on the evening of the 29th, and will be addressed by John C. Young, Esq., a number of Republicans here will vote for Hancock.

SPIRITS AT THE OPERA HOUSE. Last evening Prof. Cecil gave his marvelous entertainment in the opera house to a good audience. The following letter speaks for itself.

We the undersigned were present at the Academy of Music, Scranton, Pa., on Saturday evening, Monday evening, September 13th and 20th, 1880, and witnessed the "test" given by Prof. A. Cecil in his exposure of modern mediums. He performed most wonderful and mysterious feats, such as the medium declares to be done by the agency of the spirits, and then, before closing his exhibition, showed the audience how the most difficult of them were done, fully convincing us, and all wishing to be convinced that all the "manifestations" were given by human skill without any spirit whatever.

We believe his clear and faithful exposition of spiritualism, so called, will do good service in unconvincing any who may be under its delusions, and heartily commend him in the noble work he is doing for humanity.

Wm. Taylor, Missionary from India. Joseph E. Smith, Pastor Avenue M. E. Church. R. W. Lewis, late Pastor Cong. Church. R. W. Van Schoick, Pastor Hyde Park M. E. Church.

W. D. Thorp, Pastor Providence M. E. Church. Scranton, Pa., Sept. 21st, 1880.

We would advise all to see this entertainment to night as this is his last performance in Bloomsburg. All manifestations exposed to night.

Ernest Little, Esq., of Tunkhannock, was in town on Tuesday.

There will be a Democratic pole raising at Nonesuch on Saturday afternoon October 2nd, 1880. Good speakers will be present.

A large, nearly new, handsome, double-heating parlor stove, for sale cheap by Stuart Mitchell, corner Market and Lock streets.

The Winona Fire Company are under obligations to the Friendship for the use of horse kindly loaned until they can purchase a supply for themselves.

A Democratic Mass Meeting will be held in the grove near Waller's, in Jackson township on Saturday afternoon October 2nd. Let there be a full turnout. Good speakers will be present.

It seems that "dead ordinant" was alive last July, when a prominent republican threatened to have a police officer arrested for non performance of duty if he did not stop the boys from shooting fire crackers on the streets.

The Republican prints a dispatch sent from here by one of its friends to the Press, headed "Southern Tactics in Bloomsburg." Their own version of the case as stated elsewhere in their own paper shows that the Press dispatch wholly misrepresented the situation.

Those whose names have been placed on the registry sixty days before the election, and who have not paid their taxes, must do so on or before October 2nd. The list is in the hands of Reuben Harris, collector for the town, who will receive the taxes. Democrats, attend to the matter at once.

In his speech last Sunday night, C. Brown admitted that he did not believe the report when he heard it, that three cheers were given for the southern confederacy at a democratic meeting in this county. And yet he printed it in his paper. The increased democratic vote in this county this fall will show how much good such journalism has done the republican party.

We gladly call the attention of all who buy American shoes, to the advertisement of the American Shoe Tip Co., in another column. As a black tip that is a perfect protection to the toes of costly shoes, while adding to their life, it is of the first importance. Such the A. S. T. Co. Tip has proved to be.

The Greenback party held its Friday afternoon mass meeting in the Opera House on Saturday evening. The Republicans of last week stated that their club meeting would be addressed on Saturday evening, the speech of Hancock had been taken to the place. The Greenbackers therefore supposed they would have nothing to interfere with them. However, on Saturday afternoon the Republican leaders arranged for an open air meeting in the evening to "celebrate Maine," and the result was that less than one hundred people went to the Opera House, and the Greenback meeting was a failure. This interference was all right, according to the republican notion, but when a general number of Democrats gathered for Hancock in a public hearing of the republican speakers, the aspect was changed, and the cheering of the Greenbackers was denounced as a "copperhead" effort to break up a loyal meeting. It seems to make quite a difference which leg the boot is on.

CLUB MEETING. On Wednesday, the regular evening of the club meeting at Orangeville, the club assembled in its rooms, and after the preliminary business had been transacted, the club was addressed by John M. Clark, Esq., and John G. Freese, Esq.

After the first of October the club meetings will be held regularly and some people will be on hand each evening to address it. A good hall is greatly needed. Last night even, there were more persons than the room could contain.

THE NEWS FROM MAINE. Have you heard the news from Maine? Mister Brown, Mister Brown? Have you heard the news from Maine, Mr. Brown? O, people give a shout. And that's the news from Maine, Mister Brown.

Have you heard the news from Maine, Beckley Mine, Beckley Mine? Have you heard the news from Maine, Beckley Mine? So you're free and things, and your head and other things, Beckley Mine.

Are you going to paint? If so, send to the Mentor Paint Mills, Rupp, Pa., for your Pure Lead, Slate Colors, Pure Paints, &c., and save the wholesale and retail profit. You can get your own colors with pure linseed oil for 85 cents at $1.20 per gallon. sep. 10-3m

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE. WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to remove his well beloved to enter our midst and to be buried in the grave of his family at the residence of Mrs. E. A. Hutchison, also C. D., son of J. M. and M. J. Ammerman, two esteemed members of our Sabbath School, therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of these children our Sabbath school has lost two devoted and worthy members; their families a dear and loving child, brother and sister, while we deeply feel the loss of their pleasant associations and kindly greetings. Yet we lovingly commend their souls to the arms of Him who has thought it best to take them where they could enjoy more perfectly His goodness.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the bereaved families and can only say by way of condolence and consolation commend them to God who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be recorded in the records of the Sabbath school and published in the county papers and a copy be presented to each of the families of the deceased.

THE VOLTAIC BELT CO., MARSHALL, MICH. Will send their celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts to the afflicted upon 30 days trial. Speedy cures guaranteed. They mean what they say. Write to them without delay. Nov. 21-3t

The Hancock club held its regular meeting on Wednesday evening. Capt. Brockway made a speech and read the address of the club. The large display of rare cakes and beautiful trimmings was truly wonderful.

The artfully arranged and nicely illuminated little park together with the beautiful evening and first class music attracted an immense crowd. Notwithstanding the large assemblage of people, the utmost quiet and harmony prevailed throughout the evening.

The Catawissa Band was honored to the scene of festivities by the Easy Band and furnished elegant music during the entire evening. In appreciation of which they were presented with a large and handsome cake, bearing the letters R. C., which are the initials of Mr. Rutter Creveling who contributed it to the festival.

The hours were spent so pleasantly that schools of time seemed to revolve with renewed activity and brought in the closing hour before many realized its presence. At this juncture, by special request of the visiting band, the Easy Band played several pieces after which the crowd dispersed showing by their pleasant countenances that they had enjoyed themselves and remained the well wishers of the band by whom the festival was given.

The band extended their sincere thanks to Thomas Harbois for the use of the steamer "Catawissa" for the occasion of the Catawissa band from and to Catawissa.

LAST NOTICE. Persons knowing themselves to be indebted to the undersigned on bank account for job work and advertising will please settle before October 1st, 1880. The firm of Brockway & Freese was dissolved on October 1st, 1879, and since that time we have been sending out statements frequently with but little success. Many who are well able to pay have given no attention to them. Now, our books being on the first all accounts remaining unsettled on the first of October, 1880, will be placed in a judicial hands for collection. As we shall send a statement to all persons indebted to us, before that time, no one can complain that they had no notice. The above does not apply to balances due on subscription, though we shall be glad to have those settled also.

C. B. BROCKWAY, GEO. E. EMBELL, AUG 20-24

Rebecca Carman, of Benton, has just received a full assortment of Millinery, Notion Goods, Lining, Silks of every shade. All goods at old prices, to which she invites the attention of the public.

The assertion that there were 2,000 people on the street last Saturday night, while the republicans were making speeches is so ridiculously absurd to need denial. But we say that there were not 600 people present. This estimate was carefully made on the spot, at the time, as we expected the Republicans would claim an "immense crowd" as usual.

WINIFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK. In battle's front, they came thy only shield, We know thy hand and heart were true, And now again to thee our hearts we yield, For thou in peace, as war, must win the field, Winfield in war, and when the battle ceases, Winfield again in victor's place, Not getting glory when the shafts yield, But the whole Union is thy ample field.

JOHN G. FREESE.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. The meeting of the Republicans for the purpose of making nominations for county officers was held at the Opera House, last Monday afternoon. There were not over sixty persons present, delegates, operators and all. About two o'clock J. C. Brown requested all delegates to step into one of the little side rooms on the stage for caucus. What was done there we know not, but presume it was decided that no credentials should be called for, as no one had anything to show that he represented any district. At least no credentials were called for in the convention. In a few minutes they made their appearance from behind the scenes and J. C. Brown called the convention to order.

W. M. Monroe, of Montour township, was elected chairman. B. F. Crispin and Silas Conner were elected secretaries. The list of delegates were called and the following answered to their names: Benton—T. E. Schoyer, R. L. F. Colley, Berwick—R. E. Crispin, L. T. Thompson, Bloom East—U. C. Neal, I. Hagenbuch, Bloom West—W. M. Reber, O. T. Wilson, Berwick—Andrew Fowler, M. Hicks, Catawissa—E. B. Gair, Clinton Ellis, Centre—J. H. Alkorn, Centralia—James Dyer, Robert Jones, Fishing Creek—S. J. Pealer, W. E. Evelyn, Franklin—C. B. Seesholtz, Greenswood—Nehemiah Kitchen, Hemlock—Isaac Porsel, John Hartman, Locust—S. V. Meers, C. S. W. Fox, Milton—L. M. Kishner, W. M. Monroe, Orange—Silas Conner, John Calman, Pine—R. F. Whitmore, M. W. Moser.

A committee consisting of L. T. Thompson, Dr. Reber, John Condam, E. B. Gale and S. J. Pealer was appointed on resolutions.

G. A. Buckingham of Berwick, and Geo. W. Meers of Rupert, were nominated as candidates for the legislature, by acclamation, and so elected.

Home rule was unanimously nominated as a candidate for District Attorney.

Just at this time G. A. Buckingham stated that he withdrew his name as a candidate for the legislature. This seemed to upset things a little, but in a few moments they recovered and a vote being taken, it was decided that Mr. Buckingham be permitted to withdraw. This action was taken, as one army soldier, so the only soldier, E. B. Gale proposed that only one man be put in the field. He said there was no use of nominating a man who could not be elected, meaning Meers.

James Dyer proposed that the names of the two persons named be put up and voted for, the one receiving the highest number of votes should be the candidate. The chair stated that the nominations had already been made and he could not receive such a motion. The matter was reconsidered and they took a fresh start. S. C. Jayne, G. A. Buckingham and Geo. W. Meers were named, and the nominations closed. Geo. A. Buckingham was nominated, having received the highest number of votes. Mr. Buckingham made a few remarks in which he said that perhaps he might be elected, and if so, he would do his best to represent his party.

Meers was nominated for county officer, S. J. Pealer was nominated for county officer, W. M. Monroe, Clinton Ellis, R. F. Crispin and Silas Conner were chosen Senatorial conferees, S. J. Pealer, C. B. Seesholtz and Joshua Fetterman were chosen Senatorial conferees. J. C. Brown was elected chairman of the county committee. A county committee was chosen, each delegation naming a member for its district. The committee on resolutions could not receive such a motion. The matter was reconsidered and they took a fresh start. S. C. Jayne, G. A. Buckingham and Geo. W. Meers were named, and the nominations closed. Geo. A. Buckingham was nominated, having received the highest number of votes.
