"There has been nothing produced this winter in any theatre in the city of Bultimore, which so richly merits public approbation as the 'Strategists.' Of all the mirth provoking, side-splitting, farcical comedies ever written, this takes the lead. Last night the house was packed, jammed from pit to dome with a fashonable andience. Scarcely had the curtain rose when laughter broke forth loud and full, rising as the play went on to a roar, a tempest and culminating in one grand peal, one mighty effort of the chunder of human throats as the curtain went down on the last act that shook the noble edifice from turret to foundation stone. This very act stamps the 'Strategists' as one of the best comedies of the day .- Baltimore Herald.
