

The Columbian.

Friday, Dec. 10, 1880.

They talk of making Senator Wallace a railroad president upon retiring from his present position.

Between the Landlords and the Land League the poor tenants are hopelessly at loss what to do.

Garfield is reported to be in poor health. If his illness be attributed to any one thing it should be to the annoyance he is subjected to by being daily visited by delegations.

It is reported that Garfield's last visit to Washington was for the purpose of raising money to save his home in Mentor from sale.

Garfield and Cameron both seem to have put pretty good bridles on their tongues. Garfield will not disclose his intentions as regard cabinet appointments.

Joe Scranton's organ comes out in a double headed and states that the members from Lackawanna county dare not go back on Chairman A. G. Grow for the U. S. Senatorship.

HAYES MESSAGE.

The last annual message of Mr. Hayes is now before the public. It is too lengthy to give in full to our readers.

His message is full of misstatements. In referring to the recent election he speaks of the power of the "House of Representatives and the Senate."

In regard to the assessments made upon office holders in order to buy up votes at elections—which was carried out to so great an extent but recently—and in many cases made so public, he says: "While I recommend such legislation as, while leaving express office as free as any other citizen to express his political opinions and to use his means for their advancement, shall also enable him to feel as safe as any private citizen in refusing all demands upon his salary for political purposes."

His civil service reform is again prominent in his former messages, and he recommends that "Fixed rules be adopted for the regulation of appointments, promotions and removals, establishing a uniform method, leaving exclusively in view, in every instance, the attainment of the best qualifications for the position in question."

Woman Against Woman.

DOMESTIC LIFE AMONG THE MORMONS—A HOUSE DIVIDED AGAINST ITSELF. The first marriage in a Mormon family is attended by the same manifestation of affection as in other communities.

Speaking of polygamy, he says: "I recommend that Congress provide for the government of Utah by a governor and judges, or by commission, appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate."

A great amount of space is devoted to making mention of the existing treaties with other nations and provinces. As a reward for the "services of the Commander-in-chief of our armies during the war" he recommends "An Act of Congress, authorizing the appointment of a Captain-general of the army with suitable provisions relating to compensation, retirement, and other details."

With this last message Hayes will end his career, and the memory of how he attained the position, and its results, be handed down to generations.

The N. Y. Sun thinks that the Democracy made a great mistake in not insisting on the nomination of Tilden and Hendricks. It says that they dropped their great and winning issue.

The proposition to elect Gen. Grant United States Senator for this State does not seem to meet with the approval of the organs.

The Knoxville Tribune, Democrat, undertakes to explain how it was that Tennessee elected a Republican Governor last month. It says: "Tennessee has felt that the sacred obligation of discharging her private debts surmounts all other measures, and for that reason notably accepted the shame of Republicanism for a season rather than endure the eternal stigma of dishonesty."

The "Democratic House has been profligate" in restoring confidence to the people. In last issue we showed why confidence had been restored. Let all read carefully the article. Again we repeat that the expenses of the government, in proportion to the amount of work done, has been lightened, and we quote the figures given in the last annual message.

Congress meets to-day. As the people at the late election approved Credit Mobilizer bills, and De Golyer's resolution, it will not be surprising if the lobby, which for four years has been banished from the federal capitol, will re-appear full-armed for a new assault on the treasury.

Senator Beck, if he is from the "Solid South," gives some good advice that, if followed, would inevitably lead to results calculated to benefit the country at large.

Good, Sound Advice.

General Garfield has the reputation, and we believe justly, of being a student of our politics and of our history. There can be no doubt that he understands the theory of our government and of the constitution better than any man who has set in the executive chair since Lincoln and Buchanan, and we confess that we are surprised and amazed that in the first public utterance he has made since the official declaration of his election was promulgated he should, parrot-like, but if the old-fashioned, repeat the same old platitudes about the home and the honesty and the virtues of politicians.

Presidential Pitfalls.

The President-elect, in a speech which was reported in The Times a few days ago, without meaning it, called attention in a very forcible way to the dangers that surrounded the Presidential electoral system.

There are a few cities in the United States or the Canada, which have not several well known residents, who have been materially benefited by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

There is an idle prevalent that railroad engineers are careless and hard-hearted. While we do not desire to approve of any law of life or uphold all the actions of these men, yet we do know that some have the highest regard for human life, and are ever on the alert for those who may be upon the track.

The new street coaches in Philadelphia, after a week's trial, are proving a success. They go full all the while, more comfortable than cars or stages, each passenger is sure of a seat, and the routes are so varied by the use of the "T" and "M" routes that they will be used by the masses.

The temperance lecture of S. N. Walker, of our town, in the Methodist church on Monday evening, was as able and profound a discourse as we have had the pleasure of listening to for a long time.

We have much pleasure in recommending Thermanine to our readers, as an absolute cure for Malaria.

STILL WINNING PHASE.

MME. RENTZ'S MINSTRELS.

Certainly as good an evening's entertainment as we have seen in this city for some time was given at the Academy last evening by Mme. Rentz's Minstrels.

The medical student of Maine must dissect before he can become an M. D. but the law provides that no bodies shall be dissected except those of executed criminals, and another law abolishes capital punishment.

Mr. George West of Easton, who caught the large six pound and a quarter black bass in the Delaware at Sand's Eddy, has been awarded the Aquid and Abot prize of a fisherman's outfit.

The Thanksgiving proclamation of Governor Thayer, of Oregon, comprised only a dozen lines, counting date, signatures and all else.
