A very pleasant affair was the Bible party given on Thursday night of last week to Mr. Charles H. H. and wife, by their friends and connections. An excellent time was had by all present, and all in honor and celebration of the large number of women who did it.

Wall Paper, Window Curtains and Pictures, and Cornice, at G. A. Clark's. If your girl asks you the size shoe you wear, be sure and tell her the right number, as it would be very troublesome to get a pair of number 6 Christmas slippers on a number 9 foot.

Bibles, Hymnals and Prayer Books at G. A. Clark's. Re-entire those in attendance at the prize contest at the skating rink on Saturday evening were either prejudiced or else incompetent judges of four stanzas. One of our officers, who participated, and his admirable content, magnificent form, and graceful figure, not to speak of the great number of gratulations and artistic movements he executed, failed to procure him one solitary vote. He concludes himself, however, with the idea that perhaps the audience took him for the professor. But look out for him next time. He has purchased a pair of scientific rollers for his own use and will undoubtedly astonish everyone.
