He has plans and objects beyond those which he has yet unfolded; but he has no objection to enter fully into a discussion of the merits of his case. It is noticeable that he is ready to catch up quickly and assimilate to his purposes any fact, idea or phrase that may be casually dropped in conversation or mention in newspapers.

Prejudice Kills,

'Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best(and some of the worst) physicsans, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now she is restored to us in gold health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had poohed at for two years, before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters.'—The Parents.— Telegram.
