A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

E. H. & R. R. LITTLE, Attorneys, Jan. 21-6w

RIDGE LETTING.

Commissioners' Office, 6 Bloomsburg, Pa., Jan. 31 Attest: J. B. Casey, Clerk.

nicely furnished. There is also a

DIRE INSURANCE.

Brass C stings.

The riginal Montrose, fron beam, right hand left hand, and side hill Plows, the best in the mark-

Cook Stoves, Room Stoves, and Stoves for heating stores, chool houses, churches, &c. Also the largest stock of repairs for city stoves, wholesale and

&c. &c., Stove Pipe, Cook Botlers, Skillits, Cake

Plates, large Iron Kettles, (20 gallons to 1); barrel

"Allentown Bone Manure"

C. E. SAVAGE

Silverware. Watches. Jewelry. Clocks &c

ELGIN WATCHES

All kinds of Watches, Clocks and Jewelry hear

M. C. SLOAN & BRO.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

PLATFORM WAGONS, &c.

retail, such as Fire Brick Grates, Cross Pieces, Lids et, and all kinds of plow repairs.

Parm Bells, Slod Soles, Wagon Boxes,

PLASTER, SALT, &c., &c.

jan 9, '80-13'

ESTATE OF SARAH ROBINHOOD, DECKARED.

RETAIN OF GARAII ROBINHOOD, DECKARED.

Letters of Administration on the estate of Sarah Robinhood, late of Millio township Columbia county, Pennsylvania, deceased, have been gravited by the Register of said county to L. S. Wintersteen, of Bloomsburg, admir. All persons having claims against the estate of said decedent are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to the estate to make pas ment to the undersigned Administrator, without delay.

RSTATE OF MARY P. KARNS, DECEMBED.

Letters of administration on the catate of Mary P.
Karns late of tenton township, Columbia county, secrased, have been granted by the Register of said county to the undersigned aministrator. All persons having claims against the e-tate of said decedent are requested to present them for set is most and those indebted to the estate to make payment to the undersigned administrator without delay.

E. H. & R. R. LITTLE. Administrator.

ESTATE OF JOHN J. LONGENBERGER, DECEASED.

Letters of Administration on the estate of John J. Longenberger, late of the fownship of Minlin, Columbia county, Penna, deceased, have been granted by the segister of said county to John J. Longenberger, of some township. All persons having claims against the restate of the decedent are requested to presen them for settlement, and those indebted to the estate to make payment to the undersigned administrator without delay.

2. W. MILLER Atty. Administrator without delay, Jan 7, '81-6w,

Will be at Biram Bess ir. Benton on Saturday the 12th 6a of February, 1881, at 11 octock a. B. A bridge to be erected over Westersek in Sugarloaf, near John R. Coles. To be a wooden brace covered bridge, 3s feet long, 1s feet * ide. Abutments to be built by contractor so as to admit of skewback 3 feet from top of wall plate.

Flaus and specifications can be seen at commissioners office.

DWELLING HOUSE FOR SALE

TWO STORY BRICK BUILDING.

STABLE AND OUT-BUILDINGS.

The property will be sold on easy terms. Pos ess-ess on given april 1-1 381. For particulars inquire of J. 4. Matte Esq., Bloomsburg, Pa., or Hiram Recce Buckborn, nov. 26, 80-3m

A Farm in Montour County

Will be sold or exchanged for a

STORE PROPERTY OR DWELLING

G, P, REIGH ARD.

L. S. WINTERSTEEN, Administrator, Bloomsburg, Pa.

RETATE OF PACORS, EVANS DECRAPED,

The Columbian.

my mind that there's considerable comfort for every one in this world, after all

We mayn't git just what we want, but

In which piece of philosophy I believe

Personal-Mr. Isasc B. Hasbuck of Skan tric Oil is the only medicine that would ev-er take effect; one dollars' worth of it has entirely cured me. I have used it for several

PRESERVING THE BALANCE, -Old Care

tain Stanley, who lives down in the mid-grand gathering, one of whom said:

What are you going to do?

allon of first-rate whiskey:

zine sor February.

keep a supply on band.

From the Pall Mall Gazette.

Detroit, Mich .- Free Press.

ED FOR COAL.

pressed for enough coal to keep their fires going. This fuel famine came about in this way. It has been the custom with many of the families of the town to combine clubs of four or five, and order enough coal from the mines to be sufficient for their use during the winter. The remaining people of the town were supplied by the local dealers.

ilways before been a sufficient amount.

The unusually severe weather however necessitated a greater consumption of fuel than in previous years and some for their regular customers and in :

short time their bins were empty. The

I am cured of catarrh and deafness, and after giving Ety's Cream Balm a thorough fully convinced it will please in every case. Vanriper & Co., druggists, Passaic N. J.

The newest evening glove is made to neet the sleeves, no matter what the length may be. Some of them reach to CLERGYMEN, Bankers, Book-keepers, Editors, and others that lead sedentary lives, will find much relief from the frequent eadaches, nervousness and constipation en-

The Amended Bible,

we git somethin.

Nabby was about right.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. COLUMBIAN BUILDING, Bloomsburg, Pa. Member of the United States Law Association. Collections made in any part of America or Europe. Oct. 1, 1979

E. WALLER, Attorney-at-Law. Office, Second door from 1st National Bank, BLOOMSBURG PA. 16.0 11, 1979 N U. FUNK.

Attorney-at-Law, BLOOMSBURG, PA. Office in Ent's Burnning. C. B & W. J. BUCKALEW,

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Bloomsture, Pa. Office on Maly Street, first door below Court Rous JOHN M CLARK, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

Bloomsburg, Pa.
Office over Schuyler's Hardware Store. F. P. BILLMEYER, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

OFFICE-In Harman's Building, Main street, Bloomsburg, Pa. E. H. A.R. R. LITTLE, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Bloomsburg, Fa.

C. W MILLER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW Office in Brower's building, second floor, room Bloomsburg, Pa.

B. FRANK ZARR. Attorney-at-I aw. BLOOMSBURG. PA. Office corner of Centre and Main Streets. Clark's Can be consulted in German.

Jan. 10, '80-tf (PEO. E. ELWELL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

COLUMBIAN BUILDING, Bloomsburg, Pa. Member of the United States Law Associatio Collections made in any part of America or Eur oct. 1, 1879. L. S. WISTURSTERS.

KNORR & WINTERSTEEN. Attorneys-at-Law. Office in Wartman's Block, Corner Main and Ma ket streets, Bloomsburg, Pa.

Pensions and Bounties Collected

DAUL E. WIRT. Attorney-at-Law. Office in Brower's Block, one door below Columbian BLOOMSBURG, PA.

july 16, '80 tf GUY JACOBY, Attorney at Law,

Omes in the Columbian Building, second floor, Oct. 8, '80,

BLOOMSBURG DIRECTORY. PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

BUCKINGHAM, Attorney-at-Law. Of since, fl. J. Clark's Bullding, 2d story room 5 may 7, 99-t f

C. G. BARKLEY, Attorney-at-Law, Office

J. B. ROBISON, Attorney-at-Law. Office to Hartman's building, Main street. D R. WM. M. REBER, Surgeon and Physician. Office Market Breet, Near depot.

R. EVANS, M. D., Surgeon and Physical Confee and Residence on Third street

J. B. McKELVY, M. D., Surgeon and Physician, north side Main street, below Marke

DR. J. C. RUTTER, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Omce, North Market street, Oct. 1, 79. DR. I. L. RABB, PRACTICAL DENTIST, Main Street, opposite Episcopal Church, Blooms Teeth extracted without pain.

Oct. 1 1879

WILMOT CONNER M. D., PHYSI-to the Diseases and Depens of the Eys Eas Theory and Successful it is various branches.

(7-8 p. m. Wilkesbarre, Par

TAMES REILLY, Tonsorial Artist, is again at his old stand under EXCHANGE HO-TEL, and has as usual a FIRST-CLASS BARBER SHOP. He respectfully soli-its the patronange of his oldcustomer and of the public generally, july 16, '86-tf

W. H. HOUSE, DENTIST.

BLOOMSBURG, COL. CO. PA All styles of work done in a superior manner, work warranted as represented Trists Extractkn without Park by the use of Gas, and free of charge when artificial teeth are inserted.
Office Corner Main and Iron Streets.

To be open at all hours during the day. MISCELLANEOUS

M. DRINKER, GUN and LOCKSMITH sewing Machines and Machinery of all kinds re AVID LOWENBERG, Merchant Tailor Main St., above Central Hotel. I. S. KUHN, dealer in Meat, Tallow, etc.

AUGUSTUS FREUND, Practical homeo pathic floree and Cow Doctor, Bloomsburg, Pa feb. 14, '79-4f

CATAWISSA.

WM. L. EYERLY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

Collections promptly made and remitted. Offic poposite Catawissa Deposit Bank. 6m-38 W H. RHAWN, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Catawissa, Pa. Office, corner of Third and Main Streets.

B. F. HARTMAN SPRESENTS THE POLLOWING

AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANIES: A SERICAN INSURANTANIA.

1 Seeming of Muncy Pennsylvania.

Sorth American of Ph. selephia, Pa Franklin, of Fr Carriages, Buggies, Phaetons, Sleighs, anhattan of "Office on Market Street No. 4, Bloomsburg, Pa.

WILL IT CURE ME? Letters of Administration on the estate of Jacob S. Evans, into of Floomsburg Columbia county Padecessed, have been granted by the Register of said county to G. A. Herring, of Hoomsburg, admir All persons having claims against the estate of said decedent are requested to present them it make payment to the undersigned administrator, without delay.

said a man whose wastegone countenance and broken dawn constitution showed traces of disease —a sufferer with Nervous Dyspepsia, in whose stem-ach the most delicate morsel by like lead. Refreshing sleep and quiet nerves were strangers to him and he despaired of ever being well. We advise which he did, and in a short time was not only re Reader; if you are suffering with Dyspepsia or Liv has taken a fast hold upon you, but use the Regula tor when the symptoms first show themselves. It has relieved untold suffering, SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR is not an alchosolic stimulant, but a

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

> ASK the recovered dyspepties, billious sufferers, victim of fever and ague, the mercurial diseased partent how the, recovered their health, cheerful spirits and good appetite-they will tell you by ta-King Simmons' Liver Regulator.
> ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR

SIMMONS' Liver Regulator Original and genuine, prepared only by J. H. ZEILIN & CO.,
PHILADELPHIA. Price $1.00. Sold by all Druggists. April 16, '80-13.

HARKER'S GINGER TONIC. FACTS WORTH KNOWING. Ginger, Buchu, Maudrake, Sillingia and many other of the best medicines known are so skillfully combined in Panker's Gingen Toxic, as to make it the greatest Blood Purifier and The Best Health and Strength Restorer Ever Used.

So perfect is the composition of Panker's Grouns Toxic that no discuss can long exist where it is used. If you have Dyspepsia, Headsche, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bowel, Kidney or Liver Disorder, or if you need a mild stimulant, or appetizer, the Toxic is just the medicine for you, as it is highly curative and invitorating but never intoxicating.

If you are slowly wasting away with Consumption or any sichness, if you have a Painful Cough or a bad Cold, Painter's Green Toxic will surely help you. It gives now life and vigor to the feeble and aged, and is a certain cure for Rheumatism and Cholera infeature.

will Always Restore Gray or Faded Hair prevent baldness.

A few applications of the Balsam will soften the hair, cleanse all dandruff and cure tiching and humans of the scalp. Sold by all druggists at only 50 cfs.

by the understance. The said farm is on the road from Pottsgrove to Washingtonville, in Liberty township, about 25 miles from Pottsgrove, and contains 111 ACRES. A GOOD FRAME DWELLING HOUSE Barn and outbuildings on the premises. Not par-ticular where property exchanged for is located. In

Reasonable and Easy Terms will be Given Address H. L. STAFLES & CO., Richmond, Va. PUBLIC SALE

CHRISTIAN P, KNAPP, BLOOMSBURG, PA. OF WILLIAM G. QUICK, DECRASED. RITISH AMERICA ASSURANCE COMPANY. ERMAN FIREINSURANCE COMPANY. offer at public sale, the following real estate, late These old componenties are well seasoned by ag ind fire treates and have never yet had a loss set led by any court of law. Their assets are all invest d in soils securities and are liable to the basar

ract of land situate in said Montour township, Co-umbia county, bounded and described as follows: of First only.

Losses Fromptly and Honestly adjusted and paid as soon as determined by Chaistian F. Knapt, spread. Adams and Adjusted Bloomistree, PA.

The people of Columbia County should patronize the agency where losses if any are settled and paid by one of their own citizens.

PHOMPTNESS, RQUITY PAIR DEALING leginning at a black oak and running thence by and of Lioyd Paxton, date Joseph Paxton) north dxty degrees ensistivty-four perches to a stone, hence north nineteen degrees west twenty-six serches to a red oak, thence north fitty-four defrees east forty-six perches and seven-tenths to dg Fishingereek, thence up the same north thirtyive degrees west thirty-one perches to a stone hence by land of Muria Evans, date Peter Apple an) south sixty-four degrees west one hundred and twenty perches to a pine stump and thence by land of John Mensch, (late John Bichards) south hirty-six degrees east fifty perches to the place of beginning, containing THIRTY-TWO ACRES and one hundred and four perches, strict measure, be $10 cutfit furnished free, with full instructions for conducting the most profitable business that any one can engage in. The business is easy to lears, aed our instructions are so simple and plain, that any one can make great profits from the very start. No one can fall who is willing to work. Women are as successful as men, coys and girls can earn large sums. Many have made at the business over one hundred dollars in a single week. Nothing like it over known before. All who engage are surprised at the ease and rapidity with which they are able to make money. You can engage in this business during your spare time at gr at profit. You do not have to invest capital in it. We take all the risk. Those who need ready money, should write to us at once. All B. F. SHARPLESS. Lowest Prices-will not be undersold. Manufacturer of MINE CAR WHEELS, Coal Break er and Bridge Castings, Water Pipes, Stoves, Tinware, Plows, IRON PENCE, and all kinds of iron and good fruit, and other fruit trees.

No. 2. Two certain loss situate in the village of

On this property there are a good two story dwell-ag house with out-buildings and a stable, also a BLACK SMITH SHOP. by a street forty feet wille and on the east by th rom the first day of April 1881.

TERMS OF SALE OF NO. 2 AND NO. 3.—The same as whole amount of the purchase money.

Po session will be given on the first day of April set if the terms of sale shall have then been con-

CALLING CARDS

Poetical.

Purely Vegetable Remedy that will cure when everything class fails. It is a faultiess family medicine. Does not disarrange to system. Is no violent dessite purge, but nature's wn remedy. The friend of everyone, and will not lisappoint you. A single trial will convince you heapest, purest and best Family Mer cine in the world.

cure for Rheumatism and Cholera Infantum, 18 Has Saved Hundreds of Lives; It May Save Yours.
If you are feeling miserable don't wait until you are down sick, but use the Toxic to-day.
No matter what your disease or symptoms may be it will give prompt relief.
Remember I Pankra's Greats Toxic is not a rum drink but the Best and Purest Family Medicine ever made, compounded by a new process, and entirely different from Esters, ginger preparations and all other Tonics. Try a 50c. bottle. Your druggist can supply you.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM The Best and Host Economical Hair Dressing enquisitely performed and perfectly harmless. te its original youthful color and appearance, and is warranted to stop its falling, assist its growth and

Write for "Real Estate Review," free

OF VALUABLE

REAL ESTATE! The undersigned, Attorneys in Fact, of the heirs of William G. Quick, ate or the township of Monour, in the County of Columbia, Pennsylvania, will me same more or less.

This is the late resid nee or HOMESTRAD OF

THE DROEASED, about two miles from the town of Bloomsburg and about one haif a mile from the vil-inge of Rupert, a prominent station of both the Lackawanna & Bloomsburg airroad and the Cata-wissa and Williams, out division of the Philadelphia A Reading railroad, at their connection. It is one of the most beautiful and fertile pieces of land in the salley about Bicomsburg and is in exclient tarning condition, all cleared, it has good build-ings , consisting of a large two-story frame DWELLings (consisting of a large two-story frame by action and cattle shed, a good carriage house, a work shop and a small tenant house. There is a strong and never failing mail stream of good water flowing through the tract reenwood township and marked and numbered in he general plan of said town by the numbers nine

No. 3. All that certain lot of ground situate in the town of Rupert, in Montour township, said Co-umbia county, bounded on the north by land of Lloyd Paxton, on the west by same, on the south lock in the afternoon at the premises.

No. , and No. 3, on Saturday Pebruary 25, 1881, be-tinning with No. 1 on the Premises, at ten o'clock ourth of the purchase mency to be paid at the striking down of the property, the one-fourth less nterest tro a the first day of April 1881 payable an-anally to the said widow and at her death the prin-

LATEST STYLES OF

At the 'COLUMBIAN OFFICE.

BLOW. YE WESTERN BREEZES. Blow, ye western breezes

Across the smiling asa, And whisper to my darling : "I haste, my love, to thee, To bear thee far across the main

To bloom alone for me. And thou, sweet golden sunbeam. So bright and purely fair. Shine thou upon her softly.

With lastre brighter than the gen Of monarchs rich and rare. And shine, with softened splender Upon her blushing eneck, Until, with maiden shyness, Her lips my name doth speak: Then mark her trembling heart throt And downcast eyes so meek.

And tint her ebon pair

Then haste and tell me, sunbeam If still she sighs to greet My bark upon the billow, And if her restless test

Select Story.

NABBY'S HUSBAND. A knock at the Squire's door. An eager 'come in' from the Squire, to whom an outside diversion is an inestimable boon, he having just reached that uncomfortable stage of masculine con-valescence when life becomes a burden not only to the so-called 'patient' himself but also to those unlucky feminine relatives whose duty it is to officiate as his unistering angels. Mary, the servant, came in. Please, Mr. Hosley, there's a woman own stairs, who says she must see you. he's been here before since you were sick, and now she won't take 'no' for an mswer. Show her right up, Mary, said the afar off. Not all the cozy comforts of of his easy chair, the pleasant pictures on the wall, the wood fire, which, now tive nature was not proof against the dethat the winter twilight was sitting down pressing influence of the chilly Novemover the bit of gray sky left visible by the curtain's heavy folds, danced and the bare tree branches, which creaked flashed all over the room in rosy and grouned mournfully and waved shadows, could not reconcile the Squire wildly up and down in the dim light to his enforced seclasion. Secretely he pined for his dingy old den of an office, a special spite against poor Nabby. It and chafed at the doctor's restrictions, blew her bonnet off and her hair into which as yet forbade all thought of her eyes, savaged madly with her for business. But now the moral police her shawl, took her breath away and force, represented by his wife and daughter, being luckily off duty, there was nothing beginning to send spiteful cold rain drops ng to prevent this probable client. Show her up, Mary, said the Squire, freeze as it fell. heerfully straightening himself, and as cown and slippers permitted.

quire, is it you? How do you do! Yes, Squire, it's me, said Nabby, bropping down with a heavy sigh into chair, 'and I don't do very well.'

Nabby was a short squarely-built womun of 50, with considerably gray in the coarse black hair drawn stiffly and uncompromisingly back under a bonnet about fifty years out of date. She had sharp, black eyes and a resolute, goahead manner. Evidently a hard working woman; yet in looking at her you could not help the conviction that something more than hard work had ploughed the deep wrinkles which ran across her forehead and threatened to lift her eyebrows up to her hair. Nabby had lived with the Squire's mother fifty years -from the time when Mrs. Hosley took her in, a 10 year old orphan, who was, as the good old lady expressed it, more plague than profit, until she grew into the steady reliable hand-maiden, who the steady reliable hand-maiden, who about going at night into a dark and finally, with everyone's good wishes, shut-up house. Even people of the best married young Josiah Gould and set up in the world for herself. Old Mrs. Hosley picion of something behind them, a sense had long since gone to her reward, but the family still kept up a friendly in-terest in Nabby and her fortunes, the Squire in particular being for her guide, philosopher and friend in all the emergencies of life. 'Why, what's the matter now, Nabby?

said the Squire, good-naturedly. 'Aryou sick?" 'Yes, I am,' said Nabby, emphatically, to death of Joshia.h I can't stan' it any longer, and I've come to talk with you about gettin a divorce. You see he's been a growin worse and worse and been heard muttering out in the woodworse, now for a good while. I've kep' ashamed on't, and then I kep hopin terance I suspect she was thinking what he'd do better. I've talked and talked a good supply of kindlings Josiah always to him, and said and done everything a kept on hand for her, and how much woman could, but it seemed as if the more I talked the worse he grew.' The Squire looked at Nabby's rather sharp, hard face, and perhaps was hardly so surprised as Nabby expected, that Josiah had not been reformed by the vigirous 'talking to' he had undoubtedly

'He grew more shiftless and good for nothing, continued Nabby, till finally he didn't do much but set around the kitch-en fire, half boozy. If there's anybody I hate, burst out Nabby, it's a man for ever sittin round the house under foot. test in width along said public road leading to Bloomsburg and one hundred and ten teet in length along said street.

And there I was a takin' in washin' and a slaving early and late to be kinder decent and forehanded, and him no better than a dead man on my hands, so far as grove on Thursday, Peturaers with 181, at two o'. helping any was concerned. And so I told him time and again. He worked yet, it is true: but with a good trade just enough to keep himself in drink. He knew he couldn't get any of my money for that. But I stood it all till about a fortnight ago. I'd been workn' hard all day helpin' Miss Barber clean third of the purchase money less one thousand dot-house, and it seemed as if every bone in are shall be secured by bond and mortgage for the my body ached, I was so fired. I came house, and it seemed as if every bone in se of the widow of deceased during her lite, with along home thinking how good my cup charmon to the heirs of the said deceased, and the remainder shall be secured by bonds and mortgage old Hank Salter settin there in my payable on the first day of April 1882, with interest rockin chair. He and Josiah were both drunk as hogs, said Nabby, slandering an innocent animal in her haste for a

Git out of this house, Josiah Gould, and don't ever let me see your face inside on't again. Sez he, meek as Moses: 'Where shall is purchaser.

It Gir D. OHICK.) Attays in fact. I go Nabby?

Sez I; I don't care where you go to, so

The along's you don't come near me. Tye always been a respectable woman, and don't want none of Hank Salter's friends fround my house. Well, queried the Squire, as Nabby's narrative came to a pause.

'Well,' said Nabby, in rather a subdued tone, 'he went off, and he hasn't ome back, and I want a divorce." 'Now, Nabla,' remonstrated the old hard. But you know you took him for self, it is quite right to break your conhard and bitter. tract because it proves the worse for you because you are the strong one and he ourselves you know." ·Well, I dunno, said Nancy, twisting the corner of her shawl, dubiously. I window pane, and the wind howled the hadn't thought on't in that light, I must and wailed around the house like the corner of her shawl, dubiously. It's so aggravatin' to have such a man for a husband. Besides, I dunno's he'd come back it I wanted him to."

'Hasn't be been back at all?'

'Now, Nabby, you may depend upor t, it wasn't the pantaloons he was after. He wanted to see if you wouldn't relent If he comes again be a little pleasant to him, and I'll warrant he will stay. Give him another chance, Nabby Josiah to, listening to the moaning of the wind isn't the worst fellow in the world by the creaking of the blinds, the loud tickany means. He has his redeeming traits after all. I believe he will do better if yon will try to help him. You know Nabby. "A pretty Thanksgiving I losiah is one that bears encouragement, shall have . Nabby.

Well, Squire I'll think it over. Any how, I'm obliged to you. You talk soso sorter comfortin to abody. Your mother's own son; just the same good heart. Would you be able to eat some of my cheese Squire?

'Try me and see, Nabby,' said the Squire smiling, not impervious to Nabby's compliments. Nabby made her exit just as Mrs. Hosley rushed in, full of wifely indignation that the Squire had been allowed to see a 'client.' Nabby's home was over at the 'Corsquire, alertly, brightening up visibly, ners, three miles from the village. She ike the war horse who scents the battle walked rapidly along in the fast thickning darkness, with the steady, strong that she was. Yet even her unimaginain her face-rain that seemed almost to Josiah used to come after me with an uming as much legal dignity as dressing umbrella when I was caught out in the his life, even when he'd been drinking."

> piercing wind pounced down upon Nabwith renewed fierceness, hustling her madly in fiendish glee.
> 'An awful night to be homeless, Nabby, something seemed to say.' I don't care, said Nabby to herself. beginning to feel cross again, and gencrally ill-used as she grew wetter and older. It serves him right. He's made his bed and can lie in it. At the 'Corners,' light streaming out cheerfully into the night from other iomes, made Nabby's house particularly gloomy and uninviting. Nabby fumbled under the mat for the door key, fumbled with stiffening fingers for the keyhole and finally succeeded in unlocking the door, and felt her way through the little entry.

There is always something 'uncanny' regulated minds experience a vague susd possible ghostly hands about to clutch hem in the darkness. Nabby was a woman, like Mrs. Edmund Sparkler, with 'no nonsence about her, but,nevertheless a cheerful tale she had read only yester day in the Chronicle, about a burgular and a lone woman, kepta-oming into her head, and she carefully avoided the blackness of the corners and the pantry door, as she grouped around the kitchen with a snap of her black eyes. Tm sick for a candle. Of course the fire had gone 'Two heads are better than one,if one worse, now for a good while. I've kep house, as she stooped painfully down it to myself pretty much, because I was picking up chips; by which oracular ut more comfortable it was in the old times coming home to a house bright with light and warmth, and Josiah's wel For Josiah cherished the most pro found admiration for Nabby-an admiration unmingled with awe. He thought her a most wonderful moman. She was just as beautiful to him now as in the old courting days before the brightness and quickness of the black eyes had de generated into sharpness; before the smiling mouth had acquired its hard, tirmly set expression, there were any wrinkles in the smooth torchead. People thought Nabby had done well in marrying Josiah Gould—a pleasant, good-natured young fellow that every one liked; a young mechanic not very rich and such a wife as Nabby there seemed nothing to prevent his figuring as 'one of our first citizens." Anybody can be somebody in this country if he is only determined. But that was exactly the difference with Josiah. He never was determined about anything. He fell into the habit of drinking because he lacked sufficient strength of will to avoid it. Then Nab by's sharp word, and his own miserable sense of meanness and self-contempt, of utter discouragement and despair drove him lower and lower, and he sauk down supinely into the slough of despond without effort or hope.

By a beautiful dispensation of Provifornothing man is sent into our world, some active, go-ahead little woman is invariably fastened to him to tow him back?" along through, and keep his head above water. It's for the best, of course. water. It's for the best, of course. What would become of the poor fellow sometimes finds it a little hard.

Nabby was ambitious and proud spirited, willing to work bard, to save, o do her part-anxious to get on in the world and stand well among the neigh-Now, Nabby, remonstrated the old Squire, you don't want a divorce. I in her husband she had no help, no supthe woman to give Josiah up, and let finally a disgrace, had been a disappoint where woman to give Josiah up, and let finally a disgrace, had been a disappoint where woman to give Josiah up, and let finally a disgrace, had been a disappoint where woman to give Josiah up, and let finally a disgrace, had been a disappoint where woman to give Josiah up, and let finally a disgrace, had been a disappoint where we get to take em just as they are, and make the best on they are they are, and make the best on they are they ar him go to the bad without a struggle. You feel a little vexed with him now, have a lusband that no one respected, pected em to: but lately I've thought a and I don't blame you. It is hard, very that even the boys around town called Si Gould, was dreadful to Nabby. Per better, for worse, Do you think, your- haps it was hardly strange that she grew

Meantime Nabby had succeeded in starting the fire, and, having changed the weak one of the two? That doesn't her dress, sat down to dry her feet until strike me as good Bible doctrine, Nabby. the tea-kettle boiled. But even the rud-We that are strong ought to bear the in- dy light and warmth with which the firmities of the weak, and not to please kitchen now glowed could not send off the dreariness of the night. The rain tapped with ghostly finger tip upon the other afflictions, and have always found it to have the best results. After once using the Eelectric oil, no one will be without it. It is more fully described in regular adverspirits of the lost, pleading to be once more taken back into human life and warmth. Such a wind stirs in even the happiest heart a vague sense of loss, of Why, yes, he came back once for a change, of all that goes to make up the pair of pantaloons. But I didn't take no unsatisfactoriness of life. Dead sorrows creep forth from their graves on such nights, and stalk up and down the echoing chambers of the heart. Nabby could not help wandering where Josiah was to night. It was so lonely sitting there with no one to speak to, listening to the moaning of the wind ing of the clock. And Thanksgiving a coming, thought

The wind wailed and wiled, and Nabby thought and thought. The very fact of having "freed her mind" to the squire had relieved her long pent up indignation, and now she felt more sad than angry. Up before her seemed to rise a pie ture of her life; the youthful dreams and hopes, the changes and disappoinments. and love turned into wrangling. She even thought of Josiah with pity. the first time she 'put herself in his place and realized how almost impossible it was for one of his weak nature to resist unaided the temptation which would cost a stronger will no effort. 'I'm afraid I've been a little too sharp with Josiah, thought she. I've sorter his surroundings, the Sleepy Hollowness' gait becoming the self-reliant woman took it for granted I was a saint and he a sinner, and scolded him right along down hill. A nice saint I am. As proud and high strung as Lucifer himself. dear, sighed Nabby. A pretty mess I've made of living. If we could only go back and begin over again seems to me things the clicking of the door latch. Nabby started and looked around. All was still again-no one visable. Yet Nabby could not rid herself of the impression tkat some one was near her-the odd sense we have of another's individuality near us though not present.

'There's some one hangin' here, I know, said she to herself. Anony was one who always met things half way. Accordingly she walked to the darkness. There was always met things half way. Accordingly she walked to the darkness what to do, and in what mandered again. Why, Nabby, said the darkness. There stood Josiah-wet, sheepish, sorry. Here the driving, sleety rain and Once he had started to go in, but his courage failing, be lingered in dubious nesitation on the door step.

'Why don't you come in, Josiah!' ask 'I didn't know as you want me Nab by, replied Josiah, with all the meckness becoming a returning prodigal.

'Want you? 'Of course I do,'

Nabby, heartily. Come right along in.

I'm going to have griddle cakes for supper, and you must tend them while I se the table. Griddle cakes were one of Josiah's weaknesses, and Nabby knew it. Josiah came in. If he ever gets into heaven probably his sensations will not be one whit more delightful than they were now, as from the bleakness and gloom of the night, the forlornness of his wretched wanderings, he came into the cosy brightness of the kitchen and felt that he was at home once more. How good the tea smelled. The fire roared and snapped, the tea kettle boiled and bubbled, and bobbed its lid up and down, and from the griddle the savory odor of the cakes ascended like a home ly incense. Josiah's face shining with mingled heat and happiness as he turned the griddle cakes was something worth Nabby stepped briskly around getting supper ready. It seemed so pleasant to set the table for two again, to have some one to praise and appreciate her cooking The November wind might howl its worst now. Its hold on Nabby was gone. In place of all the bitter sadness that hung heavily round her heart was a warm feeling of happiness, of comfort and hope. All the explanation they had was this Josiah drew from under his coat an exseedingly awkward and knobby handle.

T've bought somethin for you Nab by, said he.

The 'somethin' undone proved to be very handsome britannia tea pot. The tea pot must have known that it was a peace offering, with such preternatural brightness did it shine and glisten. Something in Nabby's shone and glistened, too, although she winked hard and scorned the weakness of a pocket handkerchief. Thank you. Josiah, she said, 'it's a regular beauty, and I shall set lots by it. Which, so long as they understood each other, was, perhaps, as well as if Josiah had made a long-worded speech of repentance and reformation and Nabby another of forgiveness.

I wish I could say that Nabby never scolded Josiah again. But I can't However, 'she drew it mild,' and there was a general understanding between them that this was only an exercise made necessary by habit-a barking by ne means involving biting. And Josiah was so accustomed to it that he would have missed it, and felt unnatural without being wound up and set going for the day by Nabby.

One day, later in the winter, Nabby trial. It has on several occasions relieved me of severe cold in the head. My aunt was troubled with deafness so that she could not hear at all in one ear. After using the Balm a few times her hearing was restored. F. D. More, Insurance Broker, Elizabeth, N. J. was washing for Mrs. Hosley. So you've taken Josiah back again after all, said Mrs. Hosley.

Well, yes, I have, said Nabby, giv ing a last twist to the sheets she was wringing out. 'Josiah mayn't be very much to brag of; but then he's my own and all I've got. We're getting to be old folks, Josiah and me, and we may dence, whenever a poor, shiftless, good- as well put up with each other the little while ve've got to stay here. How has he been doing since he came as a string ever since. He's a good pro vider, now he's quit drinkin', and a maswithout her? At the same time she ter hand for fixin' up things around the house and making it comfortable. I tell you what it is, Miss Hosley, we've got to make lowance for folks in this world. We can't have 'em always just to our mind. We've got to take em just as

First rate. He's walked as straight

Advertising Kates.

Executor's, Administrator's, and Auditor's notices three dollars. Must be paid for when inserted. Transient or Local notices, ten cents a line, regular advertisements half rates. Cards in the "Business Directory" column, one dollar per year for each line. The Training of Daughters.

great deal about it all; and I've made up Perhaps one of the most lamentable errors of the present days is the manner in which our girls are trained. While proud and happy parents are desirous that their daughters be accomplished in music, drawing, painting, and the languages, they seem totally to ignore the most necessary arts of housekeeping and home making, or to imagateles, N. Y., writes: I have been troubled with bronchitis for years, and Thomas Eclecine the knowledge of such to be degrading. We know of no more pitiable object than a young wife, placed at the head of her husband's home, utterly ignorant of her duties as its mistress. Trils, well calculated to make her life miserable, await her, and many of the unhappy marriages, of which we know and hear, have their origin in just such causes; for while men are loving and indulgent they are selfish, and but few bave sufficient self-denial to bear patiently the mistakes that interfere so materially into dle of Kentucky, was a good old hard-shell Baptist, who occasionally would tell a story at the expense of some of A girl who has been raised in a well-regu the brethren Many years ago they lated and orderly household, cannot underwere not so conspicuously orthodox on stand the misfortunes of such wives as wo the temperance question as they are in speak. It is not only a knowledge of house-'On one occasion, said the keeping which is so essential to the wellbecaptain, 'the brethren down in my region ing of a family, but it is equally neccessary were about to have a grand church gathering, and all the faithful in the neigh to be thoroughly acquainted with the art of borhood were expected to exert themhome-making. It does not do for the wife selves to entertain suitably and hospitaand mother to limit her efforts to the wants bly the visiting brethren. Two of my only-physical, mental and moral, of the neighbors met each other just before the family, she must understand how to keep her house clean and orderly; when and by what means her house became filled with Well, replied the man, Tve laid in a impure air. She must know what kinds of food are easiest digested, which kinds are 'A gallon!' recorted his neighbor, with nutritious. This, of cour. c. demands some look of contempt, 'why, I've got a barrel; and you are just as able to support Then, too, she must understand how to knowledge of philosophy and chemistry. Hard-shell by looking at him from be mer. In short, a good wife and mother aind: one of the skirts of his coat would must be familiar with the science of health hang lower than the other—the one in which he carried his bottle. But the Many persons imagine Many persons imagine that money will captain said there was one old brother do away with all these trials and inconvenidown there whose denominational views ences. This is all a mistake. Money will couldn't be ascertained in that way ; his not work; it only pays for having it done; skirts hung even—a bottle in each pock-et.—Editor's Drawer, in Harpers Maga capable much cannot be expected form the servants. We have seen well-trained, competent housekeeprs take an indifferent cook LEAF FROM A DIARY .- Monday went out and caught cold, Tuesday aches all over, Wednesday heard of and tried Eclectric Oil, or laundress, and by patience, and occasions! direction of affairs, have the work satisfac-Just then there was a faint noise, like Thursday felt all right. Mem. Always torily done; while on the other hand, we have known ignorant and inexperienced mistresses to utterly fail in having anything like comfort in her household when employ. ing a good servant, for every establishment must have a head.

According to statements, unofficial, but apparently authentic, the revises of the New Testament have made alterations While accomplishments contribute greatren, we should not forget the equally necwhich will excite some consternation and Nabby was one who always met things not a little regret among all those who how thorough must be the home education all way. Accordingly she walked to are familiar with the authorized version into "Deliver us from the evil one." Half a dozen of the most familiar texts in the New Testament will disappear altogether. The question "What will it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" is metamorphosed generally wretched. Why should lawyers, mechanis, clergymen, doctors, mechanis, clergymen, doctors, mechanis, or mothers often drag through their work in this condition, when a small amount of Parthe whole world and lose his own life ?" "Hades" is substituted for "hell" in two ker's Ginger Tonic will always, at moderate well known passages. The inscription cost, clear the brain and give them the on the alter "To the Unknown God" estrength and the will to perform their duon the alter "To the Unknown God" strength and the will to perform their duwill read "To an Unknown God." Apart from these textual alterations and omissions the revisers have abolished the dimend it most highly. See other column.-

Here is an illustration of the natural invisions into chapters and verses and printed the new versions in paragraphs. stinct of the horse when guided by his sense of smell. One of our men had bought or had been given the skin of a lion which had "For ten years my wife was confined to her bed with such a complication of ailments that no doctor could tell what was the matter or cure her, and I used up a small town. The horse in that van was a very town. The horse in that van was a very fortune in humbug stuff. Six months ago I saw a U.S. flag with Hop Bitters on it, and quiet one, that had been with the circus for I thought I would be a fool once, I tried it but my folly proved to be wisdom, Two many years. Nevertheless, the animal immediately showed signs of fear, which increbottles cured her, she is now as well and strong as any man's wife, and it cost me only two dollars. Such tolly pays. W. H., kicked and rared and plunged about in the wildest manner until he had broken the harness and escaped. Various conjectures might be made as to the manner in w hich the-THE PROPLE OF MARYSVILLE HARD PRESS horse was aroused; but I think it probable that all those creatures which are liable to become prey of carnivorous beasts have The people of Marysville, Perry county been endowed by nature with an instinct eight miles above Harrisburg are hard which enables them to distinguish their fees from other animals .- Chambers' Journe! that Dr. Bull's cough syrup is a much sweet-er article in winter and much better for a

At Stuttgart, a student in love with a very pretty girl had repeatedly written to her parents for their consent to a marriage The plan mentioned was pursued this Receiving no reply; he poisoned himself at year as usual, and they ordered what has the girl's lodgings. Next day came a larger the girl's lodgings. Next day came a latter with the parents consent. At the grave the girl swallowed poison and fell lifeless into ted to, but they had made provision only Made of old pearlrye, rock candy custal, and the Horehound herb, a simple said of-fective remedy for coughs, colds, hours ness dealers at once made application at the mines for more coal, but thus far have and sore throats, highly recommended for been able to get very little. Many of consumptives. This is no patent medicine the sidings are blocked with snow, there mixture, but it is the pure extract of Rye, Horehound and Rock Candy, combined with is a scarcity of coal cars and owing to one other medicine much used by consumptives. Sold by C. A. Kleim. the extraordinarily heavy freight busi ness on all, the roads there has been > an old bachelor lawyer. "Why don't they they put in women, too?" asked his lady client. "Because," said the o. b., "if one woman knows it, all women know it." Use Dr. Browning's C. & C. Cordial for coughs, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness, ore throat, tickling or dryness of the throat, in-

For the treatment of catarrh, cold in the bead, catarrhal deafness and hay fever we call your attention to a new and particular remedy, Ely's Cream Balm. We are continually hearing the most favorable reports of its curative effects. It is easy and agreeable to apply. We would strongly recommend this discovery to our patrons and every one suffering from a second

'How's THE BARY"-'His croup is better this morning, thank you, we gave him some of Thomas' Eclectric Oil as you advised, doctor, and shall give him some more in an

call the attention of courting couples to this

It has been discovered that palmetto makes good paper.

The spur of the moment has no fastening the arms of one of the choristers singing time ago the supply ran out. In the over the grave, emergency the local dealers were resor-

Speer's Horehound Rye and Rock.

"Know all men by these presents," read much delay in getting the supply so much needed.

fluenzs, whooping cough, asthma, cold in the head or bowels, and for the relief of our-sumption. All druggists have it. Price so cents. W. Champion Browning, M. P., Proprietor, 1117 Arch street, Philadelphia.

She was just married and read Mother Shipton's prophecy for the first time. "Just my luck " she exclamed. "Here I am newly married and the world's coming to an ery one suffering from catarrb, etc., being > hour or so. Next day the doctor pronounced the youngster cured. A lamp with the wick turned far down is more likely to explode, but it is no un to