THE COUNTY STATEMENT.

The statement for last year shows the finances of the county to be generally in a good condition. There are few items, however, that have attracted some little attention, which the tax payers do not fully understand.

DEATH OF FERNANDO WOOD.

Hon. Fernando Wood, member of Congress for the Ninth district, of New York, died at Hot Springs, Arkansas, on the 13th inst. He was first elected in 1840, when only twenty-eight years old.

NORTH VERSUS SOUTH.

A letter has been handed us which was written by a Virginia gentleman to a staunch Democrat of this county. It was written last fall just after the election, but it discusses a subject of general interest, and we therefore print portions of it.

Dan Rice Not Dead.

Last week the New York World announced the death in Birmingham, England, of the original Dan Rice and once popular sportsman, so well and favorably known.

Revivification of the defunct confederacy. For why should we wish to overturn the government? What have we to gain by it? Could there ever have been a sectional war if there had not been an endangered sectional institution? Wasn't the confederate government based on the wretched corner stone of perpetuated slavery?

We are informed that the writer of the above has entirely mistaken the meaning of the bill. It is not to prevent the sale of goods by samples, it is legitimate.

Senator Wallace's Plan for a District System and a Popular Vote in Presidential Elections.

Mr. Wallace was awarded the floor in the Senate upon his constitutional amendments for a district system and a popular vote by the plurality rule in Presidential elections.
