At the end of the county statement this issue will be found a correction of a elerical error, by which the balance is the county Treasurer's hands is increased $18. In the hurried manner in which the several accounts have to be closed up at the end of the year such an error easily occurs. The auditors did not notice it, but Mr. J. B. Casey, commissioners clerk, discovered it, and proceeds to correct it.

A SENATOR ELECTED,

The dead lock in the Legislature was broken on Tuesday by the selection of Hon. John I. Mitchell of Tioga county as candidate for the United States Senate, by the joint committee of the two factions of the Republican party. On Wednesday he was elected by a party vote. The Legislature will now have a chance to do some work for the people who sent them there.

AN OFF YEAR.

Next fall the people of this county will elect a Prothonotary, Register and Recorder, three county commissioners, two associate judges, and a county treas urer. As this is an off year in politics it behooves the Democratic party to be very careful in the selection of caudidates for the several offices, for experience has shown that where there is any suspicion of an unfair nomination, the independent voter comes out in force, and on several occasions has succeeded in breaking the slate. Such results tend to weaken the party, and ought never to occur in a county that has a clear Democratic majority on Presidential election of over 2300. The campaign will soon open, and there will undoubtedly be a and on several occasions has succeeded of over 2300. The campaign will soon open, and there will undoubtedly be a long list of candidates for each of the offices to be filled. As yet we do not know who they may be, but there will be among them enough good men to fill the positions with satisfaction to the people. Whoever they may be, we warn them now that they must secure their nominations by honest means, if they would be elected. At the delegate election Democrats should vote for the best man, and should be very careful to choose delegates to the convention whose charac ters are such that no man will dare to approach them with offers of a pecuniary consideration for votes. With delegates who cannot be bought, and with candidates who will not attempt to buy them, the whole county ticket will be elected by the usual majority. We do not know of our own knowledge of non-inations improperly obtained, but we do know that the charge of paying delay. We Eveland, Stephen Drescher; Ass know that the charge of paying dele- W. E. Pennington; Auditor, B. F. Edgar; be made honestly and fairly; let all independent candidates be frowned down, and then above all, let us have a full vote for the nominees. If they are selected without suspicion of fraud they will be entitled to the support of the party and will receive it.

Inaugural Preparations.

Preparations for the inauguration of President Garfield on a scale of magnificence hitherto unknown in Washington are going on rapidly, and many distinguished men from all parts of the country are expected to be present. The military and civic displays will excel in numbers as well as brilliancy any former demonstration of the kind, while the attendance of private individuals will run up icto thousands and tens of thousands.

retary of the maugural executive committee, has received the following letter from Gen. W. S. Hancock; "I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the invitation of the executive commit tee on inaugural ceremonies to myself from Gen. W. S Hancock; "I have the tee on inaugural ceremonies to myself and staff to be present in Washington, D. C., on the 4th of March next and participate in the ceremonies and festivities incident to the inauguration of General James A. Garfield as President of the United States. My staff have individually been notified of the invitation, and should I conclude to be present I will notify you later. Thanking you, and through you the gentlemen of the committee, for their courteous attention, I remain very truly yours."

General Hancock is the military commander of the district and has been requested to come as a citizen. The late Democratic candidate has some doubts as to the propriety of his being present, for reasons which have their fou in his respect for General Garfield rather than in any disinclination on account of being a defeated candidate. The friends of General Hancock, almost to a man, seriously object to his taking part in the ceremonies, either as a civilian or soldier. They think his presence would cause M. Masteller, J. D. Cotner, Auditor, D. trouble because of the great share of attention he might receive. Were he to appear at the head of the column, following General Sherman, he would be the recipient of nearly as great an ovation as the new President, and the Republicans are really not anxious to have him here, fearing some ill-advised persons might do something which would be construed as an insult to Garfield.

A case of more than ordinary interest a mandamus to compel the School Board of Brookville borough to admit his children to the public schools they having been dismissed by the Principal because of a refusal on the part of the father to allow them to comply with the rules of the school, the issue being the desire on the part of the doctor that his chil dren should not take the usual les sons in writing while in attendance at school. The case was ably argued, the the law relative to the case, and concludes by refusing a mandamus, and ordering that each party shall pay their own costs, but no responsibility on the part of the directors. This ending of the case will be valuable to other Boards of Directors and to teachers generally, as it defines their powers and to teachers generally, as it defines their powers and to teachers generally, as the first powers and to teachers generally, as the first powers and to teachers generally, as the defines their powers and an amount of the conclusion arrived at being that they surrender all authority over their children when they pass within the doors of the public school building, the teacher assuming an their deportment.

THE GRAVES OF SMITH AND MILLER.-When the body of Smith, who was exe-cuted at Williamsport, arrived at Jersey Shore it was taken to the house of his brother-in-law, a short distance below the borough, and that night it was carried to a grave which had been prepared for it or land owned by relatives and secretly buried. And it is said that only those who buried him know where the grave is. This secrecy has been observed for fear the body would be exhumed for dissecting purposes. Mrs. Miller's body was taken direct to the Pine Creek thurying ground and there laid by the side of her murdered husband as she had requested. And it is reported that relatives have found it necessary to watch the grave at night to prevent the body from being stolen and sent to some medical college.

James Gronpel fell from a trestle about twelve feet high, in Clearfield county, the other day, and broke his neck. Instead of instantaneous death, as is ordi-narily the case, physician thinks he will recover. He remains in a sitting proture and has fasened to his neck a contrivance for the purpose of keeping his head in the same position till the injured parts become united,

Dr. Mary Walker was given work by subordinate of the Treasury Depart ment. The Secretary of the Treasury re fused to confirm her appointment, and she was told to go; but every morning for weeks she made her appearance at the department, insisting that she had been employed for one year, and finally had to be forcibly ejected. The first controller of the Treasury has now deeided that she is entitled to one year's pay and she will be given $900. It is a great triumph for the little doctor to say othing of the money.
