

Columbia Democrat logo and address: BLOOMSBURG, PA. Friday, June 3, 1891.

Grant is on his way back from Mexico and will be in the city in a few days.

The Greenbackers will hold their State Convention at Pottsville on the 15th of June.

The Philadelphia Times ran out of language on Wednesday, and had to resort to the "roosters." Never say die-Alcott McClure.

Grant seems determined to lose no chance of lowering himself in such public esteem as he is now enjoying.

The six-day pedestrian contest in New York, the O'Leary international, had ended on Saturday night and the victor was a little fellow named Vim.

For the first time in the history of Philadelphia a man has been striving to secure a reduction of car fares to five cents.

Reverend Speaker Hewitt threw aside dignity and decorum and descended to scurrilous and vulgar abuse.

The judicial appointment bill passed the House finally on Wednesday by a vote of 135 to 25.
