Cut-worms are reported as doing much damage in fields and gardens. Every variety of insect post is promised the farmers this year. To the ordinary scourges of the army worm and the potato bog, the year 1881 seems to be adding a new insect pest in the shape of a black asparagus bug, which easily digests Paris green; and the destructive locusts in some regious are preparing to take the field.

THE DOLLPRE.

The total celipse of the full moon on Sunday morning last, was attended by peculiarly favorable circumstances. The sky was absolutely cloudless, and the moon shone with a wonder is owing to the carelessness or inefficiency of ful brilliancy that made its subsequent obscuration the more remarkable, by force of contrast, Although the hour was late when the celestial phenomenon began, many of our citizens waited and watched for the event. At twelve minates past twelve, the shadow of the earth was first seen impinging upon the eastern edge of the orb. Slowly and steadily the shadow crept over the bright face, and in an hour the moo had passed from a rounded follness to total ob scaration. Mr. D. W. Smith, of Limestoneville, Montour county, says he has used an "O--borne" Self-bin'er since 1879; has cut 160 acres; been at no expense for repairs; bas cut oats that were as hadly down and tangled. as it was possible to be, and will wager the price of the machine that he can cut any grain that it is possible to cut with any machine, and bind it tighter and better than as done by hand. T. W. Pursel, near Buck Horn, says the "Osborne" Self-binder bought last year, "fills the bill" and does all that is claimed for it. P. E. Mans, near Danville, says he cut the worst tangled oats he ever saw, last year, with the "Osborne," and cannot speak too largely; we make up the clothing in our own well-ordered ways,—knowing all the things that belong to making clothing well,—and they will go direct from us,—the makers,—to you,—the wearers,—not a profit between. That's why Oak Hall has the lowest prices, as well as the best clothing. During the past ninety days we have, in making up this new spring stock, so improved the patterns, our ways of making, and minor details, that this spring's exhibition of ready-made clothing might be fairly called

Being far in advance of any hitherto offered for immediate wear. This applies alike to Men's and Boys' Clothing. Our Custom Clothing Department improves every year. We make to order from the finest fabrics, and believe we do the best work that can be done. Orders by mail are filled with the same promptness and care that would be given to serving you in person. Extending the compliments of the house, and a cordial invitation to everybody to come and see, and make trial of the 1881 Spring Clothing.
