THE WOUNDED PRESIDENT. On Saturday morning last a sudden and alarming change occurred in the President's condition. A server chill was followed by a high fover, during which his pulse rose to 130 and his tem-perature was such as to cause much alarm. Dr. Agnew and Dr. Hamilton, the consultation was held on the following on a special train. A consultation was held on the following morning and it was determined that the unfavorable symptoms were enused by the formation of an abscess the point where a fib had been splintered by the assassin's bullet. An incision was the point where a rib had been splintered by the assassin's bullet. An incision was made, three inches below the month of the wound, and the pus allowed to flow. This afforded immediate relief and the President rested well and began to im-prove. His pulse decreased and his temperature once more became normal. ROSCOR CONKLING.

This year of grace is prolific of dead locks, and no sooner is one disposed of than another takes its place. They have one in Maine of rather a peculiar kind and just how it is to be settled is not at present apparent. Governor Plaisted of that State is a Democrat, but his advisers, Republicans. These gentlemen undertook to upset the authority vested in the Governor, refused to confirm his nomina tions and at a meeting held on the 13th inst. one of the councilors grossly insulted the Governor. This was rather more than he could endure, and rising from his seat he rapped sharply with the gavel and said "Gentlemen, this council is ad-journed sine dis." As the Governor Democracy will receive into their camp only has the power to convene the coun- even deserters from the enemy, but are cil, the deadlock is complete. The councilors are in despair and there is some talk of calling upon Secretary Blaine to loose the knot which these too energetic councilors have tied.

------Who can wonder at the degradation of Republican politics ? That the thickand thin political organs of the party should swallow any candidate set up and elected for any office by a party convention, would of itself go far to stifle the moral life of the party. But what is to be expected when we find journals like the Philadelphia Ledger, which are not commonly considered to be political organs, saying of such a scandalous event as the election of "wood-pulp Miller" to the otherwise than to the injury of the Dem-Senate !--

The superlative value and importance of this great Encyclopaedia lies especially in the fact that it is brought within the reach of every one who aspires after knowledge and culture. It is really a library of universal knowledge, it brings REVOLUTION education easily within the reach every of every flowhoy of the REVOLUTION cluster and to his children that such a Cyclopaedia shall hencefor ward form a part of the outfit of his home. To the professional man, and every person of intelligence in every walk of life, a Cyclopaedia is a necessity.

Of course the old and wealthy publishers who have grown rich (it is said that the Appletons have made a profit of nearly two million dolars on their cyclopiedia) from the sale of their high-priced publica-tions are not pleared that their monojolies are broken and their pawer overthrown. Of course the book spents and bookselfers who have been used to getting irom at to go per evert, commission for selling these their priced books are not so well he used to sell the threars of Enviresh Know's dge on is per cent, com-the publication of the property of the threat their reast, after all are identical with the interests in the poople, and their reast points in the end, are interests, after all are identical with the interests in the people, and their reast of the people, in whose interests, for while allow their means the standard and the comparatoly low-priced publications. But the Literary fet-but the na always tooked to the people, in whose interests in a publications. $10,000 REWARD n valu, as our more than one million volumes prived last rear (this year being increased to probably more than two arrow CLUB AGENTS all'ions) abundantly prove. You can order the Cyclopicolla directly from us, and by uniting with you reighbors and friends you can secure club rates as follows:

A discount of 10 per cent, will be allowed to any one ordering at one time three or more sets of the Cyclopedia; and a discount of 15 per cent, will be allowed to any one ordering five or more sets at one

As a special inducement to our friends and patrons to go to work promptly and vigorously, each ing what he can for the dissemination of universal knowledge, we propose to distribute $10,000 in secal premiums as follows, in addition to the regular discount to clubs:

$5,000 Reward to be distributed equally among the first 500 club agents who send us clubs of not less than nive subscribera, after June 15th and before September 1st.

$5,000 Reward in addition to the first $5,001 to be distributed among the 100 club agents who, during the same time, and us the largest number of subscribers, ber of subscribers which each of the 100 club agents may send us.

The names of the subscribers must in every case be forwarded to us. The first $5,000 named will be distributed as specified as rapidly as the orders are received and the remaining $500 will be distributed promptly on September 18. The names of the persons receiving these rewards will be printed, with the amounts received by each, and the list each to all the dubt agents entering into competition for them. Subscribers must be actual purchasers for individual use, to entitle the club agent to the rewards under this offer, and not booksellers or agents who buy to sell again.

Persons desiring to raise clubs may send to us at ence for sample volumes, if they desire, in the va-tous styles of binding, paying us 15 cents for the volume in clota, $1,00 for the volume in hair Russia, prinkled edges, and $1 is for the volume in library shoep.
