

Gov. Hoy has published a card denying the allegations of Mr. Wolfe that he had speculated with the funds of the treasury.

The Doctors will Please Don't. Our advice to medical gentlemen who are about to write treatises upon the ignorance of the President's doctors.

State elections were held on Tuesday in Ohio and Iowa. In the former State Foster, Republican, was elected by about 10,000 majority.

The Missouri Republican thinks we are a nation of governors, and it says "The spirit of governing which has taken possession of the country in the form of speculation in the exchange and stock boards is enough to excite the alarm of the conservative classes."

The New York Democratic State Convention began on Tuesday last, and the Tammany and Irving halls delegations were refused admittance.

The country is going to give President Arthur fair play and a man's chance. It will wait until he does something blameworthy before it blames him.
