One praiseworthy feature of President Arthur's administration is the elimination of Ohio politicians from the cabinet. Now if the President would send home entitled to the full support of the party a few hundreds of office holders from in an "off year" as they are when a Gov-that State the country would draw a ernor or a President is to be chosen. Certain newspapers are disquieting themselves concerning the suggested in-vestigation of John Sherman's management of the Treasury by President Arthur. There is no need to worry. Neither Arthur nor any other Republican President will reveal facts that would bury the Republican party fathoms deep under popular wrath and the Democratic voters of the county do

It is now announced by Mr. Scoville. counsel for Guiteau, that all questions of jurisdiction and malpractice will be waived and the defense will take their stand on the plea of insanity alone. The determination has been arrived at because of the short time in which they have to prepare for trial, and because of the discovery of Guiteau's application In a later edition of the same paper appearance had subsided, District Attorney some time ago for a pension. Guiteau peared the card of Hon. George D. Wise, Corkhill rose, and addressing the jury had never been in the army, and the medical examiner indorsed upon the papers, "insane."

Professor King, the aeronant, and J. G. Hashagan of the Signal Service, made a balloon ascension from Chicago on Thursday of last week, during a storm. The air ship was seen on the following day over Sparta, Wisconsin and then sappeared from view. It is feared that the voyagers have been carried over to se forests of upper Wisconsin and the balloon dashed to pieces against the trees. Even if Prof. King and his companion escaped injury and reached the ground in safety they might wander for days before finding a clearing. For the last year or more Senator Edmunds has been posturing before the country as a gentleman of a reformatory turn of mind, and has furnished another convincing illustration of the truth that in jail until after the election. the average reformer is merely a partisan with a dash of the hypocrite to give him a moral sort of flavor. It would be an excellent idea for the Republicans to put Mr. Edmunds into the New England vacancy on the Supreme Bench. He could doubtless be depended on, whenever the occasion arose, for taking a new slant on the legal tender question, or getting up another electoral commission to do the bidding of the party with neatness and

The ceremonies at Yorktown began on Tuesday. The corner stone of the monument was laid with Masonic ceremonies in the presence of some 60,000 people. The President, Cabinet officers, Gen. Hancock and other officials were present, but the French guests of the naon did not arrive in time. There was great lack of accommodations for visitors, the dust was ankle deep and the heat unbearable. The complaint of bad management was universal. The Pennsylvania troops with Gov. Hoyt and Gen. Hartrantt reached the grounds on Wednesday morning. An address was delivered on Wednesday by the Presi-dent, who was followed by Robert C Winthrop of Massachusetts, Marquis de Rochambeau, Baron Steuben and others. The grand military review took place on

WHAT REPUDIATION WILL DO.

At a recent reception tendered Senator Mahone of Virginia, in New York, Judge Noah Davis had something to say of what Mahone had done "to give an education to the poor and lowly." The New York World states that the effect of Mahone's educational measure called the Riddleberger bill will be to ruin every college in Virginia and gives facts and figures to prove the assertion. The World says that many years ago these colleges invested their funds in Virginia State securities. Washington and Lee held to discuss the situation, determine University took $91,758.27 worth of bonds, yielding $5,505.48 annual interest. Senator Mahone, with the indorsement of Judge Davis, proposes to force the college to accept in full satisfaction of this debt $40,781 44, yielding at the most $1,200 a year interest. Hampden-Sidney college holds $70,550 worth of bonds, which Senator Mahone graciously offers to "readjust" into $31,356. To the Randolph-Macon College he tenders $8,-760 in a lieu of $19,708. To Richmond College $29,344.80 instead of $44,017.19. To the Blacksburg Agricultural and Mechanical College $182,570 instead of $344.313—being a loss of $161,743 to be inflicted on an institution especially designed for the benefit of the farmers of Virginia. To the Hampton Normal Colored School, established to educate the "poor and lowly" Africans of Virginis, he offers $91,285 instead of $172, This gives us within a fractional amount of three-quarters of a million of bonds purchased in part with the money hone last right sneered, amid the ap plause of the Union League Club of by Republican placemen of the Federal Decent Republicans are asked to support these repudiators and assist in breaking down all the respectable institutions of learning in the State. Such a pill following extract from the state. of learning in the State. Such a pill following extract from a speech made in must be hard to swallow and it is little the Senate on the 11th of March last wonder that many Republicans firmly reads well at the present time, and serves to show how much faith can be placed county.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

When the ballot boxes are closed on 8th of November, they ought to contain the votes of all the Democrats of Columbia county for the full county ticket. There is no reason why the majority this year should not reach the maximum. There are no independent candidates, and the vote for Greenback and Prohi-bition aspirants for office is not likely to be large. The campaign has been so quiet and so devoid of exciting features hat there is some danger of apathy on he part of voters.

Every Democrat ought to feel it a luty to vote for the men duly nominated in convention and ought to do all in his power to swell the majority to its greatest. The candidates are as much long breath of relief. The Ohio regime to it that not only is your own vote dehas not reflected any great lustre on the posited but also that your neighbor's is. A little energetic action is all that is required to get out the full vote, and a few earnest men in each township can readily ecure such a result. Farm work will to to their duty as citizens. The men osen to do the public work of the ounty should be put in office by some

Three shots were exchanged but neither man was injured. Beirne was arrested and Wise and Riddleberger will be when found. On the same night Senator Mahone was arrested for accepting a challenge from old Gen. Jubal A. Early. He denied the charge and was released on his personal bond. These hostile meet ings have grown out of the bitter politi-

The Republican party, which is now engaged in aiding the Mahone-Riddleberger faction to repudiate the state debt, must feel proud of its allies. The pecple will have something to say before long, concerning this Republican deal with repudiators and duellists.

PARNELL ARRESTED.

The Irish question assumes a new phase by the arrest of Charles S. Parnell, the agitator, on the morning of the 13th The grand total of expenditures for the sickness and funeral of President Garfield have been estimated by the Indianopolis Sentinel at $347,650. Of this large sum the doctors' bills are set of the land act. The news of the arrest down as $53,000. The United States spread like wildfire and the excitement will pay about $100,000, and the bal- grew intense. As a measure of precaulaw covering the offence with which he it is said that an effort will be made to is charged no bail can be taken, and he must remain in confinement until trial. Members of the Land League are indig-nant at the arrest and indignation meetings have been held in this country and almost $15,000 a year, exclusive of the abroad. The arrest was not wholly unexpected, at least to those best informed as to the exact condition of affairs. Parnell has bitterly opposed the workings of the land act, though he was at first perfectly satisfied with that measure. It is impossible to predict what results may flow from this proceeding on the part of the government, but any overt acts on the part of sympathisers with Parnell will undoubtedly be met by stern measures. Mr. Gladstone made a speech at the Guild Hall, London, on the day of the arrest, and in announcing the event, said that the first step had been taken toward the vindication of law and order, of the rights of property and of the first elements of civilization. He said Parnell had made himself promment in an attempt to destroy the au thority of the law. He said he firmly believed that a majority of the tenants earnestly desired a fair trial of the land act. England had no fear of the people of Ireland, but only feared lest many more should become demoralized or in imidated. He would rejoice at the premacy of the Imperial Government. The Irish bishops and clergy have approved of the land act and have publicly displeased with the election of Mr. Bayard as President pro tem and in a caucus resolved to put him forward. On Thursday of last week Logan introduced a res-olution unseating Mr. Bayard and nominating Davis for the position. A vote was taken and Davis was elected, 36 to 34. The yote would have been a tie had the Republicans not owned Mahone, who, alalways votes with the party that bought and owns him. To this accidental majority the Republicans owe their success. Mr. Bayard refrained from voting. The "independent" Davis has not gained in the services of a good lawyer. Guiteau reputation by his election under such circumstances, and has earned the contempt of the better class of people without regard to political affinities. He has al ways been greedy for honors and it is presumed the measure of his ambition is now filled. Now the country knows just what the "independency" of David Davis is, and knows too that it extends no fur of testators bent on serving the people of Virginia and in part with the results of a close management of of a close management of earnings, but in all cases purchased in a firm reliance on a fraudulent certificate and who was on the public honor and honesty of the Old Dominion, at which Senator Ma It is not an invigorating spectacle and will add no strength to the party throughout the county. The New York Times, the leading Republican paper in the United States is of opinion that "the position of Mr. Davis himself is not one which to a "man of delicate honor would seem in "all respects agreeable."

There are a good many people who think with the Times.

GUITEAU ARRAIGNED.

Guiteau, the assassin, was taken to sourt on Friday last and formally arraigned for the murder of President Garfield. He was conveyed to the court room in a carriage and no violence was attempted either in going or returning. At about 11.15 Mr. Scoville, counsel for the prisoner, entered and took a seat. Immediately afterwards the door of the secure such a result. The District Attorney.—In this case I ask that the trial be set for next Mon day morning peremptorily. The government is ready for trial now. GUITEAU'S WITNESSES.

Mr. Scoville: I appear here for the defendant, at his request, and I have some affidavits to present to the court, the first being that of the defendant himself.

The affidavit, which was read, states that there are various witnesses whose evidence is material for the prisoner's defense, and without which he cannot safely go to the trial; that the names of such witnesses, and the facts that can be proved by them, severally, are well known to the affiant's counsel, Mr George Scoville, and are only known in part by the affiant; that he has no proprty, and is unable to pay the fees or mileage of witnesses or the cost of summoning. He therefore prays that the court shall allow such witnesses on his behalf, as may be shown by affidavit of counsel to be necessary, the fees and costs to be paid in such manner as those of government witnesses are paid. THE TWO POINTS OF DEFENSE,

Mr. Scoville then read the affidavit made by himself. It states that besides the points of law that may be made the man. The crushed body was recovered defense will consist of two points. First, the insanity of the defendant, and secadoption of any form of self-government ond, that the wound was not necessarily mortal and was not the cause of Presi mortal and was not the cause of Presi deut Garfield's death. It contains a lis of witnesses, and avers that the brother of defendant's father was insane and died in a lunatic asylum; that his cousin danghter of another sister of prisoner father, is insane and is now confined in a lunatic asylum; that prisoner's father was a monomaniae on religious subjects, and that he can prove prisoner's actual insanity upon several occasions. It also gives names of doctors, among them to oust him. But one man was available as a candidate, David Davis, and it was peets to prove that Garfield died by malpractice on the part of the physicians in

The second point assigned was a sur rise, as few persons thought the ques tion of malpractice would be brought up. Judge Cox fixed the trial for No ough elected Senator by Democrats, vember 7th, but wishes to have the question of jurisdiction settled by October 30th Mr. Scoville is alone for the dewas taken back to jail without trouble The court room was densely crowded but no disorder occurred.
