G. E. ELWELL, State of Latters

BLOOMSBURG, PA

Friday, October 28, 1881. The Muncy Lambury says: "It is a remarkable fact that no one has ven tured to even question the honesty and integrity of General Bailey." It is above reproach. So? Then where does the "remarkable fact" come in ? General Apathy appears to have entire control of the Democracy, both state and local.— Williamsport Gazette & Bulle-

General Consternation commands the Republicans, and isn't making much headway against either Noble or Wolfe

All the state and government officials in the Commonwealth have been assessed by Chairman Cooper and are expected to contribute their quota of lucre at the earliest possible moment. The machine isn't running on reform to any great extent and those who are too good to pay must prepare to step out.

The Huntingdon county Republicans have declared in favor of Wayne Mac-Veagh for Governor. Don't be in a hurry, gentlemen. If Baily is elected State Treasurer next month, neither Mac Veagh nor any other man of his kind will have the ghost of a chance for a nomination. Cameron will name the man-and he will not be one of the MacVeagh stripe.

The French and German guests of the nation have been treated with the greatest courtesy during their stay. A brilliant reception was tendered them in Washington on Monday evening. The Secretary of State and Mrs. Biaine received the distinguished guests, and there were present most of the Senators and other public officials.

Chairman Cooper has issued a red-hot stump speech in the shape of a circular and calls vigorously upon Republicans to toe the mark and save Baily. Only a short time ago Baily was to have a walk-over at the election, but now there is a change. Cooper and the rest of them say that it isn't Wolfe. Why this

A man has on exhibition in Boston what purports to be the flag of the rebel cruiser Alabama, and values it at $10, 000. An officer of the ship explodes this senate, a copy of the instructions sent to story by calling attention to the fact that Minister Lowell and other American of the country.

There wasn't any fight over the Secretaryship of the Senate after all. Democrats and Republicans peacefully agreed that the Chief Clerk should act as Secretary during the session. Mr. Ed-munds and his fellow Senators were evidently averse to the election of George C. Gorham and he is the only man that boss Mahone would hear of. It is not beyond the limits of possibility that Mahone and Davis may yet prove to be expensive investments for the Republicans.

Professor King, the geronaut, and his companion, who made a balloon ascension from Chicago, and who it was feared were lost, have arrived safely at Chippe wa Falls, Wis. The balloon descended in the woods, sixty-five miles from that place and the unfortunate men were lost in the woods for five days, suffering greatly from exposure and hunger. would seem to be greater than of being dashed to pieces by accident to the balloon. This is not only distressing but

Grant is a daily visitor of the Presi dent and the result of his many interviews will doubtless be seen in the construction of the new cabinet. If Mr. Arthur intends to have his administration even respectable, he will have as little of the "third term" about it as possible. The country has had all of Grant and his cronies it wants. They are expensive luxuries, for which the people have already paid many times more than they are worth. Grant will not be President again-neither in 1884 nor at any other time, but an administration that favors him and the horde of leeches that fattened on public plunder during his Presidency, will surely receive the exe crations of the people and be overthrown

On Monday last, ex-Governor Edwin D. Morgan, of New York, was nomina-ted and confirmed as Secretary of the Treasury, to succeed William Windom. Mr. Morgan has been Governor of New York and United States Senator from that State, and has twice declined cabi-net positions. He has for years been prominent in politics and been chairman of the Republican National Committee. Mr. Morgan possesses great wealth, estimated as high as $12,000,000. He has always been an advocate of honest money, and it is believed will administer on the ground of advanced age and ill

Suits for damages have also been instituted against him by those who were injured amount of those claims is very large, and Mr. Harvey will undoubtedly pay roundly for his neglect to comply with the law. There are hundreds of mills in Philadelphia, employing thousands of hands, unprovided with fire escapes, and it is hoped that Mr. Harvey's experience may lead to an instant compliance with the law.

While the East is anxiously waiting for gain to moisten the parched earth and fill the streams, the West is having altogether too much of it. The Missisltogether too much of it. The Missisippi river has been swollen by weeks of ain, and farms lying near the river have been flooded, causing immense damage. At Dubuque, Iowa, the river front is under water and mills and factories are flooded, throwing 1000 employees out of work. The running of trains on the Keokuk & St. Louis railroad has been suspended, the track being under water. Unless the storm soon ceases the losses will be enormous.

There is every reason to believe that Hon. Orange Noble can be elected Treasurer of the State next month, if the full party vote is polled, and it will be a shame and a disgrace if this is not done. The independent Republican, Charles S. Wolfe, is gaining strength daily, and his vote will be large enough to ensure the defeat of Cameron's candidate. There are thousands of Republicans in the State who have long waited for an op-portunnity to strike a blow at the mahine leaders, and who are earnestly supporting Wolfe in his canvass. The defections from the ranks of the Cameron forces will be very large, and if Democrats rally to the aid of Mr. Noble he can surely be elected. Under these circumstances it is more than ever im portant that no Democratic voters shall remain at home on the 8th of November next. It is to be hoped that Columbia county will give the Democratic candidate a rousing majority.

THE YORKTOWN CELEBRATION.

The military and naval parade and review by the President, at Yorktown, on Thursday of last week, was grand and elicited applause from the thousands from all parts of the country who were present. The military, numbering about 9500 men, were under command of Gen eral Hancock. The States represented were Georgia, New Jersey, Pennsylva-nia, Massachusetts, Maryland, South Carolina, New Hampshire, Virginia, New York, North Carolina, Rhode Is land, Vermont, Kentucky, Michigan and Connecticut.

The troops under command of Gen eral Hancock were reviewed by President Arthur, the Cabinet and foreign guests and other dignitaries from all over the country. The affair was most creditable to all concerned, and did much to repay the visitors for the many inconveniences and sudden and despairing wail? It must be Noble.

Some of the organs are pretty badly seared and are now home to be not be now to sudden and are now home to be now to sudden and are now home to be now to sudden and are now home to sudden and an are now home to sudden and the sudden scared and are now howling that the Democrats are more zealous for Wolfe kind for the reception of strangers. Howthan for Noble. They don't believe any such thing and are trying to let themselves down easy. Wolfe will poll votes enough to beat Baily without going outside of the Republican party. There are any number of Independents this year—the satisfaction of relating their experiences to their families and friends in the years to come, when time has kindly the satisfaction of the reception of strangers. However, national centennial celebrations of the kind do not occur every day, and those who braved discomfort will have enough to be at least the satisfaction of relating their experiences. the organs to the centrary notwithstand- covered the disagreeable and left only the glory of the day.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

The President on Monday, sent to the real flag went down with the vessel and ministers in Europe, in relation to steps now lies at the bottom of the English to be taken to protect the rights of the Channel. It is probable that there are United States in the Panama canal. Sechundreds of just such frauds masquera-ding as "relics of the war," in all parts of 1846 between the United States and New Grenada, now the United States of Columbia, the thirty-fifth section of which "positively and efficaciously" guar antees the perfect neutrality of the isthmus, and in accordance with which the United States has more than once been called upon to vindicate the neutrality thus guaranteed. The letter continues: If the foreshadowed action of European powers should assume tangible shape, it would be well for you to bring to the notice of Lord Granville, the provisions of the treaty of 1846, and espec ially of its thirty-fifth article, and to intimate to him that any movement in the sense of supplementing the guarantee contained therein, would necessarily be regarded by this government as an uncalled for interpretation into a field where the local and several interests of the United States of America must be considered before those of any other power save those of the United States of Colombia There is altogether too much risk in sailing in air ships to render the attempts will continue to derive such eminent adalluring. The coming down is even more dangerous than the going up, and the chances of starving to death in the woods in detail, that no uncertainty shall subsist as to the integrity of our motives or the distinctness of our arms. The im-portance of this document is obvious, and will beyond doubt, create a flutter in diplomatic circles. The rights of the United States are paramount to all others and will be maintained with firm-

LIFE AND WORK OF GARFIELD: Embracing an Account of his struggles in Childhood; His Career as a Soldier; His Success as a Statesman; His Elevation to the Presidency; His Dastardly Assassination. By John Clark Ridpath, LL. D. Published by Jones Brothers & Co., Cincinnati, Chicago, Philadelphia, Kansas City. It is indeed fortunate for the community that an author so well endowed with every qualification for the work has engaged in the preparation of this book. His name is a guarantee of faithful performance. His Gar-field is that which occupies the inmost sanctuary of the American heart and appeals to its tenderest sympathies; that teaches the bravest lessons to our youth and the noblest to our manhood; that irradiates from our national glory a brighter halo than ever illumines the memories of kings and potentates, or makes illustrious the conquerors of States. His narrative is the electric chain which transmits the wondrous story of endurance, triumph over obstacles, and final achievement, that will live in the annals of the world as long as virtue is revered and true nobility

This is the book that people of judgment will buy in preference to the hastily prepared campaign "biographies" of Garfield with which the country is flooded; which are crude, unauthoritative, and, in many points, ncorrect; without system or regard for ques ions of fact; mostly anonymous, and altogether worthless to the searcher after truth. In a work like this, the American people want, and they are entitled to have, the best From all the information we are able to ob tain, we are convinced that this "Life and
