

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, FRIDAY NOV. 25, '81.

The Water Company has put down a four-inch pipe on Fourth street below Market.

No trouble to show goods and give prices at the People's Drug and Book Store.

Schooling's Law Blanks are now kept in stock at this office.

The scales at the corner of Main and Market streets are about to be removed to the opposite corner, near I. W. McKelvey's store.

The Fifth street school has been closed for several days past on account of a break in the steam heating apparatus.

The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church organized a Guild, on Tuesday afternoon, the object of which is to assist the needy during the winter.

For Sale.—A three-horse power steam engine and boiler, in good condition. Suitable for running a printing press or other light machinery. Inquire at this office.

When you get hold of a five-dollar gold piece be careful not to mistake it for a new bronze cent in making change. This blunder has been made elsewhere in the hurry of business.

We have just received an elegant assortment of beautiful New Year cards, of novel designs and excellent material, to which we invite attention. They are the newest and prettiest we have ever seen.

The latest neck gear are the large kerchiefs such as our grandmothers were pleased to wear nearly a hundred years ago. They are neatly tucked over the shoulders, and then cross over the chest with the ends tucked in the belt, or knotted just above, thus giving a demure effect.

Ceiled sets and hanging lamps at the People's Drug and Book Store.

Among our millinery novelties is a felt hat with a deep brim and square crown. This consists of a four-cornered piece, stiffly lined and resting upon the folds of a velvet plush, which give the accented effect.

With the completion of the North and West Branch rail road bridge across Catawissa creek, at Catawissa, there will be seven bridges spanning the stream within the distance of a mile from its mouth. Five of them being within an eighth of a mile.

John J. McHenry has recently received an immense stock of Fall and Winter Goods at his store in Benton, and is selling them at reasonable prices. People in that vicinity will do well to visit his establishment and secure bargains.

At the meeting of the State Revenue Commission held in Philadelphia, last week, Mr. Bucklew was placed on following committees: Business, chairman, Capital Stock of Corporations and Small Revenue Bill be reported.

Perfumery, brushes, student lamps, diaphanets will be very low prices at the People's Drug and Book Store.

A meeting of Caldwell Consistory was held here last week and was attended by many Masons of high degree from various towns in the neighborhood. There was considerable business transacted and the session continued through Thursday and Friday evenings.

Flowers, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Frazier, died at her home on Third street on the 10th inst. Her disease was dropsy and her age twenty years. The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon, the 18th, and the body was interred in Rosemont cemetery.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen had a dance in Winoona Hall, last Friday evening, and enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Some fifteen couples partook of a delicious supper at the Exchange Hotel, and were warmly in their praise of the cuisine of that hostelry. After the hands had been discussed, dancing was resumed, and continued until a reasonably late hour.

No more small pox in Orangeville, but it has left me with a large stock of Fall, Winter and Millinery Goods on hand, which I intend to sell at ten per cent less than they can be purchased for anywhere else in the county, in order not to carry them over. So bring in your cash and produce and secure the great advantage of your life.

The case of Franklin Monroe vs. The Delaware, Lackawanna & Western R. R. Co., was tried before Judge Elwell, in Wilkes-Barre, last week. Monroe was elected from the county to the L. & W. R. R., although he claimed that he had a ticket, was caught in a storm and his health permanently affected. The jury gave him $4,000 damages. An application for a new trial was made by the company.

The nearest rival we have heard of for some time, lives in Scranton. The corner store of St. David's Episcopal church was laid by Bishop Howe on Friday evening, a heavy rain storm prevailing. After the ceremony some sardine-like worms were seen on the roof. It was well also to watch the ceiling closely during the coming winter and remove at once all decaying vegetables. A little attention to the sanitary regulation of house and premises in season will repay our readers in the enjoyment of better health and a reduction of the doctor's bills.

Look after the cabbage patches in your gardens. It is stated upon excellent authority that decaying cabbage is a fruitful source of diphtheria. It will be well also to watch the ceiling closely during the coming winter and remove at once all decaying vegetables. A little attention to the sanitary regulation of house and premises in season will repay our readers in the enjoyment of better health and a reduction of the doctor's bills.

Miss Sarah Sloan went to Washington D. C. on Wednesday to visit friends.

Miss Marie Sloan is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Carrie Morris, of Susquehanna county, is visiting Miss Ella McKinley.

Miss Marie Fick, of Danville, spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Martha Clark.

H. V. White has charge of G. A. Clark's bookstore, during the absence of the latter in the city.

Mrs. J. W. Chamberlin, of Plymouth, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. C. P. Sloan, this week.

Jas. C. Brown has so far recovered as to be able to return to town. He came down on Monday for the first time.

Mrs. D. C. John, wife of Rev. D. C. John, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church of Bloomsburg, is visiting Mrs. Freas Brown at the Exchange Hotel. She resides in St. Paul, Minn., where her husband is President of Hamilton University.

A Fashion paper says that women like the electric light since they have learned that it makes the eye sparkle as if the sun were in the clouds. There is a much more weighty reason why they should adore it, as they do an empty powder box or an unfilled jewelry case. The cold gleam from the electric globe makes the complexion ghastly—a thing of white ice and sick-room pallor. A careful woman would as soon expect to find a pot of gold at the end of a rainbow as true beauty under a carbon flame.

Galveston News.—The Madison (Wis.) Democrat, in endeavoring to treat the wounds received by the candidates for the presidency, wisely prescribes St. James' Oil. Of course we could not expect our worthy contemporary to do otherwise than recommend that famous Old German Remedy, which "heals all pains, binds those of love" and soothes all wounds,—save those of political disappointment.

A man, whose name is supposed to be J. C. Smith from papers found on his person, was struck and killed by the down freight train of the L. & E. R. R. on Saturday afternoon in Briarcrest township. His skull was fractured. A small sum of money and a bottle partly filled with liquor were found in his pockets. The man lived for four hours after the accident and died at Berwick where he was taken in the evening.

The Board of Health.—That purely vegetable compound, Barlock Blood Bitters, may be justly considered the Elixir of Life. A pleasant and effective medicine; it imparts strength and vitality to the entire system. Price $1.00, retail size 10 cents.

Henry O. Silkman is said to have purchased the interest of the late Colonel Jackson's estate in a charcoal iron furnace, located at Laurelton, Pa., that is making a superior quality of charcoal pig iron, which is in great demand and is especially adapted to the manufacture of car wheels. He will reside at Berwick. There is little doubt that he will have the same success that he has formerly had in the manufacture of stoves and other business enterprises in this city.—Scranton Republican.

My Geraldine.—Next Tuesday evening, Bartley Campbell's new play, "My Geraldine," will be presented at the Opera House by Powers' Company. This company, it will be remembered, played "Dr. Clyde" in an excellent manner, last year, and were heartily applauded. Mr. Campbell's new play has been very successful in New York and other large cities, and has been praised by press and people. It was produced in Reading recently, to the admiration of a large audience. The Times of that city, in praise of the performance, says: "Powers' company produced at the Academy of Music, Bartley Campbell's Irish drama, "My Geraldine," to a large audience in a satisfactory manner, as was frequently demonstrated by enthusiastic applause. The play has many strong dramatic features and also has the merit of being, notably, the "My Geraldine," which was very creditably presented. The company is a very good one. Mr. W. H. Powers, Miss Agnes Herndon, Miss Corey, Mr. Cain and Mr. Ward were natural and effective in their renditions. Mr. Misher is endeavoring on account of their financial and artistic success to have them return within a fortnight and produce the same play."

The doctors said my wife had consumption. Tried "Lindsay's Blood Searcher," and she has better health than ever." G. H. Hubbard, Hampden, Ohio, nov.

Backbone Items.—A little boy, "Mill," of William Faust, is dangerously ill. In the absence of Dr. Leuker at Wilkes-Barre, Dr. McCreynolds was called.

Edward Thomas has gone to England, this being the fifth time he has crossed the Atlantic.

The Valley church is being painted.

A school is being built across the lot back of the M. E. church at this place, for the protection of horses and carriages during service. A series of meetings began in this church on Sunday evening.

William P. Ledy and James A. Harris are at present catching turtles and shipping the same by the barrel. They are making this a profitable business.

Edward Bennett, of Nanticoke, a nephew of Ralph Hays, has been making a visit here, but has now returned.

G. W. Hartman has moved to Nanticoke, and is a partner with his brother "North" in the book store, under the firm name of N. M. Hartman & Bro. John G. Hartman accompanied them, and will be a type in the Chronicle office.

By this removal of the musical circle suffers, as well as the churches, for while the gentlemen were both prominent members of the band, Mrs. H. officiated generally as organist in both churches. They carry with them the best wishes of the community.

Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, is well again. Completely cured of a scrofulous humor which poisoned his blood, covering his face and hand with sores, by Cuticura Remedent Internally and Cuticura Soap externally.

Personal.—Mr. H. B. Clark is in New York buying goods.

Col. Levi L. Tate, of Williamsport, was in town on Saturday.

Col. A. F. Frick and Mr. John Groves, of Danville, called at the Columbia office on Saturday last.

W. T. Manning, of Jackson township, agent for J. F. LeClare, the Rochester N. Y. nurseryman, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. M. B. Cray, Register of Deeds of Luzerne county, John Schuyler, Jr., proprietor of the Fallon House, Lock Haven, D. B. Elze, proprietor of the Crawford House, Williamsport, registered at the Exchange Hotel on Thursday evening last week.

Miss Sarah Sloan went to Washington D. C. on Wednesday to visit friends.

Miss Marie Sloan is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Carrie Morris, of Susquehanna county, is visiting Miss Ella McKinley.

Miss Marie Fick, of Danville, spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Martha Clark.

H. V. White has charge of G. A. Clark's bookstore, during the absence of the latter in the city.

Mrs. J. W. Chamberlin, of Plymouth, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. C. P. Sloan, this week.

Jas. C. Brown has so far recovered as to be able to return to town. He came down on Monday for the first time.

Mrs. D. C. John, wife of Rev. D. C. John, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church of Bloomsburg, is visiting Mrs. Freas Brown at the Exchange Hotel. She resides in St. Paul, Minn., where her husband is President of Hamilton University.

Michael Tracy has resumed his position at Neal & Sons' farm.

Mr. William McKewen, representing Waterlight & Co., of Philadelphia, was in town this week. He has a large trade in this section.

We take pleasure in announcing to our friends and patrons that we have been to Philadelphia and New York and selected a stock of Christmas goods such as you wish in both quality and price. You will be surprised to see the full stock and low prices. People's Drug and Book Store.

"What every one says must be true," is "Dr. Sells' Cough Syrup" has no equal for coughs and colds. Try it. Price 25c. nov.

The floral horsehoe as a wedding decoration has almost had its day. Its place will be taken by another token of good luck—the four leaved clover. It does not take as many flowers as the horsehoe, and therefore does not cost so much.

A full assortment of justice's and constables' blanks can now be found at the Columbia office.

The Wilkes-Barre Valentine-Looker prints a weird tale about a meeting of a mysterious order known as "The Knights of Erebus," to be held near a mountain at midnight next Friday. Delegates from different towns in the Valley are summoned to be present. Blossoming and Berwick among others. Little known of this order or its meetings. One man has been found who claims to have witnessed a meeting of the "Knights," some three years ago in a gorge of the Moosic mountains. His attention was directed to a campfire which was moving forms. He says that the men about the fire, which grew large as the darkness advanced, numbered fully two hundred. That all were robed in long flowing gowns, some of plain black, some of red and black in stripes, some of pure red dotted with curious crosses in yellow, while others were white with large black mitered crosses curving the front. Each man's head was covered with a black mask. At a given signal all joined hands and circled seven times about the fire, at the same time intoning a weird chant. When this was finished the members stood still in a circle, while one, who appeared to be the high chief, whose robes were composed of bright crimson, garnished with crosses, stars and hieroglyphics, pushed round and whispered something in each member's ear. After that another wild chant was sung, when the members then sat down, like Turks, about the fire, and listened to one who drew from under his long gown a bundle of papers which he read. The witness above could hear nothing that transpired save the chanting, so he was unable to understand what the report, if such it was, consisted of.

Now, who are the delegates from Bloomsburg? That is what we would like to know. There is something very odd and improbable about the story, and quite likely some of our readers will not believe that any such order exists. Does it?

OPERA HOUSE!

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, '81. The hit of New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco.

BARTLEY CAMPBELL'S MY GERALDINE, Latest and Greatest Sensation.

HOLMES & SCHUYLER

CUTLERY. Everybody seems surprised at the extent of our stock of Cutlery. In no store in the county can such a variety of patterns be seen.

STOVES. Cold weather is near at hand and already many are looking around for stoves. The manufacturers have been over-crowded with orders, and it is almost impossible to get them.

These are the Rules. We live by every day, as any one can see.

1st.—We never offer for sale any Clothing but what we believe will give thorough satisfaction to those who wear it.

2d.—We stoutly maintain our custom to always have the largest stock of men's and boys' clothing to show our customers.

3d.—We do not allow our salesmen to mislead customers as to fit or quality or kind of goods.

4th.—We stick to one price alike to everybody, rich and poor.

5th.—We give the guarantee with each sale we make.

6th.—We return the money to anybody who wish it, if they choose to bring back the goods uninjured.
