G. E. ELWELL, J. K. BITTENBENDER, Editors. BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Friday, Jan. 18th, 1882.

The year 1881 had its full share of erimes, and the record is not pleasant reading. There were 599 homicides in the United States and Canada; 242 suicides; 90 legal executions and 50 lynchings.

Senator Logan, it is said, has declared his intention to resist Gen. Porter's reinstatement in the army, no matter who favors it. Logan is a thorough going Republican and does not permit a little thing like justice to interfere with his

The criminal prosecution of the Star route thieves does not progress rapidly, but, in order to keep the people in good heart, it is announced that civil suits will be begun to recover the stolen mon-This ought to be vastly comfort

It would appear that there is a feeling of sympathy for the Hon. Samuel Josephs who was shot by Mr. Robert Lister Smith on the way home from the late Democratic State Convention All of which goes to show what a very low opinion the people have of Smith.

Gen. Fitz John Porter has addressed a letter to the President asking for an early consideration of his case. Gen. Grant has also written a letter urging that justice be done Gen. Porter. After enduring unmerited disgrace for nineteen years, he deserves a prompt and thorough

There can be no greater mistake for President Arthur to make in the opinion of the Cincinnati Enquirer than to conduct the present administration on the ambition of nomination in 1884. If the President leaves himself to the country the country will take him into consider-

It is claimed that Senator Don Cameron has received a promise from the administration that Pennsylvania shall have two foreign missions, one first and one second class, and that he is is now making up his mind as to whom he shall name for the place. The-name of General Hartranft is suggested for one place, as, if he should be appointed, Mr. Cameron would have the nomination of a new collector in Philadelphia.

Labouchere says, in London Truth "America is sending a prime beef and mutton. American wool is ousting English from the market. American apples are more numerous in lish market than home-grown. America is now sending us 'English plum pud-dings,' ready for boiling. American horses have this year won the principal races in England and France. And now that America is bestirring herself about her navy, what will be left for poor old Engand to plume herself upon?

The more deeply the Star route business is probed, the more offensive are the revelations. It has now been discovered that no less than 13,000 utterly worthless bonds have been imposed upon the post office department. This certainly could not have been done had business been transacted in the department with honesty and fidelity. Five of the contractors and sureties on these fraudulent bonds have been arrested, and it will be interesting to see how vigorously the procecutions against them will be urged.

Hon. Godlove S. Orth considers himself a man of no little importance and is very indignant because Speaker Keifer did not assign him to bigger committees. He made a savage speech against the Speaker a few days since, on the floor of the House and asked to be excused from serving on one of the committees in which he had been placed. As a matter of fact, the general opinion is that Keifer's treatment of Orth is about the only commendable thing he has done Orth isn't a very great man, except in his own eyes, and the country will get along rather better if he is kept in the back

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Philadelphia & Reading R. R. Co. for the election of officers began on Monday last. The struggle between Franklin B. Gowen and Frank S. Bond for the presidency of the road was vigorous. Balloting began on Monday afternoon and at the time we go to press had not ended. Mr. Gowen is far ahead, but the friends of Mr. Bond say that large blocks of stock held by the McCalmonts and others are yet to be cast for him. So far as can be seen, Mr. Gowen's chances are the better. He claims that a large number of shares held by W. H. Vanderbilt are to be counted for him. The betting in Philadelphia is two to one

Speaker Keifer's packed committees please neither Democrats nor Republicans, and the grumbling is ominous. Mr. Keifer when elected gave notice that he was a partisan, but to what extent was not known at the time. He has since made the matter perfectly clear. The composition of the committee on elections proves beyond all controversy that justice and decency are not to be regarded when in conflict with party regarded when in conflict with party claims. The committee was formed for the express purposes of admitting the contestants from the South and shutting out the legally elected members. So out the legally elected members. So out the legally elected members. So out the legally elected members and effective speech which made the assumption of the conflict with party government and messrs. A perfect flood of bills poured into Congress on Monday last, there being no less than 675 in the House alone. Two bills to amend the Constitution were introduced in the House; one to perpetuate the Electoral College during the entire Presidential term and giving the College power to elect a new Presi dent in case of death; the other to al low an additional United States Senator for each million of inhibatants in any State in excess of two millions. Severa bills against polygamy were presented. In the Senate, Mr. Logan introduced a bill appropriating the entire income from the tax on the manufacture and sale of distilled spirits to the education of children. In the Senate on Tuesday the Morrill tariff commission bill was discussed. In the House the Utah contested election was referred to the committee on elections. On Wednesday the Senate discussed the Sherman three per cent. out with a furious interruption, saying he refunding bill. | Act. Judge Porter's speech closed effectively more rigid enforcement of quarantine with a letter from President Garfield regulations.

There seems to be a strong probability of the appointment of Effigy Sargent as Secretary of the Interior. This would be even worse than putting Howe at the head of the post office department and almost as bad as making Stanley Mat thews a justice of the Supreme Court. Porter, "that this letter was to be thus introduced at the trial of his murderer."

At a meeting of the military order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, held last week in New York, Gen. Handowski as bad as making Stanley Mat thought the victim," exclaimed Judge Porter, "that this letter was to be thus introduced at the trial of his murderer." thews a justice of the Supreme Court. Even the Philadelphia Press objects, and says "Ex-Senator Sargent would be ob-jectionable as Secretary of the Interior, not as a politician but as a man. He has made a bad record in all his old places there is no reason to suppose he would make a good record in a new one."

The Democrats in the New York result will be felt at the next election. As usual, Tammany Hall is in the row, out, contrary to precedent, it appears to be in the right in one respect. The regular Democrats insist upon John C. Jacobs as president pro tem. and the Tammany nen refuse to vote for him. Mr. Jacob is an objectionable candidate, in that he an unscrupulous politician of a low type. It is much to be regretted that the discordant elements in the Democrat ic party of New York cannot be reconciled without loss of time. If the present bitter warfare continues much longer, it will not be a surprise if the State falls into Republican hands.

D'SASTER AT SEA.

Another frightful calamity at sea i reported. The steamship Lion of St Johns, Newfoundland, is believed to have been lost with all on board, forty three in number. The body of a lady one of the passengers, has been found. Two of the steamer's boats, ten kegs of oil, and a quantity of lumber corresponding with the vessel's cargo, have been ound. There were eighteen passengers and thirty-five officers and crew on board. The names of the passengers are not known as the steamer was not a regular passenger boat and no formal list was kept. How the disaster occurred is mystery, as the weather was fine and clear and the sea calm. It may have resulted from a boiler explosion or the steamer may have been cut down and sunk by another and larger vessel. Another theory is that the light of the lighthouse was obscured and the steamer ushed at full speed into the precipitous rocky shore. The Lion was of about 500 tons capacity, was built of oak and valued at $50,000.

GUITEAU'S BODY SOLD.

The Guiteau trial is full of surprise and another queer thing has just come to light. A few days ago a man called State. upon Mr. Scoville, Guiteau's lawyer, and offered $1000 for the body of the assassin and said that he would take the risk of Guiteau not being hanged. Mr. Scoville was astonished but the man was Scoville was astonished but the man was evidently in earnest and Mr. Scoville said he would give him an answer the Samuel W. he proposes to do with the body. The money will be used to pay off the numerous debts incurred by Guiteau.

Terrible Sufferings of a Shipwrecked Crew-

The coasting schooner Almon Bird. of Rockland, Mo., Capt. C. A. Packard, Muncie, Ind., fell, and were both crushed was bound from Windsor, N. S., for to death by the machinery. Alexandria, Va., with a cargo of plaster. On Sunday night, January 1st, when off Boone Island, the gale tore off her top phia. Thomas Proctor was killed; Benmast, and the rigging became so thickly covered with ice that it was almost useless. On Monday morning the high seas stove in her bulwarks, ripped up have been fined $1,200 for importing have been fined $1,200 worth of the batches, and flooded the vessel. Soon it was found that she was sinking, and the crew took to the large boat. There was little time to get food or extra clothing, and by a strange misfortune they could not get their oars. The chooner sank, and the boat was left oarless with its living freight in a violent gale and heavy sea. Thus they drifted about drenched with the ley spray of the waves, crowded together court at Cincinnati, has reported that for protection from the bitter cold, and they amount to $39,766. almost hopeless of rescue. On Tuesday their stock of food was nearly gone, and they were becoming frozen. They saw Northumberland county, last week, a sail and made an effort to attract at burning the barn and instantly killing a tention, but in vais, and they crouched down for another night. On Wednesday they suffered terribly from hunger and cold. Two of the men became crazed and threw themselves about the poat in their delirium. Toward night one of the men went to sleep in the bottom of the boat and died before morning. The two delirious men also died. There were now three dead and five living men in the boat. The living, suffering the pangs of hunger, and hopeless of reief, held a consultation, the result of which was that they opened the veins Oil, which had cured him of a severe of one of their dead comrades, and wet attack of inflammatory rheumatism that their lips and throat with the still warm all other treatments had failed even to Isalah John, N. The living men were frozen purple and hardly able to speak, and their lips and faces were meared with blood. Capt. Packard's feet were badly frozen, although he may possibly recover the use of them. The other men also had badly frozen feet and hands.

GUITEAU'S TRIAL.

The arguments for and against the prayers of the prosecution began on Saturday, Mr. Davidge speaking for the government and Messrs. Reed and Scosassin writhe and to a great extent silenced his abusive tongue. When interrupted by Guiteau on one occasion Judge Porter said, "The prisoner is mistaken, your honor, if he believes by his unseemly brawling he can prevent my voice from being heard by the jury. The suppet cannot be moved in such good me as when he sat with his counsel, and by his outbursts now he is fast tightenng the hangman's noose about his Porter's review of the inspiration theory was scorching in its severity. "Was this worthless vagabond," he exclaimed, the man to be selected and inspired by God ? a cheat, a swindler, a creature of the vilest habits. He then is the junior member of the firm of Jesus Christ & Co .- this murderer tracking his victim at night, church, at the railroad station everywhere, till the deed is done. introduced at the trial of his murderer." Judge Cox then began the reading of his decision which consumed an hour and forty minutes. The first point was relative to jurisdiction. This he decided was complete and the court had full cognizance of the offence. Judge Cox next took up the question of the legal test of insanity, and decided that the knowledge State Senate are doing bad work and the and appreciation of the difference between right and wrong must be taken as the correct test. Upon every material point the Judge's rulings were directly against the prisoner.

When the question of reasonable doubt was reached the Judge said, "I shall not charge the jury to acquit if they find a reasonable doubt as to any one element; but I shall take into consideration and charge them relative to all the elements, D Lamand. A black Friday indeed. and that if from all the circumstances and all the evidence they have a reason able doubt of the commission by the defendant of the crime as charged, then they shall acquit."

Court then adjourned until Thursday morning when Mr. Davidge will make the opening argument to the jury. It begins to look as if the trial was nearing its end and great will be the relief of the people when that event occurs.
