

THE COLUMBIAN.

By Congress do not give Grant his pension, he may consider it necessary to take another trip among his friends, the crowned heads, and cart home enough valuable "souvenirs" to keep him out of the Alms-house. A talented tramp will always work up a good route a second time.—Phila. Chronicle Herald.

Senators Morrill and Dawes of Massachusetts, Hearst of Vermont and Hawley of Connecticut, who voted against Conkling's confirmation as justice of the supreme court, will not have much influence in this administration hereafter.

Arthur's Stalwart appointments must not be treated in such a contemptuous manner, as those who have offended will speedily realize.

W. W. Ker, assistant attorney general, has completed the preparation of the indictments in all the star route cases so far considered by the grand jury.

There are seventeen of these indictments. These have already been endorsed by the grand jury as "true bills." The indictment against Gen. Brady, Dorsey, et al., is a most voluminous document, and contains one of the largest counts ever prepared.

This count exceeds in length any in the famous Tweed cases in New York, which were somewhat remarkable in that respect. It contains one hundred special allegations of fraud, and also covers transactions in twenty-one public contracts.

Where Bad Democrats Go. One of the peculiarities of American politics is that whenever a Democratic politician becomes a defamed and a discredited name, he is not infrequently dropped by his party associates.

He generally finds his way into the front ranks of the other side. There is that fellow Acken, from Louisiana, for instance, who made all sorts of notorious escapades at Washington and elsewhere, until his disgraceful conduct impelled his party associates to nominate another in his place.—he has turned up as a full-fledged Republican candidate for Congress.

He would be an admirable corner stone on which to build up a Republican party in Louisiana.—Pottsville Chronicle (Dem.)

ATTEMPT TO KILL QUEEN VICTORIA. On Thursday evening of last week as Queen Victoria was about entering her carriage, at a railway station in London, a man in the crowd pointed a pistol at her and fired. He attempted to fire a second shot but the pistol was knocked from his hand and he was seized by the police.

The man, who was miserably clad, gave his name as Roderick MacLean, and stated that he had acted as a spy for the Queen. He is 27 years old and is a native of Scotland. The bullet did not strike the carriage and the Queen was not aware of the attempt upon her life. This is the fourth time an assassin has tried to kill her. Messages of sympathy were sent to the Queen by President Arthur and most of the crowned heads of Europe, and many prayers were held in London and the provinces at which resolutions expressing horror at the crime were adopted.

MacLean is undoubtedly insane and has been in an Asylum for some time past. He does not appear to realize the enormity of his offence.

A WORTHLESS INSTITUTION. It has come to be quite generally believed that the State Agricultural College is barren of good results, and unworthy of assistance from the State. There is to be sure a large staff of professors, totally disproportionate to the number of students, but there is no evidence to show that what is taught is of the slightest value to the farming community.

The best thing to do, is to abolish the college and send the property to the State Normal School. A legislative committee is now investigating the affairs of the institution, but it is not probable that their report will materially affect public opinion. In 1879 a legislative committee, appointed for the same purpose, made a report and said therein: "The evidence does not show that the college is a worthy management of the funds received by said institution, yet your committee are of the opinion that the testimony does conclusively indicate that the institution has been very badly managed."

There does not seem to be any good reason why the college should be maintained at the public expense.

News Items. Delegates representing nearly all the coal companies in Luzerne and Lackawanna counties met in Wilkes Barre last Friday in convention. They took into consideration the propriety of organizing a workman's union. The meeting was adjourned to reassemble in general mass meeting at Pittston on the 18th. It is a foregone conclusion that they will demand an increase of wages of ten to twenty per cent.

The Secretary of the treasury has directed a suspension of the collection of taxes, amounting to about $500,000, due on the Reading railroad "pay certificates." Secretary Folger was induced to take this step in view of the fact that two courts have already sustained an injunction to restrain the collection of tax, and four committees of Congress have at different times reported in favor of measures to relieve the road from it. He has, therefore, decided that the legality of the tax should be finally and authoritatively adjudicated before proceeding to collect.

It is the best thing of the kind ever invented, and those who use it will never have anything else. The public is invited to visit our office and compare it with others. As every printing establishment in the country claims to have the largest quantity of job type and the best press, we do not ask you to take our word for it, but call and examine for yourself, and you will find that we have more material than any two offices in Columbia county, and it is nearly all new.
