Easter Celebration

Easter Sunday was not the bright and eautiful day that was hoped for. The sun did not make its appearance and showers fell at intervals during the day, ending with a heavy rain in the evening. Notwithstanding this a large congregation assembled at St. Paul's Episcopal Church at six o'clock in the morning. The Church was beautifully trimmed with flowers, hanging baskets and flowering plants, and the altar and chancel were decked in holiday attire. The services consisted of full Morning prayer, except the Litany, as far as the Ante-Communion. The music, prepared especially for the occasion, was rendered by the excellent quartette choir, Mrs. Thomas Webb taking the place of Miss Maude Freeze, alto, who was prevented from attending by illness, and Miss Brower and Messrs, Wintersteen and Wirt singing their usual parts. The musical portion of the services consisted of the 99th hymn, responses, Easter Anthem, "Christ our Passover", Glorea Pairi, by Danks, Te Deum, by Jesley Jubilate and closed with the 102rd hymn. The second service began at 104 clock and was attended by a still larger congregation than the early meeting. I began with the Litany, followed by the Ante Communion service, a very able and interesting sermon by the Rector, Rev. L. Zahner, and the celebration of the Lord's supper. The choir sang the 104th 105th 107th and 207th hymns, the responses to the commandments. Gloria Tibi. Trisa tion and Gloria in Excelsis The music was under the direction of Geo. E. Elwell.

In the evening the Sunday School had its Easter celebration, consisting of Evening Prayer, carols, the presentation of Easter offerings amounting to about $27.00 for the past six weeks, and an address by the Rector. Miss Katie Davids presided at the organ for the first time and played executors of Benjamin Wintersteen; ad- well. Altogether it was a very pieusant day inside the church and nothing but tor of Orvil Harrison; administrator of the absence of the sun prevented it from being thoroughly enjoyable.

The Reformed congregation here, which Rev. Dechant is pastor, is building a church on the corner of Third and Pine streets. The structure will be of brick, with a large basement suitable for lecture rooms and Sunday School purposes, and a ommodious audience room above. These people should receive substantial encouragenent in their undertaking.

Rev. Reuben E. Wilson, the newly ap-pointed paster of the M. E. Church at this place, met with a very cordial welcome from his congregation on Wednesday the 5th., that being the day he moved his famiby to town. He preached two able and eloquent sermons to large audiences on Easter uiting his subject both morning and evenig to the anniversary of the Resurrection The altar was handsomely decorated with mottnes and flowers

The schools of town recently moved into their new building on the hill. This building is heated with steam and furnished throughout according to the latest and most approved methods. While the building is large and commodious in all its appartments yet the rooms are all occupiedthere being about three hundred and sixty students in regular attendance-giving employment to a corps of six experienced inctors. Altogether the schools and building will compare favorably with any other public school in this section of the State. This is an institution to which the people of town may justly point with pride.

Pine Institute.

The fifth meeting of the Teachers' Local Institute for the district of Pine was held n the church at Iola on the 1st of April. The President, Mr. Eves, called the seting to order at 11 o'clock and requested Mr. J. Emory Eves to furnish us with cusic at intervals during the exercises of the day which he did to the gratification of all present. Beside vocal music by a well drilled choir he gave us band music by six little 8-year old boys.

After dinner the County Superintendent, Mr. Grimes arrived and took charge of the chools we were entertained by able Spring. Mrs. Ida Pealer who has been so speeches by A. P. Young of Greenwood and Dr. Patton of Millville. In the competitive exercises in reading the Superintendent appointed Mr. Smith, Miss Alice Young and Miss Rhen judges.

Miss Rote's school carried off the palm. Mr. Grimes suggested that the exercises be changed and that the subject of improvement in our public schools be discussed by all who felt an interest in education, and the subject was ably discussed by A. P. Young, Dr. Patton, Mr. James Daty, of Luzerne county, Mr. P.
