At a meeting of the Democratic County committee, held in this place Thursday, the 6th inst., a resolution was passed de claring the first choice of the Democrats of Bradford for governor to be Hon. William Elwell, of Columbia county. A better nomination for Governor than that of Judge Elwell could not be made by the party. He fills all the requisites laid down same time and place. Both are improving in the works of Dickens, Scott, etc. by Jefferson. He is capable, honest and slowly. patriotic, and if elected would lend dignity and honor to the office. If nominated he would have a large following in this, the county where he was for a long time, a resident. - Towanda Journal.

The managers of the Bloomsburg Opera House, have had the services of J. F. Wise, of Philadelphia, in the painting of the inside of the building. The drop curtain is undergoing needed repairs, and will no doubt be so arranged as to give better satisfaction are using every means possible to make at the bridge is about completed. the surroundings as pleasing and attractive as taste will permit. It certainly has a fine appearance now and lovers of theatres may be glad to know that the work has been done in so artistic a style, and al for their own comfort.

AN OLDER ONE - Among the matters to be treated of in Col. Freeze's "History of Columbia County," is the bibliography. By the kindness of Judge Painter he has received for inspection a copy of the Columbia County Register of Feb. 9 1830, Vol. 11 No. 47, published by Thomas Painter Esq. well known to our citizens. Among other interesting matter it contains a notice of the marriage of Mr. William Pursel and Miss Susan Fornwald: John G. Montgomery Esquire, and Miss Deborah B. Kehr. and her most untimely death, on the next day, on the way from her father's house to that of her husband's father. Also, the death of the son of Mr. Painter, Mr. Joseph Israel Hainter. The advertisers have all closed business and departed, but the names of William G. Hurley, John McWilliams, Joseph Paxton and John Mehrling have a familiar sound.

The display of Northern lights on Sunday last was something extraordinary. It was after the interests of that paper. The Ga first noticed about 9 o'clock in the evening zette is all that it promised to be and has and continued until after midnight. At times the sky presented such a blood-red appearance that one would have thought there was a great conflagration. At Petersburg, Va. the light was so bright that the street lamps could have been dispensed attend U. S. Court on the coming Satwith. At Chicago the air seemed so chargevening. From the list of managers ed with electricity that the telegraph wires would not work with the batteries connected. At Cleveland, Ohio, it affected a great many persons who were troubled with nervous disorders. The paster of the ly killed last week by falling down the M. E. Church was prostrated in the pulpit traveling way, of the Centralia colliery, a we'lle praying. Ladies fainted in the Church. Those who were out of doors as well as those in the Church complained of oppressive sensations. The display was noticed by a great many people in all sections of the country, and will probably be ever remembered because of its continued brightness. A meeting was held last week in the Wyoming Valley Hotel at Wilkes Barre, to arouse an interest in the people along the Susquehanna river and secure an appropriation for the improvement of the river bed so as to make it navigable from Havre-de-Grace to Athens, and finally to have it reach Elmira and Owego, N. Y. Congressman Scranton was present at the committee should be chosen from among the citizens in and about Wilkes Barre and go before the River and Harbor committee at Washington, some good might be done. A resolution was adopted urging Congressman Scranton to use every effort to secure an appropriation of $100,000. If other Congressmen, whose districts lie along the Susquehanna would bend their efforts to this same end, the time might class dress-maker. Ladies desiring a soon come when this grand river will be dress made to order and in the latest style of some service as a means of transporta- would do well to patronize Ida.

William M. Quick left his home Bloomsburg on Thursday morning, April 6th for the purpose as he said, of bringing iome a horse he had purchased of a Mr Johnson, in Danville, on the previous Tues day. He went to Rupert on foot, called to brother, said he was going to get or buy a horse, bought a ticket at the L. & B. office for Danville, and from that time to this has not been seen by anybody so far as his friends can ascertain. His failure to return on Thursday evening excited no alarm, as he had said if he did not get the Johnson horse he would look about till he did get one. Not returning on Friday evening his friends became uneasy and began making train at Rupert and no one saw him get off there on Tuesday and was to return on Thursday but did not. Inquiries at Danville, Northumberland and Sunbury, and along the canal where he is well known return no word of him, and at Milton and other points, are equally fruitless. A Railroad Fight.

The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company has filed a bill in equity in this county asking the Court to grant an injunction to restrain the North & West Branch Railway Company from crossing their track at grade near Rupert bridge The bill alleges that the crossing at grade is impracticable, and that it would be very dangerous to both companies, the situation being such that it would be impossible for inquiries. But no one saw him get on the an engineer on either road to see a train coming on the other in time to stop. The at Danville, and Mr. Johnson says he was N. & W. B. Railway Company in their answer allege that the crossing will be no more dangerous than any other of the same kind, and they are numerous; that it is the only practicable method of crossing, as an everhead trestling would destroy the grade and be very expensive, and a crossing further down the track would necessitate reat amount of excavation. They also set up an article of agreement entered into be tween the two companies, in which the complainant fully agrees that the crossing should be made at grade, and at the point now proposed. Testimony was heard in the case by Judge Elwell, on Wednesday, S. P. Wolverton representing the Philadel phia & Reading Company and H. W. Pal-Railway Company.
