General Hancock is the guest Judge Black at York this week.

The Supreme court is now in session at Harrisburg.

The Wilkes Barre Record has re moved the Cameron ticket from the head of its editorial columns and comes out squarely for the independents.

The Republican sneers at the "dear" people. No wonder! It is the "dear" people that have risen up in their wrath and propose to drive from office the whole Cameron clan, and to put an end to one man despotism.

Congress has been in session over four months and only four out of four teen regular appropriation bills have been passed. As the Republicans have a majority they must take the respons-ibility of this slow legislation.

It is likely that the Harrisburg convention will reassemble to nominate a candidate for Congressman at-large in place of Thomas H. Marshall, declined. John Wanamaker of Philadelphia is spoken of as the probable nomince.

The dead lock in the House has been broken by the arbitrary ruling of Speaker Kiefer in refusing to entertain and have published to the State that the Democrats had a majority, did just what the Democratic minority is doing now. They filibustered. Then it was all right, but now it is revolutionary and treasonable, according to their way of thinking. It makes a difference whose ox is gored.

The Khedive of Egypt has made an unconditional surrender to Aribi Bey and the army, and although he still remains on the throne, the minister of war is virtually the ruler of Egypt. This is the state of affairs at present and so it will probability of any compromise, and therefore Demoand so it will probably remain, until the foreign powers use sufficient force to change it.

Don Cameron is now threatening that unless the business men stand by him in his present fight, he will take them down with him. He says that if they want to stab him he is ready to receive the blow, and will then oppose a tariff as heartily as he has favored it. After he is stripped of his power, his opposition to a tariff will not hurt it

When the Democracy of this county adopts the methods of the republicans in the election of delegates to state conventions we shall certainly condemn its practices. It is true that our dele-gates are selected by the county comgates are selected by the county committee, but there the likeness ends. Our would hardly be manifested if their delegates to the county convention are cause were just. delegates to the county convention are chosen by the people, their's are self appointed; our members of stand-ing committee are elected by the peo-ple, their's are appointed by delegates self-appointed. sition to a tariff will not hurt icans who want to read all the news much.

The steamer Celtic, with four survivors of the Jeannette expedition, Lieu tenant Danenhower, Dr. Newcomb, Charles Fon Sing and Jacob Cole arrived at New York on Sunday morning. Lieutenant Danenhower has nearly lost his eyesight, and Jacob Cole has lost his mind, both the result of the terrible sufferings they underwent in the Arc-

Already the republican campaign committee of Congress, has levied its assessments on office holders for funds to carry on the campaign. Even the page boys are taxed ten dollars each, and the scrub women who keep the floors of the public buildings clean are made to pay assessments. The republican party year after year, declares in favor of civil service reform, and then puts in practice a system that it con-demns in its platform. How much longer will the American people submit to the supremacy of a party that so constantly ignores the principles that it professes to be governed by ?

To bolster up his declining dynasty Don Cameron proposes to repeat the "business men's" campaign trick of campaign trick of 1880, and threatens that unless the one 1880, and threatens that unless the one man rule is continued in this State that he will oppose a tariff. In other words he will oppose a tariff. In other words he has favored protection, not as a principle, but in order to retain the support of Republicans. Now he thinks to frighten the business men of that party into submission by the same means that were used in 1880. It is doubtful whether the game will work a second time. The simple fact is that Cameron is badly scared, and his emper is getting away from him.

Ex-governor Curtin, speaks the following words of wisdom which should be heeded by the party throughout the

"As for the Democrats of Pennsyl vania they ought to understand that Senator Cameron now bases his only hope of success upon their own blun-ders. Nothing else can save him. But the Democrats will make no blun ders. They will move on independent of the quarrels among their opponents, nominate a straight, clean Democratic ticket and poll a full Democratic vote. That is the best they can do. Anything like coalition is suicide. It is nonsense. It can't be done. And if it could it ought not to be done.'

The Reading Times, Cameron Republican, has the following:

"There is much curiosity in Penn sylvania now to see who the Democrats will nominate for Governor The Philadelphia delegation is reported to be nearly solid for Pattison, while in the Western part of the State Hopkins has picked up a number of delegates. The contest will become more earnest from the present time until the Convention meets.'

That is all true, and it shows that no boss dominates the Democrats. They choose their candidates in convention, no back parlor arrangement for them.

There has been no "curiosity" what-ever about who the Stalwarts would nominate, since Cameron gave the command in favor of Beaver-nor was there any from the date of the order till the meeting of the convention, everybody knew who it would bethe brass medal 306 being round his neck. And now to carry the Beaver ticket Cameron comes to Philadelphia, threatens and bull-dozes the business men and may again frighten John Welsh to raise a corruption fund ; and as Dorsey will not be tried till after election, he may be sent into Pennsyl-vania to corrupt the election. that the proposition proves that they vania to corrupt the election.
