The Monroe Democrat is urging the name of the Hon, Samuel S. Dreher, president judge of the counties of Monroe and Carbon, for the nomination for Governor of the State.

Hon. John B. Storm of Monroe county, who represented Wayne for two terms in Congress when we were in the old district, is a candidate for the Democratic Congressional nomination in the Eleventh district. Judge Harry E. Packer, of Carbon, it is said, has aspirations in the same direction.

The assessment of pages and laborers at Washington by the Congressional Republican Committee, for campaign purposes is now explained as a mistake. The same mistake has been made for many years, but it was not discovered until now, when the system is denounced on the floor of the Senate.

Judge Trunkey has positively declined to be a candidate for governor. In a letter written to a committee appointed by the Democratic convention of Venango county on Tuesday to request the privilege of using his name before the state convention he states that in no event would he accept the nomination.

A Western Tornado.

A tornado swept through central Iowa last Saturday night, from north-west to southeast for twenty miles north west to southeast for twenty miles north of Des Moines. The town of Grinnell was struck by it and half the town left in ruins, including the buildings of Cornell College. Freight trains were caught in the wind and lifted from the tracks. The loss of life was terrible. Houses were destroyed along the line of the storm, and the occupants buried in the debris.

The surgeons report that thirty-one are dead at Grinnell, and that five or six more cannot live. The number of wounded exceeds 150, and the number of houses destroyed is between 140 and 150. The total loss of property is now estimated at $600,000. It is feared that the number of deaths at Grinneil will reach seventy-five. News has been received that Mr. James, wife and two daughters, and two other persons living four miles northwest of Grinnell are dead. It is now thought that the loss of life outside of Grinnell will reach twenty-five, and the total loss nearly

Congressman Bayne of Allegheny threw some hot shot among the Stal-wart members of the House on Monday. He is one of the men whom Cameror has determined to defeat for re-election because he has a mind of his own and will not be controlled by the boss. The question under discussion was a bill providing that hereafter collectors of internal revenue shall be appointed every four years. The object of this bill, he said, was not to promote the public service, but to promote political purposes. Until a very short time it had never been cause of complaint that officials who discharged their duties faithfully and well should have a limit put upon the tenure of their offices, and no such law had been demanded until within a comparatively recent period, and, as he must think and be-lieve, for no other purpose in the world committee was to prevent controversy about the positions and to have the o ficers secure in their places. But who tration and its policy of proscription? Their positions and their tenure were regarded as secure until this time. "The complaint is made," continued Mr. Bayne, "and comes from many quarters—from political quarters and for political reasons only: 'Oh, these men have held their positions for ten years and for twelve years and for fifteen years and for sixteen years and therefore they should be removed. But, sir, that is the argument of the politician. Why, sir, the purposes of this bill contravene the purposes of the times and the meaning of sound civil service. The purpose of this bill is to enable the adminipose of this bill is to enable the adminipose of this bill is to enable the adminipose of the service of the service to relieve itself of the emission to relieve itself of the emi barrassment of removing competent officers at the solicitation of political

A comparison of the amounts appro priated in former years and the rapid ncrease of these demands will do much to reveal the size and enormity of the job. In 1869-70 the amount appropriated in this bill was less than $4, 000,000 , in 1870-71 it was $4,400,000; in 1871 82, $5,558,000: in 1872-73 it was $5,193,000. THE ASSASSIN GIVES UP HOPE, BUT SAYS HE WILL TRUST IN THE LORD.

Justice Bradley, of the United States supreme court, has stated that an ap-plication has been made to him by Mr. Charles H. Reed, the attorney for Guiteau, for a writ of habeas corpus, but he has not as yet decided what disposition to make of the application. Guitean spends most of the time in reading the Bible and shedding tears. He has given up all hope. Colonel Reed, his counsel, says he can do noth-ing more for him, and he has advised the assassin to prepare for the worst. He will certainly be hanged on the 30th. Few visitors now go to the jail, and a strict watch is kept on the con demned man. Reed will make an ef-fort to have the President pardon Gui-teau, but he has been assured in ad-vance that it will be useless, and that the law must take its course. Every expedient has been tried to save the wretch, but all have failed.
