TOLIDAYS - DRUGS - ADDENMENTS - SEA-BATH ING-SPECULATION-RIVER AND HARBOR BILL-&c . - &c . - &c.

PHILADELPHIA Aug. 15, 1882. Some of the people whose holiday time ame early in the summer are now returning to swelter in the August heat. They are well sun-browned and have brought home a fair stock of renewed health. Yet the truly happy fellows are they who now begin their summering and keep at it until the opening of September ushers in the cool evenings.

The hot and dusty spell of last week has riven way to pleasant breezes and cooling howers. The city is now endurable, in tead of being the furnace it was. And ye he country boarding places in the vicinity and the sea shore resorts within two o hree hours ride are packed, and may be xpected to continue so all this month.

DRUGS AND THE DRUGGISTS. There is a good deal of stir just now over the way in which some of the druggists put up physicians' prescriptions. At the leading apothecary stores there is no difficulty, for they do business enough to make it pay to keep an ample stock of pure medicines of any variety that may be called for. Some of the cheaper concerns if they do not happen to have what is called for, put in what they consider the next best thing. Sometimes this proves to be something which is merely inert, and sometimes it is mischievous. Sometimes they have the article called for, but of an inferior quality. The physicians and the better class of druggists justly protest gainst this sort of business.

THE LADIES AND THEIR JEWELRY. Visitors to sea-side resorts this summer have noticed the fact that ladies are wear ing much more jewelry than was formerly customary at these places. It is seen in every form, from the comparatively plain day and Tuesday of last week by means silver lace pin to the elegant and costly of the steam pumping machinery. The diamond finger rings and ear-rings. The water is about twelve feet deep, and some gold jewelry, such as takes shape in lacehundreds of tons of sand were sucked up pins and bracelets is specially noticeable through a six inch hose and discharged for its beauty, its varied forms and the below the pier. The diver, while guiding novelty and eccentricity of the designs in the hose at the bottom of the river, found | which it is made. > The whole list of stock shows lower prices within the last few days. This is principally owing to the absence of a great many of the most lively operators. Last year most of these gentlemen were at summer resorts where "tickers" gave them, every minute, the prices of the leading fancies. They found the strain on their nerves too much for them, when they wanted rest and health. This year there is less "ticker" and more leisure. The grain fluctuations of the last ten days. especially in wheat, have been very acive, owing chiefly to the contradictory eports about the crops, Corn has unced up and down with variations no xceeding three or four cents. Invitation. Strangers are invited to visit our store, when in Philadelphia, to leave packages there, and to make a convenience of it generally. It is a handy place, right by the new City Hall, at the very center of the city. It answers our purpose to welcome you, and to provide for such of your wants NO UNPLEASANT ODOR as we can. The store is about twice as large as it was two or three years ago; made so by digging under ground and building overhead, and by extension on Chestnut street. Parts of the store are about as comfortable as any place can be; and one of the most comfortable parts is now being got ready for the rest and refreshment of strangers. One of the pleasant things about the store always has been the fact that you can walk all over it, either alone or with a guide, without ever being asked to buy a thing. We know very well that most of you come to us for a good share of your supplies; why should we spoil your visit by intruding goods upon your attention, when you come to see the place? But perhaps you are not coming to Philadelphia just now. Very well; take a cooler time. It's cool enough in the store, when you get here. You can write for any goods that you may happen to want; and get them, probably, just as well as if you were on the spot. Any how, you know, you can return whatever you get that you don't like.

We sell more sorts of things than we can put into an advertisement. So, whatever you want, suppose you drop us a line. We'll help you if we can.
