Calling names is not first-class campaigning. But there is a curiously clever euphony in the country editor's didate for Governor "Kassidy's Kid." -Philadelphia Bulletin. And there is no less euphony or truth in calling another candidate "Kameron's Kalf," the members of his own rigiment that is no less euphony or truth in calling another candidate "Kameron's Kalf," or "Don's Donkey," or "Grant's Goat."

He was elected as Senator of the United States, from Georgia in 1877, which position he still der of the Republican party in the lear party in the State. You would be surretained. His death is not only a loss county—recognized as such by his to the State from which he was sent, but because of his liberal views, is a sad calamity for the whole nation. law to the Republican voters, and his During his stay in the Senate he has been of much good to his country.

The steamer Republic left the Race street wharf, Philadelphia, on Monday morning, having on board from 1500 to 2000 excursionists en route for Cape May. At Cross Ledge Light the crossheads of the engine were broken and the party were taken back to Philadeiphia on board the Felton. They reached their homes next morning at 9:30, but should have returned at 2 the after. noon before. Quite a great deal of excitement was caused by their delay, as the party consisted of a Sunday school, mostly women and children.

The Altoona Tribune said some time ago that "it ought to be soon evident to Republican leaders that the party cannot long stand the scandalous conduct of this man Hubbel. Let him be suppressed at once." But he was not suppressed. On the contrary, he is get-ting ready to be elected to the United States Senate, and the Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania proposes to put where it will do most good the money raised by Hubbel's blackmail levy on the matrons and nurses, ostlers and laborers, the crippled soldiers and pensioners who happen to be on the government pay roll.

Arrangments are being made for celebrating the bi-centennial anniversary of the landing of William Penn at Philadelphia, in October. On the first or civic day there will be at least 25, 000 participants. On the trades day it is expected that at least 50,000 men of all branches of industry, with tools, machinery, etc., will be in line. On musical day 3,000 musicians will be on the platform, including Welsh and Ger man societies from all parts of the Un ion. On October 27th 10,000 soldiers of the state, and visiting associations, together with 10,000 members of the G. A. R., will take part in a grand mil itary pageant.

If Beaver had been a strictly honest and conscientious man he would either have represented the sentiment of his constituents or have declined to go as a representative. To accept the position of delegate, and then support his personal preferences in opposition to the positive instructions of his constituents, was certainly dishonest and warrants the inference that he will practice the same deception on the people of this State it he should be elected Governor. If he desires to express and represent his individual preferen ces he should remain in a private staright to do as he pleases.— Wilkes Barre Record (Rep).

It seems that the Republican candidate for governor has offended some of to make political capital out of his military record, the falsity of some of his pretensions is exposed by the Bellefonte Watchman, an influential and responsible newspaper published at his own home. From this it appears that, like office of governor he would never have anything to do with the Grand Army of the Republic. "As soon as he be came an aspirant for office he made application and was admitted as a mem ber, and a number of gentlemen here abouts, who were original members, strongly suspected at the time, that he entered it for no other purpose than to try to use it for his own political ad-vancement. The suspicions that were aroused when he was first taken into the order have been varied, and the members of that organization can know conceit of calling the Democratic can- exactly why he enrolled himself as a member and took the pledges required would secure their pledge to vote for him but few of them will admit. In the service he was distant, autocratic Benjamin H. Hill, of Georgia, who and domineering toward his men ; since offices, revenue offices and other places to fill, not five of them are presided over

"The only soldiers we know of occupying official positions within the county are David Glenn, A. H. Miller, Capt. Vanvalin and Colonel Stewart of these, Miller got his position through the efforts of Ed Bianchard, and Van valin was appointed before Beaver took any part in polities. He may have signed Glenn's application for place, and we believe he secured Stewart's appointment of postmaster at the state college, although to do so he was compelled to have removed a very estimable and deserving lady, who had filled the place for many years. Outside of these, can any one point to a single soldier occupying a paying place would have secured for Capt. Bayard the post-office at this place. Yet it, the best paying office is best paying office in the county, is filled by Mr. John Johnston, who soldiered less than the writer of this article, ed by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

and that was mighty little. "Since his return from the army the Democrats have had upon their ticket a number of soldiers, and their competitors have mostly been civilians. not a single instance did he vote for one of them. Last fall the Republicans of the county had two candidates for commissioners—the one a soldier, the other a civilian, and it is a noto-rious fact that Gen. Beaver's influence, efforts and sympathies were thrown against the soldier, Mr. Campbell, a member of his own old regiment, the 148th, and in favor of Mr. Rankin, who remained at home. "Such has been Mr. Beaver's record of friendship for the support of soldiers here at home. The soldiers of the county know it, the people know it, and when we now hear that a large number of Republican soldiers positive ly refuse to sign a pledge to vote for him it is neither strange nor unexpected.

The Shoe that Pinches.

The success of Robert E. Pattison as a practical reformer, is the shoe that pinches the feet of the Bosses. From the way it huits them they must have corns. They did not enter the campaign provided with defence against an assult of this kind. No man, be he a boss or otherwise, likes to have his corns pinched. How they worry over this line of Democratic attack. When they read the reform record of Mr. Pattison, they become almost as furious as a bull when a red flag is flaunted at him. They can't stand it. It would not be half so bad, did it not carry with it a stern rebuke. After an unobstructed, and almost unquestioned, control of public administration for twenty years, they have not a single reform to present the people. It is too much to bear, when they realize that the great reformer of the day is a Democrat, and a young man at that. Let us look at his record; it is the nicest kind of reading for tax payers. Since Mr. Pattison has been in the control-ler's office—and put there by the joint votes of Democrats and Republicans, mind that ye bosses and political ma chinists—his efficient service have pro moted the cause of municipal reform and affected:

1st. A steady reduction of the city A reduction in the department 2d. 3d. A reduction in the tax-rate.

This is a great record; a record few men can show. Few old, experienced adminstrators of the public service can show such well doing; but when it belongs to a young man, it is worthy of all acceptation. Why are the Bosses so silent over Seaver's reform record? Has he any Unfortunately he has a record, and the record is not a good one. As president of the board of trustees of the Pennsylvania Agricultural college, he had every opportunity to institute reform his party, and especially those who were as good soldiers as himself. On trying shut eyes and ears to complaints, and let the institution be run along in the same old rut. About half a million of dollars have been squandered, and worse than nothing accomplished. If Beaver could not introduce reforms into an agricultural college, how can he do it many other politicians, Beaver is "the in the State government? There is soldier's friend" when he has an axe to only one safe course to pursue—elect only one safe course to pursue—elect Pattison governor. His record is The Watchman says that until Bea-ver became an anxious aspirant for the right down to the hardpan of true re form, by saving money for the people. This is the way to do it, and this is the way it will continue when Pattison becomes governor. He has been stop ping leaks through mouse holes in th controller's office, but he will find rat oles in Harrisburg His reform stop per will stop them up. The people have been fed so long on spread eagle promises they are disgusted; they want more substantial food, which they will get in Pattison. He was nominated because of the splendid record he had already made, and not because of promises. His past is his guarntee for the future — Doylestown Democrat.

The Outlook on the Northern Tier.
