FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1st, 1882.

Notice to Democrats.

Last day for being assessed and registered—Thursday, September 7th.

Last day for paying taxes—Saturday, October 7th.

Last day for being naturalized—Saturday, October 7th.

The Carbon county Democrats will hold their convention on the 4th of September.

On the 12th of September Gov. Hoyt will be in Easton to receive the national council of Red Men on behalf of the State.

H. M. Saylor Esq., a prominent member of the Bar of Honolale will probably be appointed Judge to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge C. P. Waller.

There are four candidates for state senate in this district. They are Hart of Lyncburg, Barz of Montour, Deegan of Sullivan, and McHenry of Columbia. The contest in the conference will be a warm one.

Only a few weeks ago Don Cameron threatened to turn free trader if the manufacturers of the State did not support his ticket. Now Simon Cameron comes to the front and says the Independent cannot be in the interest of free trade. Can it be possible that Don contemplated joining the Independent?

Mr. Simon Cameron's statement that the Independent movement in Pennsylvania has been set on foot by the free traders will be found interesting by Mr. Wharton Barker, the high priest of the Independents and one of the most advanced and earnest of American protectionists. It is to be feared that toothache in the Cameron family—N. Y. World.

About 150 pension certificates are transmitted daily. The average amount paid to each successful claimant under the act is $12.00. Thus we have a daily drain on our treasury of about $180,000, or $1,000,000 a week. An additional force of 500 clerks will be at work soon, then it is expected that double the work will be done. This will make the yearly appropriation reach one hundred millions.

Circulars are being sent to soldiers in different sections of the country, by western parties, stating that for the sum of $100 one hundred and sixty acres of good land will be secured without the formality of occupying it for four years—less the time of service, as provided by law. The land commissioner at Washington states that the law remains unchanged, and that the circulars for the purpose of deception. Soldiers will therefore take warning.

A dispatch to the Philadelphia Press from Bloomsburg says "that there are no Independents worthy of mention in this county." Last year Wolfe received 127 votes, though there was no organization, and no general distribution of his ticket. This year with an active committee and the influence of many leading Republicans who have tired of the Cameron yoke, the vote will be much larger than the number of the dispatch will be pleased to hear of.

Forney's Progress, not a political journal, but first-class in society matters, has this to say of the Independent in a late issue: "If his youth is the most serious objection to the Democratic candidate for governor his opponents have a hard road to travel. Pattison has already filled important offices, and despite his youth so filled them as to make a record for honesty and ability which drew to his support many of all political factions. If the present condition of American politics is due to the management of old men the sooner we try young ones the better. Pattison's enemies will have to fight him for other faults. No voter of his age because he is young, and many like him for exactly that reason."

Money figured largely in the prohibition campaign in Iowa, being used lavishly in defraying the expenses of temperance orators and the cost of brass bands, halls for speaking, and the other features of an energetic canvass. The Treasurer's report at the recent Prohibitionist Convention figures up the entire outlay of the campaign at $336,182, of which all but $72,033 had been previously subscribed. The opponents of the Prohibition party appear to have been very niggardly or over-confident of success. The whole amount subscribed by them for a campaign fund did not exceed $12,000. They now regret their close-fistedness, and express the opinion that the vote on the Prohibition amendment might have been in their favor if they had been as free in their use of money as the temperance men.

The Democratic Congressional Conference for the Eleventh district will meet at March Chunk September 6th. The district embraces Pike, Monroe, Carbon, part of Lackawanna, part of Luzerne, Columbia and Montour counties. It is curiously shaped, and was made to dissipate the several thousand Democratic votes in this section so as to secure safe Republican districts adjacent. The very large Democratic majority in the Eleventh district, and there are usually plenty of candidates and stubborn contests for the nomination. This year there will likely be six names before the convention to select a candidate from. Pike county will probably draw A. E. Lewis, Monroe will name John W. Starn, Lackawanna will probably instruct for J. M. C. Rank and Luzerne will support J. A. Gorman while the Carbon county conferees will be the choice of this county, and George W. Miles, of Montour. Columbia county urges her claim to the nomination on the ground that she has presented not only the ablest man in the district, but one of national reputation. To this she adds the fact that she has always rolled up a large vote for the Democratic ticket, Hancock's majority being over 2,000, and it has been thirty-five years since one of her citizens has represented her in Congress, and only one in seventy years. Lackawanna, Carbon, Montour, Monroe, Luzerne have all had Congressmen in recent years.

The nomination ought to be conceded to us without a contest, and the conference could do itself no greater credit than by nominating Mr. Buckalew unopposed on the first ballot.

Colored Independents.

The following call has been issued for a mass meeting of the colored voters of Philadelphia, to declare emancipation from those bondage, and the character of the men whose names are appended thereto gives the best assurance that the movement must largely divide the colored vote of that city:

EMANCIPATION FROM BOSSES.

We, the undersigned citizens of Philadelphia, fully awake to the demands upon our civil and political rights and appreciating the duty and requirements of freemen generally, with whom we have a common interest, and discerning the present attitude of parties in Pennsylvania, seeing the necessity of giving a manly expression publicly of our views and purposes bearing on the coming contest, do propose, in order to further this object, to hold a public meeting at Liberty Hall, Lombard street, below Eighth, Monday evening, September 4, 1882, to be addressed by eminent speakers in sympathy with the Independent Republican movement in Pennsylvania.

More Trouble for the Stalwarts.

The Stalwarts of the state are meeting with greater troubles than they anticipated in securing the endorsement of Cameron and the ring, through the success of their candidate, Beaver. The revolt of the white Independents has produced unexpected fruit, and the colored voter is coming to the front, vigorously demanding the right to vote as he pleases. Ever since the enfranchisement of the negro as a voter a few of the pretended leaders, who if they have not more brains have more brass, than the average colored voter, have assumed to direct and dictate how the entire colored vote shall be cast, and have gone so far as to demand and receive pay for their influence in controlling that vote. Tiring of being used as the marketable property of W. D. Forten, W. L. Nesbit and a few others who have captured the organization of the Equal Rights League, to run it for their individual advantage, the colored voters of Pittsburgh last week held a meeting to protest against the actions of these assumed leaders. Mr. Smith, colored candidate for jury commissioner, was the principal speaker, and denounced the man in which the State League is operated. The resolutions denounced "Forten, Nesbit and the entire machine," and declare that the State League has made its nest sale of the colored voters of Allegheny City to the bosses of Philadelphia. The colored voters of Wilkesbarre on Saturday last held a similar indignation meeting, and did not stop at denouncing the leaders who were making arrangements to sell their votes, but went further and declared their intention to support the Independent Republican ticket, which they declare is the representative of the underlying principles of the Republican party.

In addition to the revolt among the colored men of Pittsburgh and Wilkesbarre, a colored Pattison club was last week organized in Harrisburg with a membership of twenty-four, and a new paper called the Spectator, owned and edited by colored men, has made its appearance in Philadelphia, flying at its mast the entire Independent ticket. The Spectator is said to be backed financially by Robert Purvis and James Stills, two of the most influential colored men in the state. It is particularly bitter against Forten, Nesbit, Casey & Co., whom it charges with money by the sale of the colored vote at every election.

Mr. Cooper will need to be looking closely along his lines, for when there is trouble in the colored ranks there is good cause for uneasiness in the camp of the bosses.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

The Assessment Robbery.

Partisan interference in the popular elections, whether of State officers or of city or county officials, is reprehensible, and for whomsoever and against whomsoever it may be exercised, or the payment of any contribution or assessment on salaries or official compensation for party or election purposes, will be regarded by him (the President) as cause for removal.—Secretary Webster's Letter, March 10, 1841.

First. That we unequivocally condemn the use of patronage to support personal political ends and require that all offices bestowed within the party shall be upon the sole basis of fitness.

Second. That we condemn all assessments for political purposes and proscription for failure to respond either to such assessments or to requests for voluntary contributions, and that any policy of political proscription is unjust and calculated to disturb party harmony.

Third. We denounce the system which makes patronage and spoils out of the public offices; we denounce the practice of giving titles to political managers for use in inducing personal political ends; we denounce the removal of faithful and competent officers, in the absence of a public reason; we denounce the practice of levying assessments and demanding contributions, for party use, from public officers; we denounce the practice of levying assessments on the basis of party loyalty, and we denounce the practice of levying assessments on the basis of party loyalty, and we denounce the practice of levying assessments on the basis of party loyalty.

General Weaver speaks often, very often indeed, and two often for his own advantage before the multitude, but the important planks of his own platform against the perversion of patronage and the assessment robbery, have thus far been entirely unnoticed by him. Even the Grangers who have been glad to nominate him, and the people generally are most anxious for an expression from him on what they regard as among the most vital issues of the contest. Won't General Weaver get down to bed-rock common sense one of these days, and talk about the real issues of the battle.—Phila. Times.

The Independent Republicans claim 3,000 votes in Bradford county.

A permanent restoration of exhausted and worn-out functions follow the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.

Candidate Stewart and Candidate Beaver did not meet at the grangers' picnic on Thursday. Candidate Beaver fled when no man pursued, and Candidate Stewart did not arrive. But Candidate Stewart does not propose to let Candidate Beaver escape. He calculates on catching him in Somerset county in a week or two.
