SILAS M. CLARK.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Hon. Silas M. Clark is a resident of the beautiful little town of Indiana, in Indiana county, where he has dwelt for many years.

He is widely known throughout his own and surrounding counties, and has the respect, confidence and friendship of all classes of citizens.

Eminent as a lawyer, he adores every relation of life and meets and discharges all the duties of advanced citizenship in a great commonwealth.

He is not a "politician" in the perverted popular sense of that word, and in every case in which office or distinction came to him it was not of his own seeking.

His nomination to the high and responsible office of Judge of the Supreme Court, is a deserved tribute to his professional ability, and to his personal worth.

MR. CLARK'S POLITICAL RECORD.

But Silas M. Clark is not one of those men who avoid politics as a dirty trick of political schemers, he never ran away from public duties.

He has frequently represented his county in Democratic State Conventions and was ever ready to lend his name as a candidate for office.

Profoundly versed in the law, and just in all his dealings with men, he has long been regarded a fit man to grace the judicial bench.

In 1869 while yet in his 36th year, Mr. Clark's name was presented, without his knowledge or consent, before the Democratic State Convention for Supreme Judge.

He received between 40 and 50 votes. Hon. Cyrus L. Pershing was nominated.

The following year he was tendered the unanimous Democratic nomination for President of the Indiana State Normal School, which was then in the infancy of its existence.

He was elected to the position, and served for two years, during which he was instrumental in securing the school a permanent location, and in securing the passage of the act which provided for its maintenance.
