THE MAJORITY ABOUT 25,000

A GAIN OF TEN CON. GRESSMEN CONCEDED

NEW YORK, PENNSYLVANIA, AND CONNECTICUT WILL FOLLOW.

Our Rooster insists on crowing, but as he will need all his strength for next month in our own state, we restrain him. Ohio, one of the strongholds of Republicanism, has fallen into the Democratic column. Doomsday has come for the Stalwarts, and the result in Ohio on Tuesday has made Pennsylvania sure for a Democratic victory. The news comes too late for further particulars.

place the Independents polled 49,988 votes in 1881, and expended less than $4,000 for all sorts of campaign expenses. If General Beaver's political calculations for the campaign are no bet-ter than his knowledge of the history of last year's campaign, it isn't surprising that he still dreams of his election to Gubernatorial chair.-Phila.

Mr. Pattison will Come Out and Speak.

Chairman Hensel confirms the statement that between now and election day Mr. Patrison will go out into the State. He will not exactly "take the stump," nor has there been any change in the programme laid down by the State committee at the outset of the State committee at the outset of the campaign when it was announced that Mr. Pattison would be seen and heard enough to give sufficient pressure to throw at different points in the state during the campaign. He will visit Mr. R. the campaign. He will visit Mr. A. Packer, of Bradford county, this week, in pursuance of an invitation accepted months ago, and besides visiting Towarda, the terminus of his trip, he will meet the people of Hazleton, Drifton, Mauch Chunk, Wilkes Barre and Scranton. The week following will be the occasion of a short trip to Erie, which will take in Clarion and the oil towns, Corry and Warren, and a

The sneer of General Beaver, relative to the howling of the Independent can didates for office, comes with bad grace from that gentleman, as he has been howling for office for seven long years and never could get the shadow of a chance till he misrepresented his constituents at Chicago at the behest of Senator Cameron. Then he got as his reward a nomination which merely doomed him to certain defeat. As for Mr. Brosius, he was opposed to bossism in a weak way till he received a nomination at the hands of the bosses, and then he became one of the most servite advocates of the machine. Yet all Independent Republicans will echo his hope that every man will vote to the satisfaction of his own conscience. If every Republican votes as his conscience dictates the Independent ticket will be elected and Messrs. Beaver and Brosius and their associates will be left with only the bosses, their lieutenants, the chronic officeholders and chronic officeseekers.

There is considerable manufacturing at Bloomsburg, and the indications are that of it will increase rapidly. Among the oldest enterprises may be mentioned the Bloomsburg Iron Company, which operates two furnaces, owned mostly by Eastern capitalists. Between 150 and 290 men are employed. The furnaces were started in 1844 on a capital of $200,000. When both stacks are in blast, about 12,000 tons of iron are turned out per annum. The comit of the most service and the hands of superior of searly "neutral," and is of superior brogge comes the Bloom furnace, the building of which commenced in 1853, and it was successfully "blown in" in 1854, under the strength of the building of which commenced in 1853, and it was successfully "blown in" in 1854, under the satisfaction of his own conscience. If every Republican votes as his conscience dictates the Independent ticket will be elected and Messrs. Beaver and Brosius and their associates will be left wi officeseekers.

The Latest Stalwart Move-

In its last extremity the Stalwart state committee has placed M. S. Quay in charge of the campaign, and hi latest strategy has just come to light. For several weeks he has had Delaney, Gallagher and a number of other Irish politicians who are in his pay, in different sections of the State, verbally circulating the false Pattison speech against the Irish, and getting the names and addresses of every Irish voter in the State. Priests have been applied to in several instances for these names, but without being informed of the real use to be made of them, and Quay now has the name and address of some forty thousand Irish voters in the State, to whom a circular will soon be sent, containing the false speech that Quay has invented to be circulated as Pattison's speech, saying, that the O's and Mc's must go to the rear, etc. They will have the circular appear to be sustained by Democratic authority, and it will be in the hands of the forty thousand Irish voters within the next ten days. Delancy is also expected to have this false speech published in the New York Tablet, a leading Catholic journal, and if that can be effected, a large edition of the paper will be obtained and a copy sent to each of the names on Quay's forty thousand list. Delaney hopes to use the New York Tablet in this matter as he used the Catholic Standard of Philadelphia in 1878, when the Standard was deceived by the Dill Know-Nothing falsehood. It is regarded as doubtful whether the Tablet can be imposed upon by a false speech prepared by Quay, when the purpose to deceive Irish voters is so ransparent.

This trick will recoil with fearful rengeance on the party that has atempted it.

BLOOMSBURG.

WHAT A PERSS REPORTER FOUND OUT.

The Philadelphia Press of Friday week ontains a long article on Bloomsburg. There are some errors in statistics, but it writer says:

The town of Bloomsburg was laid out and named as early as 1803 by a German settler named Ludwig Eyer. In 1846 it became the county-seat of Columbia, after a long and bitter fight with Danville, which had previously been the capital. In order to decide the question the Legislature passed an act authorizing a vote on the question of a relocation of the county-seat, and it was decided by a popular vote to remove it to Bloomsburg, the latter place furnishing the land and erecting the buildings, the money for that purpose having ings, the money for that purpose having been raised by public subscription. This was in 1845, and it was thought that peace rictory. The news comes too late for further particulars.

The notorious Harry Hubn, clerk of the House, whose personal compensation is $3,972 per annum, and who has charge of the disbursement of nearly $11,000, besides for "contingent expenses, etc," is an earnest supporter of Beaver. He well knows that the wholesale jobbery that has made Pennsylvania a by word and a reproach among her sister states will cease with the election of Robert. E. Pattison.

General Beaver is getting worse than ever. In addition to his awful mix in delivering the wrong speech, he is now terribly mixed in his arithmetic. He is reported in the West Chester Record as saying that "it took $43,000 to get 29,000 votes for the Independent ticket in 1881." Unless General Beaver is strangely misrepresented in his own organ, he should be presented with a copy of The Times Almanac and a table exhibiting the simple rules of additon and multiplication. In the first place the Independents polled 49,988 yetes in 1881, and exceended less than NAMING THE TOWN. When Mr. Eyer gave the settlement the name of Bloomsburg he was doubtless impressed with the beauty of the location, and felt that there was no place in that region where a town could bloom more luxuriantly, and he straightway gave it the title of which it is now so proud. For many years after it was named, and particularly during the contest with Danville (which was then coming into prominence sn account of its iron manufactories), it was scarcely ever spoken of by any other title than that of 'Bloom," and that was generally applied derisively. But it continued to grow and bloom on its hillside location, until it has bloom-ed into a thrifty, active, enterprising burg, and it is now accepted by all as the lovely Bloomsburg, destined, before many decades roll away, to develop into a full-fledged city of twenty or thirty thousand inhabitants. When Mr. Eyer gave the settlement the foregoing will suffice to show that Blooms-burg, although small, has within her borders men of greater wealth than are often found in larger and more pretentious places and that a prosperous future evi-dently lies before her.

The water is very pure and healthy, as it flows from the mountains, down a stream that has become historic since the rebellion. The reservoir and works, which are not far from the town, cost $40,000. The court house is an antiquated structure in the old part of the town, but it will either the old part of the town, but it will either be greatly improved soon or a new building erected. A new jail south of the railroad was recently built at a cost of $60,000. The front is of Farrands rille stone and presents a fine appearance. There are ten churches in which the population of 5000 worship, embracing Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, Welsh Baptist, Reformed, Lutheran, Evangelical, Episcopal, Catholic and African Methodist. The church property is valued at about $80,000.

REPHESENTATIVE MEN. Bloomsburg has a number of representative men, also, who are distinguished for their abilities as statesmen, jurists and politicians, who should not be overlooked in this sketch. The first deserving attention is the Hon. William Elwell, president judge of the Twenty-sixth Judicial district, composed of the counties of Columbia and Montour. As an advocate he early distinguished himself at the bar, and when elevated to the bench he did not disappoint his friends, who claimed tor him superior qualifications for that high position. For years Judge Elwell has been regarded as one of the ablest common pleas judges in the State, and so well satisfied are the people of his district with him that he was renominated unanimously a few weeks ago and will be supported at the polls irrespective of party.

As a politician and a statesman, the Hon. Charles R. Buckalew, who also res des here, stands deservedly high. He served with success and ability as a United States Senator, as well as the representative of his government to one of the South Bloomsburg has a number of representa-

There are some errors in statistics, but in the main the article is correct, and worthy of reproduction. We print portions of it below. After describing the location the writer says:

That it will be a valuable work everybody admits, because the industrious and careful author is not likely to have omitted a single item worthy of being embalmed in single item worthy of being embalmed in history. Among the representative men, too, may be mentioned the members of the press. Bloomsburg has three excellent weekly papers. The Odumbian, conducted by Elwell & Bittenbender, is an able exponent of the principles of Democracy. The office is neat, well equipped, and Colonel Freeze's great local work will be printed there. The Republican, conducted by D. A. Beckly, and James C. Brown, is the Republican organ of the county, and a the Republican organ of the county, and a paper of ability.
