Gen. H. W. Early has been nominated for Congress by the democrats in the sixteenth district.

This month Pennsylvania democrats met with smiling faces, and said" Have you heard the news from Ohio?" Next month the Ohio democrats will exclaim with the same pleasant smile, "Have you heard the news from Pennsyl-vania?".

From now until the evening of November 7th every democrat should use his influence to get out a full vote. It is no idle boast to say that we are bound to carry the state, and nothing but stay at home deficiency. When the foliation is the reform that will lower taxes, relieve industries and thereby make better wages for labor. Vote for him. Stand squarely in this issue by him and by his party and you will have no reason to regret your action."

It is felicitating himself of late that he has succeeded in sending to a political Hades, from which there is no resurrection, an official chosen to watch and guard the interests of 5,000.000 of freemen. But if there is anything the at home democrats can defeat us.

Columbia county should give Pattison and the whole ticket as large a majority as she gave Hancock in 1880.

wote for Beaver. We have heard of but one case in the whole state and that one is not far from here. Just that one is not far from here. Just that one is not far from here. Just think how badly that man will feel after the election, at having thrown his vote away. He can't take any part in State. I am not in sympathy with the so called Independent movement in this State. I am not in sympathy with

It is reported in the news papers that colored Cadet Whittaker, and Rev. Henry Ward Beecher have left the republicans and joined the democratic party. If it is true that the whittaker and Beecher cant stay in it any longer, then it is really in a bad way; and if the democratic party can way; and if the democratic party can stay in it any longer, then it is really in a bad will use what influence I have to secure the election of an abler and better man the reign of Charles II. a dirty boy, at ten octock a m., the following described real way; and if the democratic party can escape contamination with those fel-lows in it, then it is indeed the salt of

The Republican this week admits in effect, that the Democratic party will win this fall. It finds that "one by one the Independents are drifting into the democratic camp." If this be true, it will give us 100,000 majority in the state. The Republican desires all "honest Independents" to return to the regular camp, but as it claims there are no honest Independents, this cuts down the number who might return, to a cipher. It calls Independents "cow-ardly and sneaking enemies" an argu-ment which is well calculated to bring

Washington a stench in the nestrils of all honest and decent men. Bowen with the blonde woman dining with ran for Governor, exists now at Harris-

Beaver was nominated, and to-day stands on a platform which be dare not defend. That platform denounces podefend. That platform denounces po-litical assessments, but from the opening of the campaign to this time, General Beaver has not said one word in favor of that plank. The manner in which his canvass is being conducted has clos-ed his mouth, and he dare not denounce a practice which is furnishing him with means to corrupt voters, hire brass bands, and circulate documents contain-ing speeches of Pattison which were bands, and circulate documents containing speeches of Pattison which were never made. As a "Christian gentleman", Beaver should denounce those methods, instead of putting himself in the light of a political hypocrite, professing to believe one thing in his platform, and yet permitting those very abuses to be practiced for his own benefit. After the election, when he has time to reflect, he will see his mistake.

There is trouble in store for the Reublicans of the fifteenth congressional district, composed of Bradford, Sus-quehannah, Wayne, and Wyoming counties. At their recent conference Edward Overton of Bradford was cominated, defeating C. C. Jadwin of Wayne, the present member, who had served but one term. Overton has against it, the democrats will gain a congressman in that district. This is not the only republican distict that has trouble of the same kind. As the trouble of the same kind. As the trouble of the same kind. As the trouble of the same kind to the trouble of the same kind. As the trouble of the same kind to the trouble of the same kind to the trouble of the same kind. As the trouble of the same kind to the trouble of the t stalwarts see the government gradually slipping away from them it puts them in bad humor, and they are having family fights all around.

Powderly for Pattison

A large and enthusiastic democratic mass meeting was held at Nanticoke last week Friday. Among the speak-ers was Mayor T. V. Powderly of Scranton, one of the foremost labor re-formers in the state. Referring to the election he said:

"I have acted with the labor reform party ever since its inception. I am a labor reformer from principle, and I want to warn you against those who are not so; for it is an unfortunate fact that bad and vicious men from the slume have usurped the right to speak for the labor reform party and seek to barter its support to the old parties for a price. Such men have made themselves comspicuous in the pending campaign and have gone with an offer The charge made by Republican organs that Hon. John B. Storm is a free trader, is the only one that they have attempted against him, and as this is false they have nothing to stand on. Everybody recognizes his ability and purity, neither of which have ever and purity, neither of which have ever been questioned.

You not to vote the stalwart ticket nor the independent ticket. Do not throw your votes away on the latter, neither on the so-called labor ticket, or any side ticket, but vote the democratic ticket entire. Vote for Pattison. Pattison represents true reform. He represents true reform. He represents economy and honesty in public expenditures. He represents the reform that will lower taxes, relieve industries and thereby make better wages for succeeded in sending to a political

Beaver on Cameron.

It is impossible to conceive what influence can be brought to bear on a democrat that can induce him to vote for Beaver. "An Honest Confession is Good for the Soul."

The stalwart leaders skirmished around and got together a few of the faithful and went to the depot to greet him. Beaver came to the platform of the car and said, "that he would like to visit Bloomsburg, but he was so entirely under the control of the bosses of the bosses of the profession. All this while he stuck to the habits of dirt and dishonesty, and the stuck to the habits of dirt and dishonesty, and the stuck to the habits of dirt and dishonesty things in a very different light. After accepting the nomination from Cambriely under the control of the bosses as a Christmas gift, it would be butcher's row, and was so filthy in Sixty-Five Perches cowardly in Beaver to denounce the man that made him, if it were not that he is acting under instructions from

The Advantage of Having an Honest Democrat for Governor.

In one of the most influential Republican newspapers of the State we find the following reference to Mr. TILDEN'S public services: "Gov. Tilden used the ment which is well calculated to bring back all wanderers to the Cameron fold.

Republicans hope to carry the election in this state by the expenditure of a half a million of dollars to be used in buying votes and corrupting the ballot box, by circulating documents containing speeches of Pattison which he never made, and by raising funds for these purposes by repudiating their own platform. Democrats hope to win through the ability and purity of their candidates, the solidity of their candidates, the solidity of their form upon which they stand squarely and by seeing that every voter goes to the below to the bolls of the polls on the day of election, and casts his hablet for Pattison and the carry to the service which was not fully appreciated which had fastened its talons into the vitals of the Treasury. Nothing since done by Governor or Legislature has effected such a radical extirpation of a gentleman and to live in a respectable part of the town. But cleanliness was fatal to him. The grand old party of their form upon which they stand squarely and by seeing that every voter goes to the breaking and the reverse a very 'grand party. At length when they wanted an unsorruptions tool at the head of the judiciary to decide a most unrighteous cause in fateing that any recent Governor has been able to render the Commonwealth. At length when they wanted an unsorruptions tool at the head of the judiciary to decide a most unrighteous cause in fateing the which had fastened its talons into the vitals of the erown (Rex vs. the Corporation of London), they made Saunders chief justice of the king's bench. Then the decent men of the law determined they would stand him no longer miles his habits were reformed. They washed him by main force, cleaned him up, compelled him to wear the apparel of a gentleman and to live in a respectable part of the town. But cleanliness was fatal to him. The grand old party is decided a most unrighteous cause in rendered another service to the State at nothing. Altogether he was candidates, the solidity of their platform upon which they stand squarely and by seeing that every voter goes to the polls on the day of election, and casts his ballot for Pattison and the whole ticket.

Tilden never for one moment gave way to the fraudulent, blackmailing demand upon him, and thus the perjury which instuted that suit exposes itself. To him it must be matter of great gratification, as it is also to every honest man in the country.

We do not know when we have seen a good point more fairly made than this, at a great democratic meeting in Brooklyn, a few days ago, by Mr. Kin-sella. The report of the meeting says; -The first of the big meetings arranged for by the Democratic Campaign Committee in Brooklyn was held last night in the Brooklyn Academy. The audience over flowed the hall. Moutague street was alive with the surplus of Democrats. Thomas Kinsella, who was elected Chairman, said:

For two years, perhaps, we have had the richest, largest, most varied and most exhaustive collection of dress-goods in Philadelphia. Before that, we may have had the largest, and even the most exhaustive, but perhaps not the richest. The slowest trade to come to a new merchant is the trade of luxury. It is the slowest to change from one to another. But it does change.

We may say our dressabout their highest now. Second and third circles, southeast from center.

Silks of all sorts have come; and never were silks more acceptable. And these words have a meaning here beyond any they could have elsewhere; because of the greater variety of wants that look to us for supply. We must have all accepted styles, and all the approved quali-tics of those styles; and, as to colors, can you think of one that we can do without? A store that has only one c'ass of trade can get along with comparatively few silks. Which stock would you rather buy out of?

"cut con richte jonth extra Two damask towels at 15 and 18 cents may serve to show what we gain by buying of the makers. The very same towels are in the wholesale trade in New York at about 21 and 22 cents, which means at least 25 cents at

We are not going to say that all our retail prices are b low New York wholesale; no hing of the sort. "More than one swallow to make a ummer." But where such towels are to be got for 15 cents is a good place to look for bed and table-linen, and all the other linens. That's what we mean exactly; it's true, 100.

A very wide and surprisingly good navy-blue twilled flannel for 50 cents; 45-inch. Do you remember a 35cent flannel for 25 cents, of which we had 18,000 yards last fall? Afterward we got 7.000 yards more of it; and a little of it is left yet. That is 23-inch. This wide flannel is fully as good as that.

All the warmer sorts of underwear are ready; for men, women and children; thick-cotton, merino, wool, and silk. All the sorts needed for all sorts of people with all sorts of notions; and, for people who want it, there is quite a little wit about underwear to be picked up at the counter. Where else would you look for it? Not in books surely; for goods are changing all the time; and so get ahead of books. West of Arcade, 1313 Chestnut;
