The concert at the Opera House last week Wednesday evening was one of the richest treats that has ever been afforded a Bloomsburg audience. Camilla Urso has a world wide reputation as a violinist, and it has been justly earned. Her playing is wonderful. With closed eyes and easy movement of the arm she brings from the instrument the sweetest tones, and executes the most difficult compositions. With the last swing of her jewelled bow she opens her eyes as though waking from a dream. It is said that her great skill has been acquired only by years of toil. The other members of the company are all artists. Mr. Liebling, the pianist, Misses Spader and Hall, all did their work well, and received hearty encores. Mr. Burbank convulsed his hearers with his comic recitations, and was recalled. Through the entire programme warm appreciation was exhibited by the audience, showing that the cultured people of Bloomsburg have no difficulty in detecting merit in a musical entertainment of a high order.

The Transit of Venus.

On Wednesday at noon groups of men stood on the streets looking at the sun through smoked glasses. At the lower right hand corner of the sun could be seen a small round black spot, which was Venus crossing the face of the great luminary. Observations were made all over the country by scientific men, and we shall soon learn from their reports what they have found out. The next transit will occur in the year 2004. Keep your smoked glasses ready.

A Fatal Accident.

A young man named Reuben Mourey was killed in Locust township on Saturday last, about noon, by the accidental discharge of a gun. He was out hunting rabbits with his brother, and in jumping on a log the gun caught in some way, and was discharged, the shot entering the forehead, and coming out at the back of the head, literally blowing his brains out. His brother was some distance away, but found him soon afterwards. An inquest was held by Esquire Swank, and the above found to be the facts. The deceased was a cousin of the Sheriff-elect. His age was about 24 years.

Sheriff's Sales.

The Sheriff sold on Monday, the following properties, viz: The undivided half interest 13 acres, in Fishingcreek, belonging to B. H. Karns, for $245.00 to J. D. McHenry. All the right, title and interest, of Caleb O'Brian and terre tenants, in a tract of land of 65 acres in Fishingcreek, to E. H. Little for $10.00. A tract of land of Wm. Unangst, containing 6 acres in Fishingcreek, to Mrs. Wm. Unangst, for $90.00. A piece of land belonging to Emandus Unangst, the old "Forks Hotel" stand in Fishingcreek, to Jackson Ale for $115.00. The property of Andrew Lunger, of Centre, will be sold on Saturday; also the lots of Wm. Tarr, of Bloomsburg, on same day, according to adjournment.

To Printers.

Mr. J. K. Bittenbender has just secured a patent on a valuable invention of his own. It is an ink fountain for job printing presses, and we believe it is the best thing of the kind yet invented. We have used them in this office for several months and find they do their work admirably. As soon as arrangements can be made for their manufacture they will be placed in the market, and will, no doubt, meet with ready sale. They can be put on almost any job press with disc distribution, and the prices will be reasonable. For information concerning them address THE COLUMBIAN, Bloomsburg Pa.

Centre Notes.

Thanksgiving evening Mrs. Geo. Hagenbuch gave a surprise party in honor of her husband's birthday. Quite a number of the relatives and friends were present and a very enjoyable time was had. Under the management of Mrs. Hagenbuch a party never fails to prove a success. All join in wishing George many happy returns of the day.

Rumor has it that Rev. N. Spear expects soon to remove to Bloomsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Hagenbuch and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hagenbuch returned on Saturday from a six week's visit in the west. In Iowa they visited their brother, Wilson Hagenbuch who settled there in 1876. In Illinois, John Vanderslice who went from this county in 1879, Elwood Hughes, Isaiah Welsh, G. W. Shaffer and others who settled there at an earlier date. They report a very pleasant time among friends in Michigan and Ohio. They all express themselves well pleased with the trip and the western country and people. The gentlemen appeared pleased to learn of the grand Democratic Victory achieved in their absence but are no doubt a little ashamed of the fact that they deserted us just before the laurels were won. There is nothing like "sticking to it."

At the Hidley church neither the Presbyterian nor the Lutheran denominations have a minister and their pulpits are vacant. Such a state of affairs should not exist in this community.

Jacob F. Rink & Son, our enterprising tanners, are doing a thriving business this winter, and it is hinted that the son anticipates taking a partner to share his joys and profits. REPORTER.

Birth Day Party.

On Thursday morning, Thanksgiving day, could be seen sleighs, sleds, buggies and spring wagons, well filled, wending their way to the residence of Mr. Philip Creasy of Mt. Pleasant township, to surprise him and celebrate his fifty-second birth-day. The surprise was complete. The two sons, Mark and Rush, were out gunning, the daughter, Miss Fannie, was hastily preparing dinner so that she might go calling with a lady friend, the host and hostess were leisurely whiling away the morning. Soon the tables, extending through the entire length of the dining hall were groaning beneath the weight of roast chicken, duck, goose, turkey, cakes of kinds innumerable, but of quality superb—in short everything to satisfy the most fastidious. After all were served the time was occupied in social converse interspersed with excellent music by Mark Creasy. The presents were costly and numerous, ranging in value from one to eight dollars. The donors did not forget Mrs. Creasy, as she, too, was the recipient of an excellent easy chair.

After seeing and conversing with Mr. Creasy one can hardly believe that he has seen the frosts of fifty-two winters. He is one of the very few who never grow old. His smiling countenance and words of cheer are such as to infuse new life and vigor even into the most sedate.

When the sun sunk into the western horizon, and the goddess of night began to unfold her subtle curtains, we were reminded that the hour of adjournment had arrived. Bidding each other adieu and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Creary as much prosperity and happiness in the future as they have enjoyed in the past, we went to our respective homes feeling that it was indeed a gala day to every one present.

NEW JERSEY PORT WINE THE BEST.

Dr. E. H. Janes a noted physician of the New York Board of Health says:—

I take great pleasure in testifying my approbation of the superior qualities of the Port Wine produced by Mr. A. Speer, of Passaic, New Jersey. I have been to his vineyards and cellars.

After a prolonged trial I can confidently recommend the wine as a superior article for the sick and debilitated, and all those who require vinous stimulation and invigoration.

I shall continue to employ in my practice in all cases where a pure article of wine is called for the sick; and shall do all in my power to foster and encourage its production. For sale by C. A. K'eim.

"All ladies who may be troubled with nervous prostration; who suffer from organic displacement; who have a sense of weariness and a feeling of lassitude; who are languid in the morning; in whom the appetite for food is capricious and sleep at proper times uncertain, should have recourse to Mrs. Pinkhams Vegetable Compound.

"Skill and patience succeed where force fails." The quiet skill and patient research which brought forth Kidney-Wort illustrate the truth of the fable. Its grand success every where is admitted. All ladies know their faces are most attractive when free from pimples. Parker's Ginger Tonic is popular among them because it banishes impurities from blood and skin and makes the face glow with health.

DESERVEDLY POPULAR.

Unless it had great merit Parker's Ginger Tonic could not be so popular. Its sale has spread remarkably everywhere, because invalids find it gives them new life and vigor when other medicines fail entirely.—Ohio Farmer.

—See a woman in another column, near Speer's Vineyards, picking grapes from which Speer's Port Grape Wine is made, that is so highly esteemed by the medical profession, for the use of invalids, weakly persons and the aged.
