Hagenbuch-McHenry.

Mr. Oscar D. Hagenbuch of Centre, and Miss Ella C. McHenry of Stillwater, were married January 4th, 1883. The above was the great social event of the season, being the most brilliant affair to draw maps entirely from memory. of the kind that ever occurred in the neighborhood. The ceremony was performed in the Christian Chapel at half past six p. m., by the Rev. D. M. Kinter, in the presence of a very large audience which assembled to witness it. Messrs. Kinney Adams, of Berwick, and Irvin Yost, of Fishingcreek, officiated as greomsmen, and Misses Ida Hagenbuch, sister to the groom and Nettie McHenry, daughter of Hon, E. J. McHen ry, as bridesmaids, Misses May, Jennie, Eva and Grace McHenry as flower girls, and Messrs. H. V. White of Bloomsburg, and O. D. McHenry of Stillwater, as ushers. Mr. Charley McHenry presided at the organ, and to say he did it well, is but what all who know Charlie's musical powers, would expect. Everything passed off per feetly smooth, and without a single mistake or jar to ruffle the pleasure of the occasion at the chapel. After the ceremony the wedding party together with the numerous invited guests repaired to the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. F. McHenry, the popular merchant of Stillwater, where a great feast of good things awaited them, and to which all did ample justice. Next in order came the "old fashioned drumming" by the "boys," who did their work well, retiring quietly and orderly after the presentation of the "new married folks," and the usual "treat." Then followed the complimentary "serenade" by the Benton and Orangeville brass bands, who discoursed some sweet music in spite of the cold wind and driving snow which beat down upon them They also took a view of the bride and groom, which seemed to thaw out their nearly frozen lips, and warm up their cold fingers for another merry tune, after which they were disposed of in some way unknown to the writer, which sent them home with smiling faces and warm hearts filled with good wishes for the happy couple Taken all together it was a most pleasan

Miss Claudia B. Guie read a paper on The Necessity of Understanding the Science of Teaching.

Mr. Geo. E. Elwell of the Bloomsburg COLUMBIAN spoke of the History of Columbia County now in press. The book when finished will be the only complete History of the county ever published. It is the work of Col. J. G. Freeze, well known throughout the county as a lawyer and man of exceptional literary ability.

Prof. Johnson of Union county spoke of he many trials and difficulties of teachers. Col. Copeland again addressed the Institute, this time urging them to attend public lectures.

Mr. Sterner of Centralia read resolution of committee after which they were adopted by Institute. They are as follows : WHEREAS:-The interest manifested in the cause of education is continually on the increase, and WHEREAS, the popular sentiment is far more generously disposed as to length of school term, salary to be paid to teachers, and the fact that those who undertake to train young minds should and must receive special preparation for their work, is beusual interest shown during the present session of Institute:—Therefore be it Resolved, 1st. That we as teachers should feel grateful to our County Superintendent for securing so able a corps of instructors and that herein we should be stimulated to greater zeal in the cause of education.

Resolved, 2nd. That the thanks of the teachers of this Institute be and are hereby tendered to the people of Catawissa for the genial and hospitable manner in which they have entertained us—also that we compliment the citizens on having secured such enterprising directors who have so such enterprising directors who have so wisely looked after the comfort and intellectual advancement of the pupils, by the erection of so handsome a school building.

Resolvest, 3rd. That our thanks are due the gentlemen and ladies who have acted as our instructors, for their able, clear and concise treatment and presentation of their respective branches, also that our thanks are due the Principal and teachers of the Catawissa schools for their kindness.

Resolved, 4th. That we extend our thanks to the Lutheran congregation who so kind-ly gave us the use of their church for the evening entertainments. Also, that our heartiest thanks are due William Eyer, leader of the Catawissa Orchestra for the great pleasure derived from the music of his band of musicians, and to Prof. Keller for his kindness in leading the music at Resolvet, 5th. That we as teachers, by increased and more carnest effort to become educators in the higher and truer sense of the term, can bring the Directors sense of the term, can bring the Directors and public generally to acknowledge the worth of our profession, and grant us a longer school term, give us a better com-pensation and raise our profession to a higher plane of recognition. Respectfully submitted.
