BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1883.

The New York Sun is endeavoring to start a Tilden presidential boom, as appears from an article which we publish this week. We cannot see where Mr. Tilden's great strength lies, unless like butter, it is in his age.

The Board of Pardons held a meet ing Monday night, at which it was de-cided to recommend the commutation of Irsael Erb's sentence from hanging to imprisonment for life. He is the last of the murderers of the Kintzlers, of Snyder county, and his case has been before the board for over a year.

The efforts of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company to keep the Pennsylvania Railroad out of Read-ing took definite shape Monday, when a number of men employed by the former company began laying tracks along the city front, where the Penn-sylvania Company had proposed to en-

Governor Pattison signed the first pardon granted by the present administra-tion, on the 27 ult. It was in the case of Philip Dolan who was sentenced in cency. He is dying of consumption. Silas Gray's death sentence has been commuted to imprisonment for life.

If the bill becomes a law, hereafter a printed copy of the mercantile list will be sent to each shopkeeper who is subject to the payment of such taxes, and that the only advertising for the papers will be for proposals to do the printing of the list. The expense under the new law will not amount to over $2,000 .- Ex.

The board of directors of the Penn sylvania Railroad Company, at a special meeting Tuesday afternoon, decided to declare a semi-annual dividend of two per cent. in cash, two per cent. in scrip or cash, at the option of the stockhold-cent. of their holdings.

The dividend virtually amounts to about 5½ per cent. to holders of one hundred shares and over, while to hold ers of smaller lots it is proportionately more, the person holding one share get what amounts to about 25 per cent The company will be called upon to pay out $1,700,000 and will get back $3, 400,000, or as a broker put it, "there is two dollars in for every dollar out." The allotment will bring out in the neighborhood of 110,000 shares of new stock on which at six months hence a dividend will have to be paid; adding nearly a million more to the demand upon the dividend fund of the com-

The Next Democratic Candidate

At the present state of the discus sion as who shall be the next Democratic candidate for the Presidency, the name of Samuel J. Tilden has risen into greater prominence than any oth The representatives of newspapers have lately visited Mr. Tilden at his home in Greystone, and their reports upon the condition of the retired statesman's physical vigor is such that he is once more mentioned as a candidate for 1884, and the possibility of his leading the Democrats to victory is again discussed by the press, both Republican and Democratic.

The sentiment among the Republicans, as expressed through the journals of that party and through several of their political leaders, is that if Mr Tilden should emerge from his retire ment and appear again at the head o the Democratic ranks, the idea of their electing their ticket in 1884 would practically disappear. If the Democrats should offer to put in office a man known wisdom as Mr. Tilden, the can corruption and extravagance would be finally brought to a close. On the other hand, what an end to bickerings would Mr. Tilden's nomination bring to the Democrats! To have once more at their head a leader who knows and honors the principles of a wisdom and knowledge of public af-fairs far superior to men of his time, and of an intellectual power that could engraft the fruits of his political studies upon the perverted system of our Government and make it such a Democracy as was outlined by Thomas Jefferson! Theorists of every kind in the Democratic party, protectionists, free traders, men who believe in hard money or soft money, would all follow Mr. Tilden's guidance, because there would be no doubt of his ability to deal with the mighty task of reforming the Government, and because of their confidence in the wisdom of his judgment when applied to all questions of a nat-

And yet how does this candidate. who would fill the Democrats with enthusiasm and the Republicans with anxiety, correspond with the sort sugnot to lead his party in the approaching contest, what must be the principles of the standard bearer who shall equitable doctrine of free trade, a theory which the immense indebtedness of this country must, for many years to come, render impracticable ? shall he be a man capable of grappling with the vital needs of the country and the last Congress because of their riotous extravagance and indifference to the necessity of reducing the burdens

A GOOD PLATFORM.

The ofllowing resolutions adopted by the York county Democratic Committee at its last meeting, present the issues of the day so fercibly that they deserve reproduction in full.

According to the customary duty of Democratic County Committee, we call the attention of our fellow citizens to the existing state of public affairs, and invoke such action upon them at the primary meetings of the party as will best conduce to the cause of justice, liberty and good government.

1. The Chief Executive Magistrate of the Commonwealth, elected in No-vember and inaugrated in January, has entitled himself to the respect, confidence and gratitude of the Democracy, by his able and faithful efforts to re form the abuses of the public service, and to abolish the corrupt practices which had grown up under previous administrations.

2. We fully concur with the Governor in the judgment so strongly express-ed in his messages, that the power of corporate monopolies to rule the State, according to their pleasure. and plunder it for their profit, ought to be im-mediately checked—that the extortion of unreasonable tolls, taxes and freights by railroad companies, and the grossly unjust discrimination between parties whose rights are exactly equal, have never been authorized by any law, are now expressly forbidden by the Consti-tution, and, therefore, should be effectually stopped—that the seventeenth ar-ticle of the Constitution being designed merely to make the railroad corporations honest, and hold them like other December 1880 for two years and ten months for assault and battery and larcency. He is dying of consumption. the willful failure of the Legislature, or members thereof, to enforce the Constitution by appropriate legislation, is a direct breach of their oaths, and inex-politan journals are to bring about the labor are at present more unsatisfactory peace necessary for the welfare of the than ever before. On this subject also, party. They know as much about we have occasion to honor the wisdom peace-making as Wiggins does about and integrity of our Governor. If his recommendations were properly second-ed, every laborer would be assured of a It costs $60,000 a year to advertise the mercantile list in Philadelphia under the law as it now stand that under the law as it now stand the enforceable without the necessity of sudden and irregular strikes, which injure him as well as his employer, and

4. Our present system of taxation for state, county and school purposes, is grossly unjust because it is grossly unequal in its operation. Land and labor pay the great bulk of the public taxes, while capital invested in other pursuits much more productive is almost entirely exempt. The Democratic idea of Governor Pattison's administration would make all classes equal, relieve the farmers of unjust burdens and im pose only a fare share on others.

5. Approbation or blame of our rep resentatives in the legislature would be premature at this period of their session. ers, and four per cent. in stock. The latter provision gives stockholders the privilege of subscribing to stock at par in the proportion of twenty-five per cent. of their holdings. But he who fears to put the curb on fellow citizens of all political parties on the near prospect of reform in the National Government. The existing administration—the off-spring of accident, and the heir of fraud—can rally no formidable force to oppose the march of liberty and justice. The discordant materials of its body, not less than its weak and incompetent head, make its early dissolution a natural necessity; and with it will perish the power of th greedy rings that have robbed us of our public domain, plundered our treas ury and cheated us out of our votes.

7. The fundamental principle of true Democracy is expressed in the Jef-fersonian maxim; "Equal and exact justice to all men; special favors to none;" and this must be especially observed in the exercise of the taxing power not only in the State but the Na tion. We demand, therefore, the repeal of the internal taxes as being unneces sary, oppressive, injurious to particular classes, and attended with corruption. We are in favor of taxing foreign im ports, for the purpose authorized by the Constitution, namely: to raise revenue sufficient for the legitimate needs of the Treasury, with incidental protection, encouragement and reward, equal and just, to all classes of men, and all kinds of lawful business, including manufacturers, agriculture and commerce in all their branches.

The smoker who has been hugging the delusion that from May 1st he would find either the quality of his domestic cigar improved or its price reof such vast experience and of such duced may as well disabuse his mind of any such idea. The act of Congreat majorities that swept away the gress of March 3, 1883, reducing the Republicans last fall would be held by tax on manufactured tobacco, went into the Democrats in the approaching campaign, and the long career of Republiggram is one half, or from $6 to $3, and cigarettes from $1.75 to $1.25. The Land League came to an end in he Irish Cynvention held at Philadelphia last week, and out of its ashes has arisea the National Irish League of America. In the Convention good order prevailed, and the dynamite disniples of O'Donovan Rossa were overoverwhelmingly out numbered. The objects of the league are stated in the folowing resolutions :
